A Plague of Paradoxes Philip Setel, 1999 Presents an extended case study of the 20th century AIDS epidemic and the cultural circumstances from which it emerged The book brings together anthropology demography and epidemiology to explain how the Chagga people of Tanzania in Africa experience AIDS      The Culture of AIDS in Africa Gregory Barz, Judah Cohen, 2011-11-03 The Culture of AIDS in Africa presents 30 chapters offering a multifaceted nuanced and deeply affective portrait of the relationship between HIV AIDS and the arts in Africa including source material such as song lyrics and interviews      AIDS and Masculinity in the African City Robert Wyrod, 2016-07-05 AIDS has been a devastating plague in much of Sub Saharan Africa yet the long term implications for gender and sexuality are just emerging This book examines how AIDS has altered the ways masculinity is lived in Uganda a country known as Africa's great AIDS success story Based on extensive ethnographic research in an urban slum community called Bwaise this book reveals the persistence of masculine privilege in the age of AIDS and the implications such privilege has for men's and women's health and wellbeing in Uganda and beyond      Aids and Religious Practice in Africa Felicitas Becker, Wenzel Geissler, 2009-02-23 This volume explores how AIDS is understood confronted and lived with through religious ideas and practices and how these in turn are reinterpreted and changed by the experience of AIDS Examining the social production and productivity of AIDS linking bodily and spiritual experiences and religious medical political and economic discourses the papers counter simplified notions of causal effects of AIDS on religion or vice versa Instead they display people's resourcefulness in their struggle to move ahead in spite of adversity This relativises the vision of doom widely associated with the African AIDS epidemic and it allows to see AIDS instead of a singular event as the culmination of a century long process of changing livelihoods bodily well being and spiritual imaginaries      The Routledge Handbook of African Demography Clifford O. perspective to bear on the debate      Prescribing HIV Prevention Nicola Bulled, 2016-06-16 Critical health communication scholars point out that the acceptance of HIV risk prevention methods are bound inside inequitable structures of power and knowledge Nicola Bulled's in depth ethnographic account of how these messages are selected transmitted and reacted to by young adults in the AIDS torn population of Lesotho in southern Africa provides a crucial example of the importance of a culture centered approach to health communication She shows the clash between traditional western perceptions of how increased knowledge will increase compliance with western ideas of prevention and mixed messages offered by local religious educational and media institutions Bulled also demonstrates how structural and geographical forces prevent the delivery and acceptance of health messages and how local communities shape their own knowledge of health disease and illness This volume will be of interest to medical anthropologists and sociologists to those in health communication and to researchers working on issues related to HIV      Anthropology and Public Health Robert A. Hahn, Marcia Claire

Inhorn, 2009 Anthropologists also work as evaluators examining the activities of public health institutions and the successes and failures of public health programs      The Palgrave Handbook of African Men and Masculinities Ezra Chitando, Obert Bernard Mlambo, Sakhumzi Mfecane, Kopano Ratele, 2024-05-07 This handbook provides a comprehensive interdisciplinary overview of key theoretical and analytical approaches topics and debates in contemporary scholarship on African masculinities Refusing to privilege Western theoretical constructs but remaining in dialogue with them contributors explore the contestations around and diversities within men masculinities and sexualities in Africa investigate individual and collective practices of masculinity and interrogate the social construction of masculinities Bringing together insights from scholars across gender studies sociology anthropology philosophy history literature and religion this book demonstrates how recognizing and upholding the integrity of African phenomena locating and reflecting on men and masculinities in varied African contexts and drawing new theoretical frameworks all combine to take the discourse on men and masculinities in Africa forward Chapters examine a range of issues within the context of masculinities including embodiment sport violence militarism spirituality gender roles fatherhood homosexuality health and work This handbook will be valuable reading for scholars researchers and policymakers in Masculinity Studies and more broadly Gender Studies as well as African Studies

