North Carolina Shark Attacks John Hairr, 2023 Swim at your own risk Millions of tourists visit North Carolina beaches each year but advertisements promoting fun in the sun along idyllic shores forget to mention the dangers lurking under the waves The Old North State is home to some very large and lethal sharks bull sharks tiger sharks oceanic whitetips and great whites Large sharks used to be prolific along the coast especially in the waters of Carteret County where some brutal fatal attacks have happened Offshore mariners dreaded the infamous Graveyard of the Atlantic knowing their chances of meeting a gruesome end were high in those shark haunted waters As shark populations rebound in waters where humans congregate local author John Hairr tells forgotten tales of historic clashes between these two apex predators

Screening the Nonhuman Amber E. George, J.L. Schatz, 2016-04-27 Screening the Nonhuman draws connections between how animals represented on screen translate into reality In doing so the book demonstrates that consuming media is not a neutral act but rather a political one The images humans consume have real world consequences for how animals are treated as actors as pets and in nature The contributors propose that altering the representations of animals can change the way humans relate to non humans Our hope is for humans to generate more ethical relationships with non humans ultimately mediating reality both in terms of fiction and non fiction To achieve this end film television advertisements and social media are analyzed through an intersectional lens But the book doesn't stop here Each author creates counter representational strategies that promise to unweave the assumptions that have led to the mistreatment of humans and non humans alike
