religious ritual Equally important they also offered an alternative conception of piety in and through a language dedicated to the therapeutic health and well being of others In the philosophies of Socrates and Epicurus in the Greek world and in the teaching and healing of Jesus in the Jewish world of first century Palestine we reach a decisive moment in the revolution of religion in the ancient world The practice of animal sacrifice in the temples of Greece and Jerusalem begins to be reconceived and eventually abolished and replaced by a soteriology or healing wholly dedicated to the well being of individuals no less than entire societies The replacement of animal sacrifice with soteriological speech is the single most important revolution in the religions of antiquity
