What Does It Mean to "Do This"? Michael Root, James J. Buckley, 2014-11-13 Jesus best known mandate after perhaps the mandate to love God and neighbor was given at the Last Supper just before his death Do this in memory of me Indeed a case can be made that to do this is the source and summit of the way Christians carry out Jesus love mandate Of course Christians have debated what it means to do this and these debates have all too often led to divisions within and between them debates over leavened and unleavened bread reception of the cup real presence and sacrifice open or closed communion this Supper and the hunger of the world These divisions seem to fly in the face of Jesus mandate causing some to wonder whether this is really the Lord's Supper we celebrate compare 1 Corinthians 11 Everything turns on just what it means to do this The purpose of the Center for Catholic and Evangelical Theology's 2012 conference was to address at least some of the many aspects of this question to address them together as Catholic Protestant and Orthodox pastors and theologians and all participants in the Supper Life 101 spiritual nature of Polish theatre director Jerzy Grotowski's work. It corrects the lacunae in both theatre studies and religious studies by examining the interaction between the two fields in his artistic output. The central argument of the text is that through an embodied and materialist approach to religion developed in the work of Michel Foucault and religious studies scholar Manuel Vasquez as well as a critical reading of the concepts of the New Age a new understanding of Grotowski and religion can be developed. It is possible to show how Grotowski's work articulated spiritual experience within the body achieving a removal of spirituality from ecclesial authorities and relocating spiritual experience within the body of the performer. This is a unique analysis of one of the 20th Century's most famous theatrical figures. As such it is a vital reference for academics in both Religion and Theatre Studies that have an interest in the spiritual aspects of Grotowski's work.

Khwezi Redi Tlhabi, 2017-09-18. In May 2006 Jacob Zuma was found not guilty of the rape of Fezekile Ntsukela Kuzwayo better known as Khwezi in the Johannesburg High Court. Another nail was driven into the coffin of South Africa's fight against sexual violence. Vilified by Zuma's many supporters Khwezi was forced to flee South Africa and make a life in the shadows first in Europe and then back on the African continent. A decade after Zuma's acquittal Khwezi died. But not before she had slipped back into South Africa and started work with journalist Redi Tlhabi on a book about her life. About how as a young girl living in exile in ANC camps she was raped by the uncles who were supposed to protect her. About her great love for her father Judson Kuzwayo an ANC activist who died when Khwezi was almost ten. And about how as a young adult she was driven once again into exile suffering not only at the hands of Zuma's devotees but under the harsh eye of the media. In sensitive and considered language Red Tlhabi breathes life into a woman for so long forced to live in hiding. In telling the story of Khwezi Tlhabi draws attention to the sexual abuse that abounded during the struggle years abuse that continues to plague women and children in South Africa today.
