Shelf Life Stuart Russell,2000 The British National Bibliography Arthur James Wells,2009 A Century of Change in a Chinese Village Lin Juren,Xie Yuxi,2018-05-04 Over the last half century China has evolved from a poor rural country to a geopolitical powerhouse Rapid urbanization has been at the heart of that transformation and as migrant laborers have left their villages what has become of the rural communities that were once the center of economic social and cultural life And how do contemporary Chinese scholars understand those changes These are the questions that this compelling book answers Lengshuigou village located near the Shandong provincial capital of Jinan was first studied by Japanese social scientists in the early 1940s and then again in the 1980s and 1990s Building on these rich surveys this book traces changes from the early twentieth century to the present day in family and lineage social stratification personal networks annual and life cycle rituals village politics and elite formation Drawing on their own large scale survey of contemporary village households the authors analyze the physical and institutional changes that have altered the community as well as the shifts in interpersonal relations and attitudes that have upended centuries old systems of patriarchy and generational order This important book presents for the first time in English analysis by Chinese sociologists on the radical transformation of Chinese rural society Interrogating Datafication Marcus Burkhardt,Daniela van Geenen,Carolyn Gerlitz,Sam Hind,Timo Kaerlein,Danny Lämmerhirt,Axel Volmar,2022-10-07 What constitutes a data practice and how do contemporary digital media technologies reconfigure our understanding of practices in general Autonomously acting media distributed digital infrastructures and sensor based media environments challenge the conditions of accounting for data practices both theoretically and empirically Which forms of cooperation are constituted in and by data practices And how are human and nonhuman agencies distributed and interrelated in data saturated environments The volume collects theoretical empirical and historiographical contributions from a range of international scholars to shed light on the current shift from media to data practices Life After Magnet Memories - The Return of the Secret Series: 1988-1994 Nick Goodman,Jo Bunsell,Paul Chandler,2019-07-29 The Magnet Editor the sci fi adventure series known only to a select few was over But it had an afterlife Picking up from where The Magnet Editor left off Life After was the all new series that took the space and time escapades of Cabin Release all round adventurer and scientific journalist to the next level The Magnet Editor writing team of Nick Goodman and Jo Bunsell return joined by prolific poet Paul Chandler Relocating from Mexico to the leafy Sussex village of Handlehead Cabin now without his super powers reluctantly takes charge of Base Security and finds it tough at the top He is plunged into new perilous and challenging adventures Accompanied by friends old and new he faces the darkest terrors and everything from his marriage to the future of the universe is at stake Venture deep into the unknown with Life After Magnet Memories the complete guide to this sequel series Journeys Into Palliative Care Christina Mason,2002 The combined practice area of the contributors to this book include social work psychotherapy sociology counselling

psychology creative writing nursing and medicine Several of the authors have multiple professions and have come to palliative care later in their careers Indeed the combined skill of this group is impressive Each chapter is unique and each story worthy in its own right The commonalities are remarkable also I recommend it to all palliative care professionals when feeling a little jaded about what we are doing and being swept along with the winds of changing technology and evidenced based practice and to other health care workers who feel an inclination to bring a little humanity to their care Omega Vol 51 1 77 86 2005 This book offers unique way of looking at caring for palliative patients by using the influence of the self It also offers an opportunity for reflection how our experiences can enrich the experience of patients faced with the prospect of dying Professionals who enjoy reading stories will thoroughly enjoy this book International Journal of Palliative Nursing In a way it is surprising that palliative care has not produced more books like this collections in which those engaged in the daily work of caring for dying and bereaved people share something of their motivations for entering this particular world their experiences along the way and their reasons for staying in or quitting it Christina Mason was right to embark on this project She has edited a book that deserves to be widely read Palliative Medicine 2003 This is a delightful book Although its focus is on professionals working in specialist palliative care it would be useful for any practitioner wanting to learn more about reflective practice or their motivations for caring Journal of Community Nursing This rich collection of accounts explores the personal and professional experiences of palliative care workers Contributors from a variety of disciplines associated with care at the end of life among them social workers a nurse a doctor a counselling psychologist an academic researcher a psychotherapist and a creative writing therapist explain how and why they came to work in palliative care what they bring to the work and the ways in which it has enriched their own lives Including descriptive examples of their work with clients and families they discuss the spiritual needs of patients how to manage personal boundaries and power relations the use of narrative and story telling in care work and the impact of working with people who are very ill and grieving on every day life This thoughtful and positive book presents a variety of experience based perspectives on working in palliative care Emphasising the use of self and the importance of reflective practice in professional work this book will be of relevance to all professionals in medical and social care who want to gain a deeper understanding of their work and of the motivation underlying it People's Journey with God Iv' 2007 Ed. (responding to God's Call for Love,justice & Solidarity) , Invisible Labour Indranil Chakraborty,2020-10-05 This book investigates the life working conditions and urban experiences of support service workers such as janitors security guards culinary workers and carpool drivers in the information technology IT sector of India Largely omitted from academic discourse support service workers are crucial to the Indian IT industry Drawing on interviews with such workers in seven Indian cities with a large concentration of software service companies this volume Uses quantitative and qualitative analyses to map and assess workers responses to migration from rural occupations to a modern urban employment setting Explores the everyday grind of migrant workers in the context of the homogenizing effects of globalization in an alienating urban environment and discusses how their dislodgment from the structures of rural life gender and caste roles has placed them in a space of contestation between traditions and the opportunities and challenges offered by digital society in the form of freedom individualism flexibility and innovation Traces the evolution of new areas of class and identity formations as well as the hegemonic relations within that ethos imposed by contractors and corporations The volume will be of great interest to scholars and researchers of sociology and social anthropology urban studies development studies labour studies social exclusion and South Asian studies Moorea Par Claude Robineau , A

