Hamilton, 2010-10-21 One Man Zeitgeist Dave Eggers Publishing and Publicity undertakes the first extensive analysis of the works of Dave Eggers an author who has grown from a small time media upstart into one of the most influential author publishers of the twenty first century Eggers rise to fame is charted in careful detail offering analysis of the circumstances of his success and their effects on the production of his literary oeuvre As both a memoirist and novelist Eggers has distinguished himself from his cohort of young American authors by insisting on seizing the reins of his publishing output The nature of this independent streak is given attention in this study particularly the cultural circumstances of a digitalised consumer society in which books and literature are primarily commodities Hamilton examines this spirit of independence as both a practical and figurative state in Eggers works and seeks to address the reasons why in a contemporary globalised society independence is not only personally gratifying for Eggers but also a popularly successful strategy for producing books

Metamedia Alexander Starre, 2015-08-15 Does literature need the book With electronic texts and reading devices growing increasingly popular the codex is no longer the default format of fiction Yet as Alexander Starre shows in Metamedia American literature has rediscovered the book as an artistic medium after the first e book hype in the late 1990s By fusing narrative and design a number of bibliographic writers have created reflexive fictions metamedia that invite us to read printed formats in new ways Their work challenges ingrained theories and beliefs about literary communication and its connections to technology and materiality Metamedia explores the book as a medium that matters and introduces innovative critical concepts to better grasp its narrative significance Combining sustained textual analysis with impulses from the fields of book history media studies and systems theory Starre explains the aesthetics and the cultural work of complex material fictions such as Mark Z Danielewski's House of Leaves 2000 Chip Kidd's The Cheese Monkeys 2001 Salvador Plascencia's The People of Paper 2005 Reif Larsen's The Selected Works of T S Spivet 2009 and Jonathan Safran Foer's Tree of Codes 2010 He also broadens his analysis beyond the genre of the novel in an extensive account of the influential literary magazine McSweeney's Quarterly Concern and its founder Dave Eggers For this millennial generation of writers and publishers the computer was never a threat to print culture but a powerful tool to make better books In careful close readings Starre puts typefaces layouts and cover designs on the map of literary criticism At the same time the book steers clear of bibliophile nostalgia and technological euphoria as it follows writers designers and publishers in the process of shaping the surprising history of literary bookmaking after digitization

Existentialist Engagement in Wallace, Eggers and Foer Allard den Dulk, 2016-06-30 The novels of David Foster Wallace Dave Eggers and Jonathan Safran Foer are increasingly regarded as representing a new trend an aesthetic sea change in contemporary American literature Post postmodernism and New Sincerity are just two of the labels that have been attached to this trend But what do these labels mean What characterizes and connects these novels Den Dulk shows that the connection between these works lies in their shared philosophical dimension On the one hand they portray excessive self reflection and endless irony as the two main problems of contemporary Western life On the other hand the novels embody an attempt to overcome these problems sincerity reality commitment and community are portrayed as the virtues needed to achieve a meaningful life This shared philosophical dimension is analyzed by viewing the novels in light of the existentialist philosophies of Søren Kierkegaard Jean Paul Sartre Ludwig Wittgenstein and Albert Camus
