spatial and temporal contexts within which diverse intellectual inflections help construct write speak academic meaning knowing and practice By denaturalizing notions of singularity of authorship or scholarship the Handbook plants a dialogic interplay animated by multi vocality multi modality and multi disciplinarity Targeting graduate students and young scholars of political and social sciences the Handbook is significant for understanding how the Middle East is written and re written read and re read epistemology methodology and for how it comes to exist ontology Concrete City Armelle Choplin, 2023-04-03 CONCRETE CITY Armelle Choplin's Concrete City weaves a novel and engaging analysis of urbanization by tracing the journeys of cement and people making urban life in West Africa From post independence high modernist ambitions to building the opportunities to make a living the emerging transnational corridor along the West African coast provides a starting point for insights which will expand and inform understanding of both established and newly emerging urbanization processes in many different contexts Jennifer Robinson Professor of Geography University College of London UK In this very innovative and superbly illustrated book Armelle Choplin makes cement vibrant with affect politics economic interests and cultural meanings She takes us to a fascinating journey along the West African urban corridor following the social life of concrete and showing how this material shapes contemporary urbanization and everyday life Ola S derstr m Professor of Geography University of Neuch tel Switzerland Concrete City Material Flows and Urbanization in West Africa delivers a theoretically informed ethnographic exploration of the African urban world through the life of concrete Emblematic of frenetic urban and capitalistic development this material is pervasive shaping contemporary urban landscapes and societies and their links to the global world It stands and circulates at the heart of major financial investments political forces and environmental debates At the same time it epitomises values of modernity and success redefining social practices forms of dwelling and living and popular imaginaries. The book invites the reader to follow bags of cement from production plant to construction site along the 1000 kilometre urban corridor that links Abidjan to Accra Lom Cotonou and Lagos combining the perspectives of cement tycoons entrepreneurs and political stakeholders but also of ordinary men and women who plan build and dream of the Concrete City With this innovative exploration of urban life through concrete Armelle Choplin delivers a fascinating journey into and reflection on the sustainability of our urban futures Reluctant Landscapes Francois G. Richard, 2018-09-21 West African history is inseparable from the history of the Atlantic slave trade and colonialism According to historical archaeologist Fran ois Richard however the dominance of this narrative not only colors the range of political discourse about Africa but also occludes many lesser known but equally important experiences of those living in the region Reluctant Landscapes is an exploration of the making and remaking of political experience and physical landscapes among rural communities in the Siin province of Senegal between the late 1500s and the onset of World War II By recovering the histories of farmers and commoners who made up African states demographic core in this period Richard shows their crucial but often overlooked role in the making of Siin history The book also delves into the fraught relation between the Seereer a minority ethnic and religious group and the Senegalese nation state with Siin's perceived primitive conservatism standing at odds with the country's Islamic modernity Through a deep engagement with oral documentary archaeological and ethnographic archives Richard's groundbreaking study revisits the four hundred year history of a rural community shunted to the margins of Senegal's national imagination Beauty around the World Erin Kenny, Elizabeth Gackstetter Nichols, 2017-06-22 Taking the concept of beauty seriously this encyclopedia examines how humanity has sought and continues to seek what is beautiful in a variety of cultural contexts giving readers an understanding of how to look at beauty both intellectually and critically Is beauty ever more than skin deep Arguably yes considering that the concept of beauty and the pursuit of it has shaped cultures worldwide across every time period and has even served to change the course of history Studying beauty practices yields insight into social status wealth political ideology religious doctrine and gender expectations including gender nonconformity A truly interdisciplinary text Beauty around the World A Cultural Encyclopedia presents an insightful perspective on beauty that draws from philosophy literature sociology anthropology psychology and feminist studies giving readers a unique view of world beauty practices This volume offers information about beauty practices from the past to the present in alphabetical entries that address terms and topics such as beards dreadlocks Geisha moko tattoos and progressive muscularity Readers will better comprehend how beauty shapes many social interactions in profound ways worldwide and that the unspoken social agreements that shape ideals of attractiveness and desirability within any given culture can matter very much The encyclopedia's entries challenge readers to consider the guestions What is beauty and Why does it matter A comprehensive bibliography is a valuable resource for further research The Twilight of Cutting Saida Hodzic, 2017 The last three decades have witnessed a proliferation of nongovernmental organizations engaging in new campaigns to end the practice of female genital cutting across Africa These campaigns have in turn spurred new institutions discourses and political projects bringing about unexpected social