Voyage Around My Mother Eleanor Stewart,2016-10-21 Eleanor Stewart had always had a difficult relationship with her mother but when her mother s persistent ill health caused by Parkinson s Disease meant she needed a new home Eleanor offered her one It will only be for six months she assured her husband but it wasn t It was for ten years And initially those years were hard Her mother Mary had very little interest in Eleanor s life or even in her two grandchildren So if a bridge was to be built between the two women Eleanor would have to build it and find the necessary solid ground to do so She found it by exploring her mother s past with her Mary had had a fascinating life which included being shelled during the Second World War shipwrecked and a passionate affair while sailing to India As Mary Stewart reveals more and more of her past Eleanor discovers a woman she has never really known and the two forge a strong relationship that was not possible before

Shadow Bridge Nicholas Day-Lewis,2022-09-22 Charlie Gray and his wife Pam emigrate from England to South Africa a country sinking under the scourge of apartheid to start as an engineer in the gold mines His life appears on the surface to be charmed but he lives under the shadow of a terrifying instance of abuse in his childhood Tragedies occur in his marriage and he is forced to leave He moves first to Nauru then to Australia where his life begins to resemble that of the biblical character Job Things happen to him events beyond his control He is powerless to stop them until he meets Emma a distant cousin and in a return to Scotland and the place where the story began he finally throws off the shackles of the past Northfield

Echoes Delavan Leonard Pierson,1894 Another Bangkok Alex Kerr,2021-07-01 From the author of Another Kyoto and Lost Japan a rich personal exploration of the culture and history of Bangkok and an essential guide for anyone visiting the city Alex Kerr has spent over thirty years of his life living in Bangkok As with his bestselling books on Japan this evocative personal meditation explores the city s secret corners Here is the huge traffic choked metropolis of concrete high rises slums and sky trains but also a place of peace and grace Looking afresh at everything from ceramics to Thai dance flower patterns to old houses Kerr reveals one of Asia s most kaleidoscopically complex cities Another Bangkok will delight both those who think they know the city well and those visiting for the first time Youth's Companion ,1913 The Publishers

Weekly ,1913 Northfield Echoes ,1894 Bus services after the Spending Review Great Britain: Parliament: House of Commons: Transport Committee,2011-08-11 The Transport Committee reports that extensive cuts to rural evening and weekend bus services are damaging the ability of many people especially the old young or disabled to participate in employment education or voluntary work and to access vital services such as healthcare and retail facilities In a review of England s bus services outside London after the Spending Review the Committee warns that even deeper cuts in bus services are likely in 2012 13 as local authorities struggle to deal with budgetary reductions and calls for the concessionary travel scheme to be preserved so that the elderly and disabled continue to enjoy free bus travel The Committee also concludes that the concessionary fares scheme was discriminatory because it did not apply to most community transport providers usually independent charities that provide transport such as dial a ride bus services It calls on the Department for Transport to monitor the extent of service cutbacks made this year and to review service provision again after BSOG Bus Service Operator Grant grant cuts take effect in 2012 13 so that it can analyse and draw conclusions about the wider costs and benefits of its policy changes to the country as a whole The Local Government Association should identify and disseminate information about good and bad practice in the delivery of cost effective flexible services including community transport and or area based transport integration And local authorities and commercial operators must consult more widely where services are being changed

Health Care in the Information Society David Ingram,2023-11-17 In this fascinating book David Ingram traces the history of information technology and health informatics from its pioneers in the middle of the twentieth century to its latest developments The book is distinctive in its broad scope and coverage and as the eyewitness account of an author who became the first UK professor appointed with the mission to bridge information technology with everyday medicine health and care In this role he has been a co founder and leader of two rapidly growing initiatives openEHR and OpenEyes which stem from international collaborations of universities health services and industries These open source and open platform technologies have struck a widely resonant chord worldwide through their focus on community interest endeavours and open access to their methods and outputs Set against the history of extremely costly burdensome and serially unsuccessful top down attempts of governments to tackle the domain the book argues for a greater focus on shared endeavours of this kind contributing towards a standardized care information utility that incorporates methods and resources evolved shared and sustained in the public domain As information technologies are now at the very core of health care shaping the relationship between medical services and communities professions organisations and industries this book is important reading for politicians health care academics administrators and providers and to anybody interested in the future of health services in the digital age
