Shaping China's Future In World Affairs Robert G Sutter, 2019-06-26 This book considers Chinese foreign policy and China's future role in world affairs in the context of the country's recent past Robert Sutter shows that although it appears to be in U.S. interests for post Mao leaders to continue moving toward international norms a post Deng leadership backed by growing economic and military power and reflecting profound changes in China's economy and society could move in markedly different directions Most foreign powers appear willing to accommodate China avoiding actions that could prompt a sharp shift in Chinese foreign policy but Sutter argues that current U.S. policy intrudes on so many issues that are particularly sensitive for Beijing and for China's future that it represents perhaps the most critical variable determining how China will position itself in world affairs Concluding that there is no guarantee the United States will use this influence wisely Sutter examines the uncertainty and unpredictability of U.S. foreign policy in the post Cold War environment that work against the creation of an effective U.S. policy toward China

Identity, Culture, and Chinese Foreign Policy Kangkyu Lee, 2020-11-29 This book assesses the role of identity and Chinese face culture in Chinese foreign policy by analyzing China's political and economic retaliation against South Korea's deployment of the THAAD Terminal High Altitude Area Defense system on its soil By examining the history and military action of China Japan and North and South Korea the book argues that China's divergent responses were caused by different expectations according to whether states had a perceived identity as a friend or a rival The author demonstrates that Chinese face culture shapes China's reaction to others through three dynamics of seeking saving and losing face This book shows how identity and culture have worked in the relationship between China and neighboring countries through three case studies exploring North Korea's Taepodong 2 missile launch and first nuclear test in 2006 South Korea's decision to allow the United States to deploy the THAAD around 2016 and Japan's decision to deploy two U.S. X band radars in 2005 and 2014 A timely analysis of the importance of identity and culture in international relations the book will be of interest to scholars of Chinese foreign policy Sino South Korean relations Sino North Korean relations Sino Japanese relations Korean Politics Asian Politics and International Relations
