Eating with the Enemy Robert Egan, Kurt Pitzer, 2010-04-13 There was only one chair in the room Fluorescent tubes on the ceiling hummed with blue light The woman smiled and explained in a soothing voice that there were some procedures they had to go through We're just going to put you under for a few minutes she said One of the officials told me to turn around Do I have a choice I lowered my pants exposing most of my left butt cheek The woman came up from behind me and I felt a sharp prick as she pushed in the needle and rammed the solution into my muscle When she finished I sat down Which agency do you work for CIA asked the other male official I operate independently I said I started to feel good Very good I had the urge to laugh even though nobody had said anything funny I'm a lone wolf And I make burgers for a living I'm a burger making lone wolf I must have blacked out for some of it When I opened my eyes again the two men were there but the woman was gone I wiped my nose and my hand came away bloody I suddenly felt so sick and dizzy I thought I'd had a stroke What the fuck In Pyongyang in 1994 Robert Egan was given Sodium Pentathol or truth serum by North Korean agents trying to determine his real identity What was he doing in the world's most isolated nation while the U.S. government recoiled at its human rights record and its quest for dangerous nukes Why had he befriended one of North Korea's top envoys to the United Nations What was Egan after Fast paced and often astounding Eating with the Enemy is the tale of a restless restaurant owner from a mobbed up New Jersey town who for thirteen years inserted himself into the high stakes diplomatic battles between the United States and North Korea Egan dropped out of high school in working class Fairfield New Jersey in the midseventies and might have followed his father's path as a roofing contractor But Bobby had bigger plans for himself and after a few years wasted on drugs and petty crime his life took an astonishing turn when his interest in the search for Vietnam era POWs led to an introduction in the early nineties to North Korean officials desperate to improve relations with the United States So Egan turned his restaurant Cubby's into his own version of Camp David Between ball games fishing trips and heaping plates of pork ribs he advised deputy ambassador to the United Nations Han Song Ryol and other North Koreans during tumultuous years that saw the death of Kim Il sung and the rise of Kim Jong il false starts toward peace during the Clinton administration the Bush Axis of Evil era and North Korea s successful test of a nuclear weapon in 2006 All the while Egan informed for the FBI vexed the White House with his meddling chaperoned the communist nation s athletes on hilarious adventures and nearly rescued a captured U S Navy vessel all in the interest of promoting peace Egan parses U S foreign policy with a mobster s street smarts and he challenges the idea that the United States should not have relations with its adversaries The intense yet unlikely friendship between him and Ambassador Han provides hope for better relations between enemy nations and shows just how far one lone citizen can go when he tries to right the world s wrongs The Elections of 2020 Michael Nelson,2021-06-15

The Elections of 2020 is a timely comprehensive scholarly and engagingly written account of the 2020 elections It features essays by an all star team of political scientists in the immediate aftermath of the 2020 general election chronicling every stage of the presidential race as well as the coterminous congressional elections paying additional attention to the role of the media and campaign finance in the process Broad in coverage and bolstered by tables and figures presenting exit polls and voting results in the primaries caucuses and the general election these essays discuss the consequences of these elections for the presidency Congress and the larger political system ContributorsMarjorie Randon Hershey Indiana University Marc J Hetherington University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill Charles Hunt Boise State University Gary C Jacobson University of California San Diego William G Mayer Northeastern University Nicole Mellow Williams College Gerald M Pomper Rutgers University Paul J Quirk University of British Columbia Andrew Rudalevige Bowdoin College Candis Watts Smith Pennsylvania State University Public Television B. J. Bullert,1997 Public television s original mandate required it to address issues of controversy and facilitate the inclusion of voices and perspectives from outside the established consensus Through detailed chronology the author of this text traces how far this obligation has been met The Candidate Samuel L.

Popkin,2012-03-15 There are two winners in every presidential election campaign The inevitable winner when it begins such as Rudy Giuliani or Hillary Clinton in 2008 and the inevitable victor after it ends In The Candidate Samuel Popkin explains the difference between them While plenty of political insiders have written about specific campaigns only Popkin drawing on a lifetime of presidential campaign experience and extensive research analyzes what it takes to win the next campaign The road to the White House is littered with geniuses of campaigns past Why doesn t practice make perfect Why is experience such a poor teacher Why are the same mistakes replayed again and again Based on detailed analyses of the winners and losers of the last 60 years of presidential campaigns Popkin explains how challengers get to the White House how incumbents stay there for a second term and how successors hold power for their party He looks in particular at three campaigns George H W Bush s muddled campaign for reelection in 1992 Al Gore s flawed campaign for the presidency in 2000 and Hillary Clinton s mismanaged effort to win the nomination in 2008 and uncovers the lessons that Ronald Reagan can teach future candidates about teamwork Throughout Popkin illuminates the intricacies of presidential campaigns the small details and the big picture the surprising mistakes and the predictable miscues in a riveting account of what goes on inside a campaign and what makes one succeed while another fails As Popkin shows a vision for the future and the audacity to run are only the first steps in a candidate s run for office To truly survive the most grueling show on earth presidential hopefuls have to understand the critical factors that Popkin reveals in The Candidate In the wake of the 2012 election Popkin s analysis looks remarkably prescient Obama ran a strong incumbent oriented campaign but made typical incumbent mistakes as evidenced by his weak performance in the first debate The Romney campaign correctly put power in the hands of a strong campaign manager but it couldn t overcome the weaknesses of the candidate
