Sourcebook for Sundays and Seasons 2008 Todd Williamson, 2007      The Sacraments, Grades 11-12 Michael Pennock, 1993-03 Written in accord with the Catechism of the Catholic Church and rooted in the sound catechetical principles of the National Catechetical Directory these texts present a well defined curriculum model that stresses clear objectives careful organization and creative methods and evaluation procedures to check the attainment of goals Very flexible allowing teachers to select materials to highlight and stress each text can be implemented on various grade levels for a quarter a semester or a full year depending on the length and frequency of class meetings This text begins with a discussion of the wonders of God s love in such things as creation the incarnation forgiveness and salvation followed by a call to respond to this love through faith and loving service A chapter on signs symbols and sacraments gives a solid foundation for understanding Catholic sacramental theology This prepares the way for a discussion of each of the seven sacraments that covers the historical developments the way the sacrament is celebrated today and the ways students can live the reality of each of the sacraments in their lives      Igbo Christian Rite of Marriage Patrick Chukwudezie Chibuko, 1999 The problems arising from the separate celebrations of traditional marriage and church wedding in the Igbo Church of Nigeria are the main objectives of the proposed Rite The Igbo Christian man and woman require the traditional marriage and the church wedding to be considered as husband and wife The important fact is that marriage for the Igbo people even for some Christians among them is the traditional marriage In such traditional marriages today experience shows that in addition to Christians and Non christians the clergy are very often present not only to grace the occasion by their presence but also to say the opening prayer prayer over the kola nuts and sometimes also the closing prayer and give the blessing The obvious questions arising from these separate celebrations call for attention and review in the light of the on going liturgical inculturation and the provisions made by the reformed liturgy of the Second Vatican Council Is it then possible to evolve a unique Rite whereby the two celebrations can be validly and lawfully celebrated in one ceremony Such a Rite would be required not only to be fully cultural and truly Christian but above all acceptable by both the culture and the church The Igbo Christian Rite of Marriage is therefore a concrete proposal      American Book Publishing Record ,1990      Walking by Faith Grade 3 Harcourt Religion Publishers, 2002-03      The Catholic Periodical and Literature Index ,1992      Dialectical Anatomy of the Eucharist Donald Wallenfang, 2017-05-16 For centuries Christian theology has understood the Eucharist in terms of metaphysics or in protest against it Today an opening has been made to imagine the sacrament through the method of phenomenology bringing about new theological life and meaning In Dialectical Anatomy of the Eucharist Donald Wallenfang conducts a sustained analysis of the Eucharist through the aperture of phenomenology yet concludes the study with poetic and metaphysical twists Engaging the work of Jean Luc Marion Paul Ricoeur and Emmanuel Levinas Wallenfang proposes pioneering ideas for contemporary sacramental theology that have vast implications for interfaith and interreligious dialogue By tapping into the various currents within the Judeo Christian tradition Jewish Catholic Orthodox and Protestant a radical argument is developed that leverages the tension among them all Several new frontiers are explored dialectical theology a fourth phenomenological reduction the phenomenology of human personhood the poetics of the Eucharist and a reinterpretation of the concept of gift as conversation On the whole Wallenfang advances recent debates surrounding the relationship between phenomenology and theology by claiming an uncanny way out of emerging dead ends in philosophical theology return to the fray
