Dead Lucky Lincoln Hall, 2008 Outlines the dramatic 2006 survival story of a famed Australian mountain climber who was pronounced dead and abandoned by Sherpas during a climb of Mount Everest only to be discovered alive the next day

U.S. Department of Transportation Federal Motor Carrier Safety Administration Register , 2005-07-12 Lucky? Richard Craig, 2003-12 Three violent seemingly unrelated deaths A terrified amnesiac A diabolical terrorist plot to decimate downtown Los Angeles Aided by a top secret scientific breakthrough that enables police to extract information from the subconscious mind detectives frantically attempt to solve the mystery that ties it all together But the clock is ticking as the lives of thousands of innocent people hang in the balance A Los Angeles man running his first marathon desperately trying to escape his past holds the key that unlocks the puzzle but will they find the answers in time to save the city Not for the faint of heart Lucky is a kaleidoscopic nightmare where nothing is what it appears to be An unforgiving examination of the human condition a primal scream of defiance Lucky is a death defying rollercoaster ride guaranteed to leave the reader breathless

Unfortunately for Tony, his cover is blown when he is forced to reveal a trick he has up his own sleeve: a pocket Glock he can shoot with laser-like precision. Suddenly two men are dead, the cops are on Tony's tail, and the investigation explodes in violence, putting the lives of Tony's son and his young family in danger. For years, Tony's son, Gerry, has dueled with his own criminal impulses. Now the Ricky Smith case has lured Gerry through the gates of temptation and into a murderous confrontation with the Dixie Mafia. With Tony stuck on the slippery slope of Slippery Rock and Gerry fighting for his life, the Valentines are finding out just how bad good luck can get. Against a neon-tinted backdrop of adrenaline rushes, hard crashes, big money, and high wire tension, the inimitable James Swain has set his best Tony Valentine novel yet: a funny, furious ride with an astounding array of crooks, marks, and one killer scam.

Just Lucky John M. Findley, 2010-04 This is a very unusual book. It is full of stories of unexpected and sometimes hazardous experiences. It is an adventure book that will appeal to the young and old alike. Anyone who likes the outdoors and nature will enjoy reading this book. John writes the same way he speaks. The stories are told in a down-to-earth manner with just enough humor thrown in to make them enjoyable. If you ever had a desire to explore unknown territory or to hike a new trail, you will certainly enjoy the stories in this book.

Editor's note: John Findley is a truly extraordinary man and has lived a life packed with more extraordinary experiences than any other ten people I know combined. He has written this book where he relives many of these experiences, and I have had the good fortune to help John with some of the construction of this book, but the words and style are his. John has detailed memories of his experiences, which include skydiving in ways I wish I could have seen, spelunking in places I am glad I have missed, and attempting to swim through the Grand Canyon three times. You will like this book.

Lucky Eddie Goes Sailing Eddie Johnson, 2012-07-17 Extracts from book: Once the ship had passed, we settled down to wait for the next plan to emerge. Finally, once we were east of the Shivering Sands towers, another ship came into view. This ship was coming from Sheerness docks and looked as if it would pass quite a distance from us. I found myself along with my father and our friend jumping up and down shouting, "Help, we're here!" I knew this was futile as the ship was at least a mile away and the visibility was failing, and though I used to laugh when I saw this happen in films, it was the only thing that we could do. Incredibly, the crew on the ship did see us and changed course. As the ship circled us, we heard a German accent calling to us: "Are you in da trouble?" We looked at each other, and the boat. Our first instinct was to shout back that we were all OK and that we always sailed around with a broken mast. But considering our circumstances, we decided not to be clever and shouted out yes, and how grateful we were that the ship had come to our assistance. My father had contacted the firing range and told them our estimated time of arrival before leaving home, so it was no surprise that we were hours later than we anticipated. It was mid-summer and we were all just lying about in shorts and T-shirts, and there was barely a ripple on the water. We were all enjoying the trip when I noticed a flash coming from Shoeburyness. I turned and immediately informed my father, who began to say, "Don't be silly, they know we're coming." Unfortunately, he only got as far as they know we're when a thundering boom shattered a tranquil sail This as immediately followed by a gust of wind that must have pushed the boat at four knots for a couple of seconds On reaching the bank my father pulled the dingy out of the water and headed for the bridge We could clearly see him walking around the by the control tower of the bridge for about five minutes and I believe he was just about to give up and return to the boat when things got a little more exciting A military Land rover sped up towards the bridge control tower and two Military Police officers jumped out ran over to my father and promptly shoved him into the back of the Land rover They then drove off at speed in the same direction they had come from My father did have a slight problem when putting the wheel on The fitting to fix the wheel too was round while the hole in the centre of the wheel was square To get over this obstacle he used a generous amount of plastic padding to fill the void between the wheel and the spindle We were coming up to Kings Ferry Bridge and I was at the helm and as per usual the bucket was lifted up the mast As today there was always a wait while the demigod operator who lives in the bridge decides when we are worthy enough to lift his mighty bridge Until the mast can clear the underside of the lifting bridge we would circle As we approached for our second or third turn the wheel stopped responding and as I tried in vain to will the boat to turn the wheel came off in my hands Like most of the Wharrem catamarans this boat though 34 feet did not have a proper heads and after finishing the Chinese food Mick decided he needed to use the heads Like my father's boat prior to the rebuild the net on the front was seen as the gents My father did mumble to anyone interested that in his opinion the net looked a bit rotten but this warning fell on deaf ears Mike staggered to the bow of the boat and dropped his jeans and pants and settled into the net Joe who was not by any stretch of the imagination was standing quite close coiling a rope Suddenly the net on which Mike was sitting gave up trying to support the weight of Mick Mick vanished into the cloudy depths of the harbour when he surfaced he was immediately having problem

Lucky 13?! Franz Kratschmer, 2013

Lucky 13 by Franz Kratschmer This book begins with a short journey through the meaning of the number 13 in human societies, religions and cultures. Then this is followed by some historic dates on which certain things happened on the thirteenth day. As the number 13 has played an important role in Franz Kratschmer's life he decided to start his personal history with his grandfather who sailed the world in the late nineteenth century. Some of the countries his grandfather visited would later be part of Franz's journeys. This included Brazil, Africa, Indonesia and Australia. The reader will be taken on a voyage that started off during the Austro-Hungarian Empire, passing both World Wars, the liberation of the Austrian capital of Vienna on April 13, 1945 and the author's birth four years later. His career in the Austrian military was followed by becoming a civilian peacekeeper of the United Nations in the Middle East and East Timor for more than twenty-three years.

About the Author: The author is married and has two sons. His wife Vera Lucia Ataide and youngest son Karl were born in Brazil. Franz and his firstborn son Francisco are Viennese Austrians. The latter is also an Australian citizen. Mr. Kratschmer's main areas of interest are the Chinese economic expansion and the European Union. As a former peacekeeper of the United Nations he believes that the traditional peacekeeping operations need to be reviewed and redesigned with a view to enforcing humanitarian missions under the protection of UN forces.
