Livres hebdo, 2008 Comment concevoir un service Web : de la théorie à la pratique Arnaud Le Guelvouit, 1998-01-01T23:00:00+01:00

Comment concevoir puis mettre en œuvre un service web de diffusion d'information. Le propos de cet ouvrage est de donner au lecteur les éléments théoriques utiles pour mettre en place un tel site web, de l'analyse réfléchie des objectifs et des besoins, l'examen méthodique de tous les processus existants pour ce faire. Issu d'un manuel du DESS documentation et technologies avancées, présent à l'Université Paris VIII, ce document est le fruit d'un important travail de confrontation entre des éléments théoriques, partant de l'étude de la littérature sur le sujet et de l'expérience de création d'un service web acquise par l'auteur à INRIA. Cette expérience lui permet de souligner le décalage qui peut exister entre un regard théorique et les limites et compromis que la réalité impose forcément et d'insister en conclusion sur la place et les spécificités des professionnels de l'information sur le web.