transformations both intended and unintended Consequently cutting is waning across the continent At the same time these endings are misrecognized and disavowed by public and scholarly discourses across the political spectrum What does it mean to say that while cutting is ending the Western discourse surrounding it is on the rise And what kind of a feminist anthropology is needed in such a moment The Twilight of Cutting examines these and other questions from the vantage point of Ghanaian feminist and reproductive health NGOs that have organized campaigns against cutting for over thirty years The book looks at these NGOs not as solutions but as sites of problematization The purpose of understanding these Ghanaian campaigns their transnational and regional encounters and the forms of governmentality they produce is not to charge them with providing answers to the question how do we end cutting Instead it is to account for their work their historicity the life worlds and subjectivities they engender and the modes of reflection imminent critique and opposition they set in motion Outsourcing Border Control Federica Infantino, 2017-03-18 This book explores the everyday practices of border control and implementation of mobility policy in the European Schengen area by analyzing consular visas services on the edges of the territory Using an original case study private contractors that implement EU visa policy on governments behalf the author focuses on visa application centers located in Morocco and run by the two major contractors of European Member States the transnational corporations VFSGlobal and TLSContact The analysis builds on ethnographic research that encompasses the making of EU visa policy at the European national and local levels It aims at uncovering the reasons that have led to the adoption of outsourcing as a normal and legitimized mode to implement EU visa policy and the effects of that Islam in Africa South of the Sahara Pade Badru, Brigid M. The Odds Revisited K. A. S. Murshid,2022-11-10 This book looks at Bangladesh at and beyond its fifty years since its formation in 1971 A comprehensive holistic narrative is constructed to track key development dynamics at the sectoral sub sectoral and macro levels This much needed exercise dispels the notion that the Bangladesh surprise can be reduced to singular dimensions such as the trauma of the 1971 war or women s empowerment and micro credit The mixture of economic history political economy and institutional and actor analysis provide fresh insights to the themes addressed A well argued case to view emerging Bangladesh as the newest member of the Flying Geese club The Odds Revisited includes a detailed review of macro and sectoral developments over the last fifty years and provides new material and insights into the rise of Bangladesh's capitalist class a socio economic perspective of the role of Dhaka based urbanization and the rise of a new middle class

Southern Anthropocenes Casper Bruun Jensen, 2025-09-24 This wide ranging volume addresses the changing landscape of problems challenges and possibilities that emerge once the macroscopic notion of the Anthropocene is replaced with Southern Anthropocenes It envisions Southern Anthropocenes as an opening towards forms and ends of life that exceed while remaining in partial relation with modern socio economic horizons and the determinations of the geo eco and climate sciences What happens if Southern Anthropocenes are allowed to multiply and room is made for practices of worlding and life that are impossible from within the singular Anthropocene Key issues include emergent interfaces between beings ways of living and worlds problems of co existence in and across pluriversal contact zones explorations of liveability under rapidly changing circumstances speculations about other futures and how to invent them investigations of more than human itineraries and entangled territories and explorations of how to collectively invent the portals between ways of thinking and acting on a planet in a critical state It will be essential reading for advanced undergraduate and postgraduate students in Sociology Anthropology Critical Education Environmental Humanities Science and Technology Studies Geography and Urban Studies Green Consumption Bart Barendregt, Rivke Jaffe, 2020-05-15 Green lifestyles and ethical consumption have become increasingly popular strategies in moving towards environmentally friendly societies and combating global poverty Where previously environmentalists saw excess consumption as central to the problem green consumerism now places consumption at the heart of the solution However ethical and sustainable consumption are also important forms of central to the creation and maintenance of class distinction Green Consumption scrutinizes the emergent phenomenon of what this book terms eco chic a combination of lifestyle politics environmentalism spirituality beauty and health Eco chic connects ethical sustainable and elite consumption It is increasingly part of the identity kit of certain sections of society who seek to combine taste and style with care for personal wellness and the environment This book deals with eco chic as a set of activities an ideological framework and a popular marketing strategy offering a critical examination of its manifestations in both the global North and South The diverse case studies presented in this book range from Basque sheep cheese production and Ghanaian Afro chic hairstyles to Asian tropical spa culture and Dutch fair trade jewellery initiatives The authors assess the ways in which eco chic with its apparent paradox of consumption and idealism can make a genuine contribution to solving some of the most pressing problems of our time Shaping Tradition Jeff Grischow, 2006-11-01 Using Northern Ghana as a case study this book challenges the invocation of civil society as a tool for building community in the name of development Far from equating civil society with