The Road to Prosperity T. Wood, 2017-12-15 Excerpt from The Road to Prosperity A Treatise on Political Economy At the present time hundreds of thousands of families are suffering greatly through the want of employment which would not be the case if prosperity existed Many apparently intelligent persons seem to think that if we write and talk prosperity it is sure to follow The writer is persuaded that it requires cause to produce effect and believing the present depression is occasioned by removable causes undertakes to point out remedies which would bring about the return of prosperous times and permanently establish them The various subjects will be considered under their respective headings This book is not copyrighted hence it is at the disposal of editors and others to use as they think fit hoping they will improve upon the suggestions or adopt the opinions expressed having as their object permanent prosperity and the contentment of the people About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works

The Tōkaidō Road Jilly Traganou, 2004 Offers a comparative study of representations of the Tōkaidō road the most important route of Japan during the Edo 1600 1868 and Meiji 1868 1912 eras

History of the First African Baptist Church, from Its Organization, January 10th, 1788, to July 1st, 1888 Emanuel King Love, 1888 Love the pastor of the First African Baptist Church in Savannah writes this history to argue his Church's claim to be the first African American Baptist Church in North America He gives a detailed report of the rise of the Church under Andrew Bryan before the split of 1832 when a majority of the members followed Andrew C Marshall to form a new church in Franklin Square in Savannah retaining the old name He provides biographies of the pastors and important leaders of the new congregation including his own administration and concludes by giving the documents addresses and sermons surrounding the first centennial celebration which included the adjudication of the dispute between the two churches
