Islam in British media discourses Laurens de Rooij, 2020-05-09 Media reporting on Islam and Muslims commonly relate stories about terrorism violence or the lack of integration with western values and society Yet there is little research into how non Muslims engage with and are affected by these news reports Inspired by the overtly negative coverage of Islam and Muslims by the mainstream press and the increase in Islamophobia across Europe this book explores the influence of these depictions on the thoughts and actions of non Muslims Building on extensive fieldwork interviews and focus groups Laurens de Rooij argues that individuals negotiate media reports to fit their existing outlook on Islam and Muslims Non Muslim responses to these reports de Rooij argues are not only re productions of local and personal contextuality but are co dependent and co productive to the reports themselves

Asian Popular Culture Anthony Y.H. Fung, 2013-05-29 This book examines different aspects of Asian popular culture including films TV music comedy folklore cultural icons the Internet and theme parks It raises important questions such as What are the implications of popularity of Asian popular culture for globalization Do regional forces impede the globalizing of cultures Or does the Asian popular culture flow act as a catalyst or conveying channel for cultural globalization Does the globalization of culture pose a threat to local culture It addresses two seemingly contradictory and yet parallel processes in the circulation of Asian popular culture the interconnectedness between Asian popular culture and western culture in an era of cultural globalization that turns subjects such as Pok mon Hip Hop or Cosmopolitan into truly global phenomena and the local derivatives and versions of global culture that are necessarily disconnected from their origins in order to cater for the local market It thereby presents a collective argument that whilst local social formations and patterns of consumption and participation in Asia are still very much dependent on global cultural developments and the phenomena of modernity yet such dependence is often concretized reshaped and distorted by the local media to cater for the local market