community colonial officials used the doctrine of community against African civil society For colonial officers civil society represented the corruption of authentic development which could be avoided only by protecting traditional peasant communities in the face of economic transformation The book charts this colonial program from the creation of native states in the early twentieth century to an ambitious agricultural mechanisation scheme in the late 1940s In its challenge to current writing on civil society the study offers an important contribution to African history and development studies Diversity, Social Justice, and Inclusive Excellence Seth N. Asumah, Mechthild Nagel, 2014-05-19 Winner of the 2016 NYASA Book Award presented by the New York African Studies Association When students are introduced to the study of diversity and social justice it is usually from sociological and psychological perspectives. The scholars and activists featured in this anthology reject this approach as too limiting insisting that we adopt a view that is both transdisciplinary and multiperspectival Their essays focus on the components of diversity social justice and inclusive excellence not just within the United States but in other parts of the world They examine diversity in the contexts of culture race class gender learned ability and disability religion sexual orientation and citizenship and explore how these concepts and identities interrelate The result is a book that will provide readers with a better theoretical understanding of diversity studies and will enable them to see and think critically about oppression and how systems of oppression may be challenged 'African Potentials' for Wildlife Conservation and Natural Resource Management Toshio Meguro, Chihiro Ito, 2021-10-01 This book focuses on two specific areas wildlife conservation policies and projects and the interaction between local societies and the surrounding environment in Africa Against the internationally dominant approach that regards Africa as being a state of deficiency this book demonstrates based on fieldwork concerning various natural resources e g wildlife forests fruit fish and land as well as many famous protected areas that African people are collectively and actively trying to solve the environmental problems they are facing by strategically utilising both indigenous means and new extrinsic opportunities Meanwhile it also becomes clear that wildlife conservation still continues to cause local societies a multitude of problems and the potentials of local people and societies are existing but unnoticed and suppressed by powerful outsiders and therefore remaining informal and invisible Globalization and Transformations of Local Socioeconomic Practices Ulrike Schuerkens, 2008-04-18 This innovative volume provides a comprehensive overview of the transformation of socio economic practices in the global economy. The contributors offer analytical and comparative insights at the world level with regard to the current socio economic practices as well as an assessment of the overall economic globalization phenomenon in the global world Through empirical case studies of different civilizations or cultures that describe situations of intertwining of local socio economic practices and global economic modernity this volume assesses the overall situation in the world looking at the world as an economic system where some countries act as winners others as losers and some as both winners and losers of economic globalization This exceptional book will appeal to sociologists social and cultural anthropologists and economists interested in development Critical Terms for the Study of Africa Gaurav Desai, Adeline Masquelier, 2018-12-07 For far too long the Western world viewed Africa as unmappable terrain a repository for outsiders wildest imaginings This problematic notion has had lingering effects not only on popular impressions of the region but also on the development of the academic study of Africa Critical Terms for the Study of Africa considers the legacies that have shaped our understanding of the continent and its place within the conceptual grammar of contemporary world affairs Written by a distinguished group of scholars the essays compiled in this volume take stock of African studies today and look toward a future beyond its fraught intellectual and political past Each essay discusses one of our most critical terms for talking about Africa exploring the trajectory of its development while pushing its boundaries Editors Gaurav Desai and Adeline Masquelier balance the choice of twenty five terms between the expected and the unexpected calling for nothing short of a new mapping of the scholarly field The result is an essential reference that will challenge assumptions stimulate lively debate and make the past present and future of African Studies accessible to students and teachers alike Africa Toyin Falola, Daniel Jean-Jacques, 2015-12-14 These volumes offer a one stop resource for researching the lives customs and cultures of Africa's nations and peoples Unparalleled in its coverage of contemporary customs in all of Africa this multivolume set is perfect for both high school and public library shelves The three volume encyclopedia will provide readers with an overview of contemporary customs and life in North Africa and sub Saharan Africa through discussions of key concepts and topics that touch everyday life among the nations peoples While this encyclopedia places emphasis on the customs and cultural practices of each state history politics and economics are also addressed Because entries average 14 000 to 15 000 words each contributors are able to expound more extensively on each country than in similar encyclopedic works with shorter entries As a result readers will gain a more complete understanding of what life is like in Africa's 54 nations and territories and will be better able to draw cross cultural comparisons based on their reading
