Queer Lens Paul Martineau, Ryan Linkof, 2025-06-24 Copiously illustrated Queer Lens explores the transformative role of photography in LGBTQ communities from the nineteenth century to the present day Photography's power to capture a subject representing reality or a close approximation has inherently been linked with the construction and practice of identity Since the camera's invention in 1839 and despite periods of severe homophobia the photographic art form has been used by and for individuals belonging to dynamic LGBTQ communities helping shape and affirm queer culture and identity across its many intersections Queer Lens explores this transformative force of photography which has played a pivotal role in increasing queer visibility Lively essays by scholars and artists explore myriad manifestations of queer culture both celebrating complex interpretations of people and relationships and resisting rigid definitions Featuring a rich selection of images including portraits of queer individuals visual records of queer kinship and documentary photographs of early queer groups and protests this volume investigates the medium's profound role in illuminating the vibrant tapestry of LGBTQ communities This volume is published to accompany an exhibition on view at the J Paul Getty Museum at the Getty Center from June 17 to September 28 2025 Dictionary of Artists: Maele - Müller Emmanuel Bénézit, 2006 First English language edition of Emmanuel Bénézit's Dictionnaire critique et documentaire des peintres sculpteurs dessinateurs et graveurs based on the 14 volume French edition published in 1999 It has been revised adapted and updated Preface The Third Hand Charles Green, 2001 The lone artist is a worn cliché of art history but one that still defines how we think about the production of art Since the 1960s however a number of artists have challenged this image by embarking on long term collaborations that dramatically altered the terms of artistic identity In The Third Hand Charles Green offers a sustained critical examination of collaboration in international contemporary art tracing its origins from the evolution of conceptual art in the 1960s into such stylistic labels as Earth Art Systems Art Body Art and Performance Art During this critical period artists around the world began testing the limits of what art could be how it might be produced and who the artist is Collaboration emerged as a prime way to reframe these questions Green looks at three distinct types of collaboration the highly bureaucratic identities created by Joseph Kosuth Ian Burn Mel Ramsden and other members of Art the close knit relationships based on marriage or lifetime partnership as practiced by the Boyle Family Anne and Patrick Poirier Helen Mayer Harrison and Newton Harrison and couples like Christo and Jeanne Claude Gilbert George or Marina Abramovic and Ulay who developed third identities effacing the individual artists almost entirely These collaborations Green contends resulted in new and at times extreme authorial models that continue to inform current thinking about artistic identity and to illuminate the origins of postmodern art suggesting in the process a new genealogy for art in the twenty first century I've Seen the Future and I'm Not Going Peter McGough, 2019 McGough half of the team of McDermott about the East Village art scene of the 1980s and about his meeting David McDermott who would profoundly change his life by insisting they dress live and work like men in the
