Out The Other Side Contemporary Lesbian Writing:

Out the Other Side Christian McEwen, Sue O'Sullivan, 1989-01-01 Contemporary Lesbian Writing Paulina Palmer, 1993 Moving Beyond Boundaries (Vol. 2) Carole Boyce-Davies, Molaria Ogundipe-Leslie, 1995-04 v 1 International dimensions of Black women's writing v 2 Black women's diasporas The Gay and Lesbian Liberation Movement Margaret Cruikshank, 2014-04-04 Gay and lesbian liberation as a sexual freedom movement as a political movement and as a movement of ideas historical roots legal issues and links with other movements The author emphasises the role of women

Inside/Out Diana Fuss, 2013-04-15 Lesbians and gays have gone from coming out to acting up to outing meanwhile radically redefining society's views on sexuality and gender The essays in Inside Out employ a variety of approaches psychoanalysis deconstruction semiotics and discourse theory to investigate representations of sex and sexual difference in literature film video music and photography Engaging the figures of divas dykes vampires and queens the contributors address issues such as AIDS pornography pedagogy authorship and activism Inside Out shifts the focus from sex to sexual orientation provoking a reconsideration of the concepts of the sexual and the political Un/Popular Culture Kathleen Martindale, 1997-03-13 Offers a lucidly written analysis of the complex and provocative terrain of lesbian literary and cultural theory Encyclopedia of Lesbian and Gay Histories and Cultures Bonnie Zimmerman, George Haggerty, 2021-06-13 A rich heritage that needs to be documented Beginning in 1869 when the study of homosexuality can be said to have begun with the establishment of sexology this encyclopedia offers accounts of the most important international developments in an area that now occupies a critical place in many fields of academic endeavors It covers a long history and a dynamic and ever changing present while opening up the academic profession to new scholarship and new ways of thinking A groundbreaking new approach While gays and lesbians have shared many aspects of life their histories and cultures developed in profoundly different ways To reflect this crucial fact the encyclopedia has been prepared in two separate volumes assuring that both histories receive full unbiased attention and that a broad range of human experience is covered Written for and by a widerange of people Intended as a reference for students and scholars in all fields as well as for the general public the encyclopedia is written in user friendly language At the same time it maintains a high level of scholarship that incorporates both passion and objectivity It is written by some of the most famous names in the field as well as new scholars whose research continues to advance gender studies into the future The Virago Story Catherine Riley, 2018-04-23 The 1970s witnessed a renaissance in women's print culture as feminist presses and bookshops sprang up in the wake of the second wave women's movement At four decades remove from that heady era however the landscape looks dramatically different with only one press from the period still active in contemporary publishing Virago This engaging history explains how from modest beginnings Virago managed to weather epochal transformations in gender politics literary culture and the book publishing business Drawing on original interviews with many of the press's principal figures it gives a compelling account of

Virago's place in recent women's history while also reflecting on the fraught relationship between activism and commerce

Changing Our Minds Celia Kitzinger, Rachel Perkins, 1993-09 Women today are being instructed on how they can raise their self-esteem, love their inner child, survive their toxic families, overcome codependency and experience a revolution from within. By holding up the ideal of a pure and happy inner core, psychotherapists refuse to acknowledge that a certain degree of unhappiness or dissatisfaction is a routine part of life and not necessarily a cause for therapy. Lesbians specifically are now guided to define themselves according to their frailties, inadequacies and insecurities. An incisive critique of contemporary feminist psychology and therapy, Changing our Minds argues not just that the current practice of psychology is flawed but that the whole idea of psychology runs counter to many tenets of lesbian feminist politics. Recognizing that many lesbians do feel unhappy and experience a range of problems that detract from their well-being, Changing Our Minds makes positive prescriptive suggestions for non-psychological ways of understanding and dealing with emotional distress. Written in a lively and engaging style, Changing our Minds is required reading for anyone who has ever been in therapy or is close to someone who has and for lesbians, feminists, psychologists, psychotherapists, students of psychology and women's studies and anyone with an interest in the development of lesbian feminist theory, ethics and practice.

Encyclopedia of Lesbian and Gay Histories and Cultures George Haggerty, Bonnie Zimmerman, 2003-09-02 Beginning in 1869 when the study of homosexuality can be said to have begun with the establishment of sexology, this Encyclopedia offers accounts of the most important international developments in an area that now occupies a critical place in many fields of academic endeavours. While gays and lesbians have shared many aspects of life, their histories and cultures developed in profoundly different ways. To reflect this crucial fact, the Encyclopedia has been prepared in two separate volumes, assuring that both histories receive full unbiased attention and that a broad range of human experience is covered. Written by some of the most famous names in the field as well as new researchers, this is intended as a reference for students and scholars in all areas of study as well as the general public.

