The Hijaz Malik Dahlan,2018-08-01 Dahlan offers an alternative vision of Islamic governance through the history and promise of the Hijaz the first state of Islam The Hijaz in the west of present day Saudi Arabia was the first Islamic state in Mecca and Medina This new interpretative history offers a fresh vision of Islamic governance and law as a positive force for political reform in the Middle East and beyond Applying key Islamic principles of public good to contemporary life Malik Dahlan challenges two dominant narratives He reclaims the development of Islamic statecraft as the wellspring of collective identity and statesmanship in the Arab world simultaneously influenced and disrupted by Westphalian statehood models and

Enlightenment notions of self determination He equally rejects the appropriation of Islamic governance and the Caliphate concept by both the post modern non territorial Al Qaeda and the neo medievalist ISIS Celebrating the history and untapped potential of a region where Arab leaders built the ideological foundations of an emerging polity The Hijaz is a compelling alternative analysis of governance in the Arabian Peninsula and the global Islamic community and of its interaction with the wider world

The Jew is Not My Enemy Tarek Fatah, 2011-12-06 A liberal Muslim and critically acclaimed author explores the historical political and theological basis for centuries of Muslim animosity towards Jews debunking long held myths and tracing a history of hate and its impact today More than nine years after 9 11 and 60 years after the creation of the state of Israel the world is no closer to solving let alone understanding the psychological and political divide between Jews and Muslims While countless books have been written on the subject of terrorism political Islam and jihad barely a handful address the theological and historical basis of the Jew Muslim divide Following the terrorist attacks on Mumbai in November 2008 in which Pakistani jihadis sought out and murdered the members of a local Jewish centre Tarek Fatah began an in depth investigation of the historical basis for the crime In this provocative new book Fatah uses extensive research to trace how literature from as early as the seventh century has fueled the hatred of Jews by Muslims Fatah debunks the anti Jewish writings of the Hadith literature takes apart the Arab supremacist doctrines that lend fuel to the fire and reinterprets supposed anti Jewish passages in the Quran In doing so he argues that hating Jews is against the essence of the Islamic spirit and suggests what needs to be done to eliminate the agonizing friction between the two communities

Science and Islam Muzaffar Iqbal, 2007-03-30 Science and Islam provides a detailed account of the relationship between Islam and science from the emergence of the Islamic scientific tradition in the eighth century to the present time This relationship has gone through three distinct phases The first phase began with the emergence of science in the Islamic civilization in the eighth century and ended with the rise of modern science in the West the second period is characterized by the arrival of modern science in the Muslim world most of which at that time was under colonial occupation and the third period which began around 1950 is characterized by a more mature approach to the major questions that modern science has posed for all religious traditions. Based on primary sources, the book presents a panorama of Islamic views on some of the major issues in the current science and religion discourse. Written in accessible language, Science and Islam is an authentic account of the multi-faceted and complex issues that arise at the interface of Islamic intellectual tradition and science. Rich in historical details, the book is a fascinating survey of the interaction of Islamic beliefs with the enterprise of science. Maintaining the Sacred Center

Rusmir Mahmutcehajic, 2011-09-16. In his fascinating new book, Bosnian academic and former statesman Rusmir Mahmutcehajic explores how men and women traditionally ordered their communities, architecture and habits of life to reflect the divine order and how this order is coming under attack in an increasingly secularized modern world. In reflecting on how his own hometown of Stolac, Bosnia, has been destroyed and then rebuilt in the aftermath of the tragic Bosnia war, he offers explanations as to how different religious communities can live peacefully together in the future. Science & Islam

Ehsan Masood, 2009-11-05. From Musa al-Khwarizmi, who developed algebra in 9th-century Baghdad, to al-Jazari, a 13th-century Turkish engineer whose achievements include the crank, the camshaft and the reciprocating piston, Science and Islam tells the story of one of history's most misunderstood yet rich and fertile periods in science: the extraordinary Islamic scientific revolution between 700 and 1400 CE. Routledge Handbook of Islamic Ritual and Practice

Oliver Leaman, 2022-06-08. Ritual and practice are one of the most distinctive features of religion, and they are linked with its central beliefs. Islam is no exception here, and this Handbook covers many aspects of those beliefs and practices. It describes the variety of what takes place but mainly why and what the implications of both the theory and practice have for our understanding of Islam. The book includes accounts of prayer, food, pilgrimage, mosques and the various legal and doctrinal schools that exist within Islam, with the focus on how they influence practice. The volume is organized in terms of texts, groups, practices, places and others. An attempt has been made to discuss the wide range of Muslim ritual and practice and provide a sound guide to this significant aspect of the religious life of one of the largest groups of believers in the world today.

Symbol of Divine Light Nicholas Stone, 2018-01-01. Symbol of Divine Light surveys the history of the mosque lamp, describing the numerous variants made in different historical periods and containing more than 200 stunning color and black and white illustrations. The deep significance of light and the lamp in Islamic culture and other traditions—Jewish, Christian, Zoroastrian, Hindu and Buddhist—is also explored, with reference made to the writings of authors belonging to the Traditionalist school, notably Frithjof Schuon, René Guenon, Titus Burckhardt and Martin Lings. The book presents a detailed exploration of the famous Koranic Verse of Light and the symbolism of its constituent elements: light, the niche, the lamp, glass, oil and the tree. Parallels are also drawn with other traditions, indicating a universal symbolism. Symbol of Divine Light concludes that the most important function of the mosque lamp was as a symbolic reminder of the Verse of Light, as demonstrated by examples that were virtually non-functional as lighting devices and also the extensive use of the mosque lamp as a decorative motif in

Islamic architecture The book aims to give the reader an opportunity to contemplate the meaning of the mosque lamp as a symbol of Divine Light Towards Building a British Islam Haifaa A. provides insights into the history of Kaaba Ka ba in Mecca The Ka ba is the first house built on earth It is one of the few and perhaps the only Islamic History books that looks at modern archaeological evidence and the Holy Quran and the history of the Quran to explore the proper location of the Ka ba The author notes that in the Holy Quran Mecca sometimes also called Becca which words are synonymous and signify a place of great intercourse is undoubtedly one of the most ancient cities in the world Some authors imagine it to be the Mesa or Mesha of the Scripture and that it deduced its name from one of Ishmael s sons It stands in a stony and barren valley surrounded by mountains under the exact parallel with the Macoraba of Ptolemy and about 40 Arabian miles from the sea Al Kolzom There is a magnificent temple in the city like the Colosseum at Rome However it is not made of such large stones but burnt bricks and round in the same manner It has ninety or one hundred doors around it and is arched upon entering the temple you descend ten or twelve steps of marble and here and there about the said entrance there stand men who sell jewels and nothing else Researching ancient Islam and the origin of Mecca the author asserts that the Ka ba is currently misplaced contradicting the Holy Quran and Arabian geography Although there are many Islamic scholars and Quran research Institutes throughout the world sadly none of them have yet verified the exact places mountains surrounding Ka ba and its sacred area according to the Holy Quran Sophia ,2005