The Subject of Anthropology Henrietta L. Moore, 2007-03-12 In this book new book the author draws on anthropology feminism and psychoanalysis to develop an original and provocative theory of gender and of how we become sexed beings Using detailed ethnographic data from Melanesia and Africa to explore the strengths and weaknesses of a range of theories in anthropology feminism and psychoanalysis the author advocates an ethics of engagement based on a detailed understanding of our differences and similarities in the ways in which local communities and western scholars have imaginatively deployed the power of sexual difference She demonstrates the importance of ethnographic listening of focused attention to people's imaginations and of how this illuminates different facets of complex theoretical issues and human conundrums BOOKJACKET African Migrations Abdoulaye Kane, Todd H. Leedy, 2013-02-18 Engaging case studies add to understanding the social processes of voluntary and forced displacement within the continent and across the seas Choice Spurred by major changes in the world economy and in local ecology the contemporary migration of Africans both within the continent and to various destinations in Europe and North America has seriously affected thousands of lives and livelihoods The contributors to this volume reflecting a variety of disciplinary perspectives examine the causes and consequences of this new migration The essays cover topics such as rural urban migration into African cities transnational migration and the experience of immigrants abroad as well as the issues surrounding migrant identity and how Africans re create community and strive to maintain ethnic gender national and religious ties to their former homes Multi-sited Ethnography Simon Coleman, Pauline Von Hellermann, 2011 This collection of essays emerged out of intense conversations on multi sited ethnography prompted by a workshop held at the University of Sussex that brought together researchers from different institutional backgrounds and affiliations in Europe the United States and Africa including George Marcus himself the person most associated with the term and the method These researchers were brought together not only to discuss the shifting meaning of the concept in anthropology but also to see how it has influenced actual research projects that have spanned the world The volume that has resulted is not meant to be read as a program but as an extended provocation an argument that multi sitedness can be good not only to think but also to act both with and through Arguably this creation of a dynamic shifting perspective is not so different from anthropology itself a discipline dependent on the cultivation of aesthetic embodied and intellectual sensibilities in relation to the world at large Fierce Medicines, Fragile Socialities Dominik Mattes, 2019-08-01 Set in Tanga a city on the Tanzanian Swahili coast Dominik Mattes examines the implementation of antiretroviral HIV treatment ART in the area exploring the manifold infrastructural and social fragilities of treatment provision in public HIV clinics as well as patients multi layered struggles of coming to terms with ART in their everyday lives Based on extensive ethnographic fieldwork the book shows that notwithstanding the massive rollout of ART providing treatment and living a life with HIV in settings like Tanga continue to entail social economic and moral challenges and long term uncertainties which contradict the global rhetoric of the normalization of HIV To Be a Man Is Not a One-Day Job Daniel Jordan Smith, 2017-11-24 Refrains about financial hardship are ubiquitous in contemporary Nigeria frequently expressed through the idiom to be a man is not a one day job But while men talk constantly about money underlying their economic worries are broader concerns about the shifting meanings of masculinity amid changing expectations and practices of intimacy Drawing on twenty five years of experience in southeastern Nigeria Daniel Jordan Smith takes readers through the principal phases and arenas of men s lives the transition to adulthood searching for work and making a living courtship marriage and fatherhood fraternal and political relationships and finally the attainment of elder status and death He relates men s struggles both to fulfill their own aspirations and to meet society s expectations He also considers men who behave badly mistreat their wives and children or resort to crime and violence All of these men face similar challenges as they navigate the complex geometry of money and intimacy Unraveling these connections Smith argues provides us with a deeper understanding of both masculinity and society in Nigeria Jesus and the Stigmatized Elia Shabani Mligo,2011-08-01

Biblical scholars often read the Bible with their own interpretive interests in mind without associating the Bible with the concerns of laypeople This largely undermines the contributions laypeople can offer from reading the Bible in their own contexts and from their own life experiences Moreover such exclusively scholarly reading conceals the role of biblical texts in dealing with current social problems such as HIV AIDS related stigmatization Hence the lack of lay participation in the process of Bible reading makes the Bible less visible in various common life situations In this volume Elia Shabani Mligo draws on his fieldwork among people living with HIV AIDS PLWHA in Tanzania selects stigmatization as his perspective and chooses participant centered contextual Bible study as his method to argue that the reading of texts from the Gospel of John by PLWHA given their lived experiences of stigmatization empowers them to reject stigmatization as unjust Mligo's study shows that Christian PLWHA reject stigmatization because it does not comply with the attitude of Jesus toward stigmatized groups in his own time The theology emerging from the readings by stigmatized PLWHA through their evaluation of Jesus attitudes and acts toward stigmatized people in the texts challenges churches in their obligatory mission as disciples of Jesus Churches are challenged to reconsider healing hospitality and caring prophetic voices against stigmatization and the way they teach about HIV and AIDS in relation to sexuality Churches must revisit their practices toward stigmatized groups and listen to their voices Mligo argues that participant centered Bible study methods similar to the one used in this book whereby stigmatized people are the primary interlocutors in the process can be useful tools in listening to the voices of stigmatized groups Encyclopedia of Social and Cultural Anthropology Alan Barnard,Jonathan Spencer,2009-12-04

