Share The Care An Evaluation Of A Familybased Respite Care Service:

"Share the Care" Kirsten Stalker, 1990 Share the Care examines the different ways in which respite care schemes operate focusing in particular on the Share the Care service in Lothian and the experience of parents of children with learning difficulties of using the scheme respite carers families facing an extended wait for respite and families who withdraw from the scheme The Children Act Great Britain. Dept. of Health, 1991 How will the Children Act affect work with disabled children This guidance outlines the responsibilities of social services departments SSDs under the Act stating that they have a clear duty to provide services to children with disabilities Treating disabled children as children first is of paramount importance However there is a need for all staff who may be involved in providing a service to a child with a disability to be aware of legislation and SSDs should ensure that advice expertise and resources are available for their staff Development in Short-term Care Kirsten Stalker,1996 The first book to bring together and review the findings of research into short term care services for a range of user groups this book addresses the question of short term care from many perspectives Particular attention is paid to the views of those in direct receipt of the service while the issues of costings and quality and the current research on provision to particular groups including disabled children and people with dementia are also examined The Evaluation Handbook for Health Professionals Anne Lazenbatt, 2002-04-04 This easy to use handbook is a useful resource for all health professionals engaged in processes of evaluation in a variety of contexts within the world of healthcare Encouraging an evidence based approach to practice it provides guidelines on how to design and evaluate an intervention examples of good practice reliable and easy to use measures advice on how to work effectively Designed to prompt self evaluation and group project evaluation it illustrates how simple evaluation methods can help to break down the divisions between research and practice It shows how more practitioners can apply such methods to improve the quality of care as well as the treatments and services which they offer their patients and clients The examples drawn from clinical settings community practice and work in the voluntary sector demonstrate the kind of evaluation that can be undertaken by a small scale team or a single practitioner with limited resources The Evaluation Handbook will be a useful source of reference for those new to evaluation as well as more experienced managers and researchers International Review of Research in Mental Retardation Laraine Masters Glidden, 2003-05-03 International Review of Research in Mental Retardation is an ongoing scholarly look at research into the causes effects classification systems syndromes etc of mental retardation Contributors come from wide ranging perspectives including genetics psychology education and other health and behavioral sciences Disabled Children and the Law Janet Read, Luke J. Clements, David Ruebain, 2006 Now in its completely updated second edition this accessible guide provides essential information about how the law can be used to promote good practice and policy development for disabled children and young people The authors take an anti discriminatory and inclusive approach that involves parents and children in decision making and advocacy They summarise recent research on common needs and problems of disabled children young adults and their families and what support services are valued by them Individual chapters cover issues affecting children at different stages in the lifecourse including receiving diagnosis ensuring educational and social inclusion and establishing autonomy and independence in early adulthood The overlapping legal responsibilities of social services health and education are explained and changes arising from the Children Act 2004 are highlighted Disabled Children and the Law is an essential reference for practitioners policy makers students and families Children and Society Malcolm Hill,2014-09-25 Provides a comprehensive overview of the issues research and debates relating to children and the experience of childhood in late twentieth century Britain This volume will address key issues such as juvenile crime poverty child protection and children s rights and their implications for the development of policy and services for children Presents first hand accounts from children and parents

Reconceptualising Work with 'Carers' Kirsten Stalker,2002-11-15 Demonstrating the scope and diversity of caring the contributors highlight the positive aspects of caring and the interdependence of many caring relationships but also broach the sensitive and complex subject of poor care and the importance of identifying and meeting the needs of hidden carers
