Esther Sánchez-Pardo, María Porrás Sánchez, 2023-07-05 This volume traces the interconnections between myth, environmentalism, narrative, poetry, comics, and innovative artistic practice, using this as a framework through which to examine strategies for repairing our unhealthy relationship with the planet. Challenging late capitalist modes encouraging mindless consumption and the degradation of human nature relations, this collection advocates a re-evaluation of the ethical relation to living with and sharing the Earth. Myth and the environment have shared a rich common cultural history, travelling as far back as the times of storytelling and legend, with the environment often the central theme. Following a robust introduction, the book is organized into three main sections: Myth, Disaster, and Present Day Views on Ecological Damage; Indigenous and Afro-diasporic Myths and Ecological Knowledge; Art Practices, Myth, and Environmental Resilience, and concludes with a Coda from Jeanette Hartmann. The methodology draws from diverse perspectives such as ecocriticism, new materialism, and Anthropocene studies, offering a truly interdisciplinary discussion that reflects on the dialogue among environment and myth, and a broad range of contributions are included from Canada, the United States, the Caribbean, Ukraine, Japan, Morocco, and Brazil. The book joins a long line of approaches on the interrelations between ecological and mythical thinking and criticism that goes back to the early 20th century. This volume will be of interest to students, scholars, activists, and experts in environmental humanities, myth, and myth criticism literature, and art on more than human and nature interaction, ecocriticism, environmental activism, and climate change. BIBLICAL APOCALYPTICS HANDBOOK Edward D. AUTHOR'S INTRODUCTION I'm convinced that the Gospel enters our experience with the most sharpness and clarity at the points of the pain and passion of our life encounters As a comfortable middle class straight white male American Christian I've had virtually everything to learn from the people to whom I've been sent Experiences in the Philippines and Pacific Islands those while working with the World Hunger Emphasis of The United Methodist Church and while assigned to ecumenical organizations have had profound impact upon my faith and my approach to Bible study and worship preparation Serving as pastor of congregations that openly welcomed gay and lesbian persons into a full participation have extended this experience I'm also convinced that the Gospel most powerfully enters the experience of those to whom we've been sent when it speaks practical hope to vulnerabilities and pain At their best and as they were intended to be ministries of service are a vital integral part of the task of evangelization which not only involves preaching Good News but BEING Good News Preaching and reflecting are meaningless without serious engagement with real life The simplest of traditional cultures to which I was introduced have helped me in my spiritual journey As a Filipino anthropologist friend said after spending some weeks with the so called Lost Tribe the Tasaday in South Cotabato We'll not realize how much we have to learn from them until we admit to what we ourselves have lost My friends in traditional indigenous cultures have made me more sensitive to deeper meanings in stories and parables Perhaps they re more aware than we so called educated folk that this is how we transmit our culture and values It s in the stories where we find the greatest richness of the Bible in both the old and New Testaments Jesus constantly taught through story parable and metaphor Taking a shallow literal approach to these causes us to miss the many layers of meanings and themes which the writers intended to be addressed While stories may not prove something they illustrate something and they carry their own conviction It s up to us to incorporate them into our insight and understanding Hearing the stories of others has put me in closer touch with my own May mine do the same for you DK Eyewitness Travel Guide: South Africa DK