Written by leading scholars in the field this comprehensive and readable resource gives anthropology students a unique guide to the ideas arguments and history of the discipline The fully revised and expanded second edition reflects major changes in anthropology in the past decade HIV and East Africa Janet Seeley,2015-03-24 By tracing the shadow of the epidemic over the last 30 years in Uganda and more broadly in the region HIV and East Africa investigates the impact of the epidemic on people's lives and livelihoods placing the epidemic within the context of the social political and economic changes that have occurred over the last three decades Whilst it inevitably touches on loss and suffering the message is also about managing the impact of an epidemic which has had a profound impact on many lives When one looks for traces in southern Uganda once thought to be the epicentre of the epidemic it is hard to see any lasting impact at a community wide level Delve deeper and there are scars to be found among families and patterns of change which are a direct result of the epidemic The book goes on to explore the effect of improved treatment and care on perceptions of the epidemic and concludes by putting HIV into the context of other disease outbreaks reflecting on what we can learn from the history of other epidemics as well as the last 30 years of the HIV epidemic      Schooling as Uncertainty Frances Vavrus, 2021-01-28 In today's uncertain world few beliefs remain as firmly entrenched as the optimistic view that more schooling will lead to a better life Though this may be true in the aggregate how do we explain the circumstances when schooling fails to produce certainty or even does us harm Schooling as Uncertainty addresses this question by combining ethnography and memoir as it guides readers on a 30 year journey through fieldwork and familyhood in Tanzania and academic life in the USA Using reflexive longitudinal ethnographic research the book examines how African youth particularly young women employ schooling in an attempt to counter the uncertainties of marriage child rearing employment and HIV AIDS Adopting a narrative approach Vavrus tells the story of how her life became entangled with a community on Mount Kilimanjaro and how she and they sought greater security through schooling and to varying degrees succeeded      Death, Mourning, and Burial Antonius C. G. M.

Robben, 2017-04-26 The definitive reference on the anthropology of death and dying expanded with new contributions covering everything from animal mourning to mortuary cannibalism Few subjects stir the imagination more than the study of how people across cultures deal with death and dying This expanded second edition of the internationally bestselling Death Mourning and Burial offers cross cultural readings that span the period from dying to afterlife considering approaches to this transition as a social process and exploring the great variations of cultural responses to death Exploring new content including organ transplantation institutionalized care for the dying HIV AIDs animal mourning and biotechnology this text retains classic readings from the first edition and is enhanced by sixteen new articles and two new sections which provide increased breadth and depth for readers Death Mourning and Burial Second Edition is divided into eight parts reflecting the social trajectory of death conceptualizations of death death dying and care grief and mourning mortuary rituals and remembrance and regeneration Sections are introduced through foundational texts which provide the ideal introduction to this diverse field It is essential reading for anyone concerned with issues of death and dying as well as violence terrorism war state terror organ theft and mortuary rituals A thoroughly revised edition of this classic anthology featuring twenty three new articles two new sections and three reformulated sections Updated to include current topics including organ transplantation institutionalized care for the dying HIV AIDs animal mourning and biotechnology Must reading for anyone concerned with issues of death and dying as well as violence terrorism war state terror organ theft and mortuary rituals Serves as a text for anthropology classes and provides a genuinely cross cultural perspective to all those studying death and dying      Discovering Tuberculosis Christian W. McMillen, 2015-01-01 Tuberculosis is one of the world's deadliest infectious diseases killing nearly two million people every year now more than at any other time in history While the developed world has nearly forgotten about TB it continues to wreak havoc across much of the globe In this interdisciplinary study of global efforts to control TB Christian McMillen examines the disease's remarkable staying power by offering a probing look at key locations developments ideas and medical successes and failures since 1900 He explores TB and race in east Africa in South Africa and on Native American reservations in the first half of the twentieth century investigates the unsuccessful search for a vaccine uncovers the origins of drug resistant tuberculosis in Kenya and elsewhere in the decades following World War II and details the tragic story of the resurgence of TB in the era of HIV AIDS Discovering Tuberculosis tells the story of why controlling TB has been and continues to be so difficult
