21st century Understanding Global News Jaap van Ginneken,1998-01-23 Using the enormous number of available examples and a range of theoretical perspectives the author demonstrates the ways in which the news media are able to manipulate an individual's perception of the world White News Don Heider,2014-04-08 Is TV news racist If the purpose of local news is to cover individual communities and to present issues of interest and concern to local audiences why are local newscasts so similar in markets around the country These are the questions that motivated Heider's research leading to the development of this book Recognizing that local news is the outlet through which most people get their news Heider ventured into the local television newsrooms in two moderate size culturally diverse U S markets to observe the news process In this report he uses his insider's perspective to examine why local television news coverage of people of color does not occur in more meaningful ways Heider examines the perceptions of racism and ethnicity and addresses such dichotomies as white news content determined by white managers being delivered by non white news anchors thus giving the appearance of non white news He also considers how coverage of minorities influences viewers' perceptions of their minority neighbors Heider then sets forth a new theoretical concept incognizant racism as a way of explaining how news workers consistently ignore news in significant portions of the communities they cover This contribution to the minorities and media discussion provides important insights into the newsroom decision making process and the sociology and structure of newsrooms It is required reading for all who are involved in news reporting mass communication media and minority studies and cultural issues in today's society Dramas of Nationhood Lila Abu-Lughod,2008-05-30 How do people come to think of themselves as part of a nation Dramas of Nationhood identifies a fantastic cultural form that binds together the Egyptian nation television serials These melodramatic programs like soap operas but more closely tied to political and social issues than their Western counterparts have been shown on television in Egypt for more than thirty years In this book Lila Abu Lughod examines the shifting politics of these serials and the way their contents both reflect and seek to direct the changing course of Islam gender relations and everyday life in this Middle Eastern nation Representing a decade's worth of research Dramas of Nationhood makes a case for the importance of studying television to answer larger questions about culture power and modern self-fashionings Abu Lughod explores the elements of developmentalist ideology and the visions of national progress that once dominated Egyptian television now experiencing a crisis She discusses the broadcasts in rich detail from the generic emotional qualities of TV serials and the depictions of authentic national culture to the debates inflamed by their deliberate strategies for combating religious extremism The New Arab Media Mahjoob Zweiri,Emma C. Murphy,2012-04-27 Offers an introduction and analysis of some of the most important issues surrounding the media revolution in the Middle East in particular examining the two Janus like faces of the media in the Middle East its role in reflecting developments within the region as well as its function in projecting the Arab world outside of the Middle East Global Trade and the Transformation of Consumer Cultures Beverly Lemire,2018-01-11 The oceanic explorations of the

1490s led to countless material innovations worldwide and caused profound ruptures Beverly Lemire explores the rise of key commodities across the globe and charts how cosmopolitan consumption emerged as the most distinctive feature of material life after 1500 as people and things became ever more entangled She shows how wider populations gained access to more new goods than ever before and through industrious labour and smuggling acquired goods that heightened comfort redefined leisure and widened access to fashion Consumption systems shaped by race and occupation also emerged Lemire reveals how material cosmopolitanism flourished not simply in great port cities like Lima Istanbul or Canton but increasingly in rural settlements and coastal enclaves The book uncovers the social economic and cultural forces shaping consumer behaviour as well as the ways in which consumer goods shaped and defined empires and communities Images of the Modern Woman in Asia Shoma Munshi, 2013-01-11 In examining the links between gender and the media this volume asks questions involving the relationship between global media flows gender and modernity in the region
