Muhammad is almost universally considered by Muslims as the last prophet sent by God to mankind. While non-Muslims generally regard Muhammad as the founder of Islam, Muslims consider him to have restored the unaltered original monotheistic faith of Prophet Adam, Prophet Abraham, Prophet Moses, Prophet Jesus, and other prophets. Prophet Muhammad SAW was orphaned at an early age; he was raised under the care of his paternal uncle Abu Talib. After his childhood, Muhammad primarily worked as a merchant. Occasionally, he would retreat to a cave in the mountains for several nights of seclusion and prayer. Later, at age 40, he reported at this spot that he was visited by Gabriel and received his first revelation from God. Three years after this event, prophet Muhammad SAW started preaching these revelations publicly, proclaiming that God is One. Prophet Muhammad may the mercy and blessings of God be upon him is the man beloved by more than 1.2 billion Muslims. He is the man who taught us patience in the face of adversity and taught us to live in this world but seek eternal life in the hereafter. It was to Prophet Muhammad that God revealed the Quran. Along with this Book of guidance, God sent Prophet Muhammad, whose behavior and high moral standards are an example to us all. Prophet Muhammad's life was the Quran. He understood it, he loved it, and he lived his life based on its standards. He taught us to recite the Quran, to live by its principles, and to love it. When Muslims declare their faith in One God, they also declare their belief that Muhammad is the slave and final messenger of God. Prophet Muhammad taught us to love God and to obey Him. He taught us to be kind to each other, to respect our elders, and care for our children. He taught us that it was better to give than to receive, and that each human life is worthy of respect and dignity. He taught us to love for our brothers and sisters what we love for ourselves. Prophet Muhammad taught us that families and communities are essential, and he pointed out that individual rights, although important, are not more important than a stable moral society. Prophet Muhammad taught us that men and women are equal in the sight of God, and that no one person is better than another except in respect to his or her piety and devotion to God.

The Messenger of God - Muhammad Abd Ar Rahman Ash Sheha, 2023-12-31. This booklet provides an account of the life of the Prophet Muhammad may Allah exalt his mention and send upon him peace. The booklet introduces us to the Prophet's noble character, his humble life, his conduct with his family at home, his conduct with his companions and people outside the home, and throughout the society.