Working Out Hilary Hinds, Ann Phoenix, Jackie Stacey, 2003-09-02 Addresses issues of concern in the area of women's studies, aiming to offer fresh perspectives on sexuality, paid work, the development process, equal opportunities, legislation, lesbian history and women's writing. The book is also concerned with the politics and practice of women's studies.

Decentering the Center Uma Narayan, Sandra Harding, Sandra G. Harding, 2000-03-22 The essays in this volume bring to their focuses on philosophical issues the new angles of vision created by the multicultural, global and postcolonial feminisms that have been developing around us. These multicultural, global and postcolonial feminist concerns transform mainstream notions of experience, human rights, the origins of philosophic issues, philosophic uses of metaphors of the family, white antiracism, human progress, scientific progress, modernity, the unity of scientific method, the desirability of universal knowledge claims and other ideas central to philosophy.

Practising Feminism Nickie Charles, Felicia Hughes-Freeland, 2013-01-11 In Practising Feminism, contributors drawn from a range of backgrounds in anthropology sociology and social psychology explore different ways of practising feminism and their effect on gendered identities The contributors examine feminism and gender identities in different cultures feminism as a politics of transformation the call for recognition of heterosexuality as a politicised identity the practical role of feminism in nationalist struggles power relations and gender differences and the methodological implications of feminist practices They all discuss identity difference and power and their importance to feminist political practice Practising Feminism is an important contribution to the neglected middle ground between post modern deconstructions of difference and identity and continued feminist concern with grounded power relations and the validity of experience Eros for the Other Wendy Farley,2010-11-01 Intuitive

Disability Reader Tom Shakespeare,1998-09-23 A collection of essays exploring the intellectual implications of a disability equality perspective Leading social scientists draw on current theory and research and offer an overview of contemporary debates The American Voice ,1996 Color of Privilege Aida Hurtado,2005-08-18 This groundbreaking and important book explores how women of different ethnic racial groups conceive of feminism A da Hurtado advances the theory of relational privilege to explain those differing conceptions Previous theories about feminism have predominantly emphasized the lives and experiences of middle class white women A da Hurtado argues that the different responses to feminism by women of color are not so much the result of personality or cultural differences between white women and women of color but of their differing relationship to white men For Hurtado subordination and privilege must be conceived as relational in nature and gender subordination and political solidarity must be examined in the framework of culture and socioeconomic context Hurtado s analysis of gender oppression is written from an interdisciplinary multicultural standpoint and is enriched by selections from poems by Sandra Cisneros Gloria Anzald a Lorna Dee Cervantes and Elba Sanchez and from plays by El Teatro Campesino the United Farm Workers theater group A final chapter proposes that progressive scholarship and especially feminist scholarship must have at its core a reflexive theory of gender oppression that allows writers to simultaneously document oppression while taking into account the writer s own privilege to analyze the observed as well as the observer A da Hurtado is Associate Professor of Psychology University of California Santa Cruz

Facing the Other Borbála Faragó, Moynagh Sullivan, 2008-12-18 This collection offers a multi faceted investigation of the critical issue of the creation and place of the Other in Ireland The extraordinarily rapid recent economic development of Ireland has effected a profound transformation in the island s social and cultural life In the process old verities and assumptions concerning the nature of Irish society and culture have been called into question with a whole variety of new challenges coming to light The developments of the last two decades have transformed questions of what and who constitutes the Other within Irish society but in the process older societal faultlines based on gender disability and religious difference have not disappeared and historical processes of Othering continue to play a critical role in influencing and moulding the social contours of the new Ireland of the twenty first century Drawing on a number of different disciplinary perspectives this collection presents a number of key analyses of social and cultural practices and policies that reflect anxieties about and negotiations of these changes examining historical and contemporary representation of fears about the porousness of national borders the increasing racialization of the Irish state through social and juridical proscriptions and the popular and official narrative of progress

Hardship & Health Womens Lives Hilary Graham, 2014-01-21 First published in 1993 There are around 16 million women in Britain aged 16 to 59 A total of 6 400 000 live in households with children under 16 representing 40 per cent of all women under retirement age Employment Gazette 1990 The vast majority of women living in households with children are mothers looking after their own offspring Hardship and Health in Women s Lives explores the lives of these 6 million women It is particularly concerned with their domestic lives and with the responsibilities and routines that structure what they do at home
