Love Vision And Debate:

Love Vision and Debate Patricia Margaret Kean, 1972 Chaucerian Dream Visions and Complaints Dana M Symons, 2004-11-01 On several counts one particular collection of French lyrics made in France in the late fourteenth century University of Pennsylvania MS 15 is the most likely repository of Chaucer's French poems It is the largest manuscript anthology extant of fourteenth century French lyrics in the formes fixes balade rondeaux virelay lay and five stanza chanson with by far the largest number of works of unknown authorship The known authors represented in the manuscript and the texts themselves have notable associations with England and with Chaucer And intriguingly there are fifteen lyrics each headed by the initials Ch very likely indications of authorship neatly inserted between rubric and text The rubrics together with other substantial manuscript evidence and the intrinsic worth of the poems make them easily the best candidates among extant French lyrics for Chaucer's authorship appropriate representatives of his French work from the Introduction The Early Renaissance Paul Maurice Clogan, 1987 Catalog of Copyright Entries. Third Series Library of Congress. Copyright Office, 1974 Beatific Enjoyment in Medieval Scholastic Debates Severin Valentinov Kitanov, 2014-03-25 Beatific Enjoyment in Medieval Scholastic Debates examines the religious concept of enjoyment as discussed by scholastic theologians in the Latin Middle Ages Severin Kitanov argues that central to the concept of beatific enjoyment fruitio beatifica is the distinction between the terms enjoyment and use frui et uti found in Saint Augustine's treatise On Christian Learning Peter Lombard a twelfth century Italian theologian chose the enjoyment of God to serve as an opening topic of his Sentences and thereby set in motion an enduring scholastic discourse Kitanov examines the nature of volition and the relationship between volition and cognition He also explores theological debates on the definition of enjoyment whether there are different kinds and degrees of enjoyment whether natural reason unassisted by divine revelation can demonstrate that beatific enjoyment is possible whether beatific enjoyment is the same as pleasure whether it has an intrinsic cognitive character and whether the enjoyment of God in heaven is a free or un free act Even though the concept of beatific enjoyment is essentially religious and theological medieval scholastic authors discussed this concept by means of Aristotle's logical and scientific apparatus and through the lens of metaphysics physics psychology and virtue ethics Bringing together Christian theological and Aristotelian scientific and philosophical approaches to enjoyment Kitanov exposes the intricacy of the discourse and makes it intelligible for both students and scholars Mervelous Signals Eugene Vance, 1989-01-01 The investigation of language of how and what and why signifiers signify is prominent in modern critical work but the questions being asked are by no means new In Mervelous Signals Eugene Vance asserts that there is scarcely a term practice or concept in contemporary theory that does not have some rich antecedent in medieval thought He goes on to illustrate the complexity and depth of medieval speculations about language and literature Vance's study of the link between the poetics and semiotics of the Middle Ages takes both a critical and a historical view as he brings today's insights to bear on the contemporary perspectives of such works as St Augustine's Confessions the Chanson de Roland Chr tien's Yvain Aucassin and Nicolette Spenser's The Faerie Queen and certain aspects of the works of Dante and Chaucer and of French medieval theater

The realism of dream visions Constance B. Hieatt, 2019-01-29 No detailed description available for The realism of dream visions

Chaucer's Dream Visions Michael St John, 2017-03-02 Chaucer used the dream device to engage with the work of French and Italian authors and to explore the philosophical content of their poetry His four dream visions therefore represent an important conduit through which the influence of European writers was received into English enabling a profound transition in the way in which the self was conceptualized in medieval courtly literature Chaucer's Dream Visions is the first book length study to examine the poet's considered use of Aristotelian psychology to describe the mind of the courtly subject in its social context The study shows that by drawing upon Aristotelian psychology derived from his reading of Boethius Dante and the poets of the French court Chaucer was able to articulate precisely those aspects of the courtly identity that are determined by language and empirical experience and those which are transcendent of this determinism A detailed engagement with the literature language and behaviour of the court therefore takes place in the dream visions which are a genuine exploration of individual subjectivity in its social context The author of this volume demonstrates that the motivation for this exploration is a product of Chaucer's Christian beliefs and philosophical awareness Chaucer's Dream Visions thus constitutes a major contribution to the debate concerning distinctions between medieval and early modern culture
