Royal Court Theatre in London in September of 1996 Ashes to Ashes is a triumph of power and concision In the living room of a pleasant house in a university town outside of London Devlin threatened by his wife Rebecca s recollections of an abusive ex lover questions her relentlessly in his need for a single truth In her seamless blending of what she knows of violence with the wider violence of the world Rebecca reveals an eerie communion with the dead victims of unnamed political barbarities Death etc. Harold Pinter,2015-01-27 A collection of political essays poetry and dramatic works by the Nobel Prize winning playwright and author of Betrayal Throughout his life playwright poet and political activist Harold Pinter has consistently cast light on the hypocrisy of power and those who would defend the status quo for the sake of their own security and comfort Awarded the Wilfred Owen Prize in 2004 for his poetry condemning US military intervention in Iraq Mr Pinter has succeeded in combining his artistry with his political activism Death etc brings together Pinter s most poignant and especially relevant writings in response to war From chilling psychological portraits of those who commit atrocities in the name of a higher power to essays on the state sponsored terrorism of present day regimes to solemn hymns commemorating the faceless masses that perish unrecognized Mr Pinter s writings are as essential to the preservation of open debate as to our awareness of personal involvement in the fate of our global community Landscape ; And, Silence Harold Pinter,1969 Other Places Harold Pinter,1991 One for the Road Harold Pinter,1985 An unnamed totalitarian state torments in turn a tortured prisoner his wife and child One for the Road was first performed at the Lyric Theatre Studio Hammersmith in March 1984 The Lover Harold Pinter,1992 THE STORY A husband goes to his office politely asking if his wife s lover will be coming today She murmurs Mmmm and suggests he not return before six In order not to return before six he will no doubt visit a prostitute A competition is glossily established When the lover does come he is the husband which is not surprising The kind of sex play follows that suggests this is the necessary titillation and the necessary release of hostility between a man who means to be master of the house and a wife who means to be both wife and mistress whatever the house may be But there is a flaw in the accommodation The lover is weary of his mistress she is no longer particularly appetizing By the time he returns as husband in the evening his wife is still disturbed by the news The performance of the afternoon has begun to carry over into the reality or pretense of the evening Suddenly the husband is not quite husband diffident over his drink He is blurring into the lover at the wrong hour and angrily The wife must seduce him now as wife not as mistress She does NY Herald Tribune A Slight Ache Harold Pinter,1991 This volume contains a selection of early works by Harold Pinter In the title play everything in Flora s garden is lovely and would be for Edward too if it were not for the slight ache in his eyes and the mysterious matchseller at the gate This edition also includes A Night Out The Dwarfs and several revue sketches Family Voices Harold Pinter,1981 A mother her son and dead husband fail to communicate with each other through a series of parallel monologues in the form of letters probably never mailed Gradually the facade of a happy family disintegrates into a cauldron of recrimination Originally a radio play broadcast on BBC Radio 3 January 1981

before a staged platform performance at the National Theatre in February Plays Three Harold Pinter, 1997 This revised third volume of Harold Pinter's work includes The Homecoming Old Times No Man's Land four shorter plays six revue sketches and a short story It also contains the speech given by Pinter in 1970 on being awarded the German Shakespeare Prize The Homecoming Of all Harold Pinter's major plays The Homecoming has the most powerful narrative line You are fascinated lured on sucked into the vortex Sunday Telegraph The most intense expression of compressed violence to be found anywhere in Pinter's plays The Times Old Times A rare quality of high tension is evident revealing in Old Times a beautifully controlled and expressive formality that has seldom been achieved since the plays of Racine Financial Times Harold Pinter's poetic Proustian Old Times has the inscrutability of a mysterious picture and the tension of a good thriller Independent No Man's Land The work of our best living playwright in its command of the language and its power to erect a coherent structure in a twilight zone of confusion and dismay The Times A Night Out Harold Pinter, 1961 Albert finds himself dominated by his mother At an office party he is mercilessly teased by his colleagues and arrives home his temper rising When his mother nags he attacks and leaves her gets picked up by a girl and is able to reduce her to humble servility Yet when he arrives home his mother is there fully recovered and ready to reassert her dominance Tea Party and Other Plays Harold Pinter, 1974
