Pip Pip A Sideways Look At Time:

Pip Pip Jay Griffiths, 2000 An examination of the Zeitgeist A Sideways Look at Time Jay Griffiths, 2004-03-08 A brilliant and poetic exploration of the way that we experience time in our everyday lives Why does time seem so short How does women's time differ from men's Why does time seem to move slowly in the countryside and quickly in cities How do different cultures around the world see time In A Sideways Look at Time Jay Griffiths takes readers on an extraordinary tour of time as we have never seen it before With this dazzling and defiant work Griffiths introduces us to dimensions of time that are largely forgotten in our modern lives She presents an infectious argument for other more magical times the diverse cycles of nature of folktale or carnival when time is unlimited and on our side This is a book for those who suspect that there's more to time than clocks Irresistible and provocative A Sideways Look at Time could change the way we view time forever A Book of Noises Caspar Henderson, 2023-08-21 A wide ranging exploration of the sounds that shape our world in invisible yet significant ways The crackling of a campfire The scratch hiss and pop of a vinyl record The first glug of wine as it is poured from a bottle These are just a few of writer Caspar Henderson's favorite sounds In A Book of Noises Henderson invites readers to use their ears a little better to tune in to the world in all its surprising noisiness Describing sounds from around the natural and human world the forty eight essays that make up A Book of Noises are a celebration of all things auraculous Henderson calls on his characteristic curiosity to explore sounds related to humans anthropophony other life biophony the planet geophony and space cosmophony Henderson finds the beauty in everyday sounds like the ringing of a bell the buzz of a bee or the earworm songs that get stuck in our heads A Book of Noises also explores the marvelous miraculous sounds we may never get the chance to hear like the deep boom of a volcano or the quiet rustling sound of the Northern Lights A Book of Noises will teach readers to really listen to the sounds of the world around them to broaden and deepen their appreciation of the humans animals rocks and trees simultaneously broadcasting across the whole spectrum of sentience Theatre and the Macabre Meredith Conti, Kevin J. Wetmore, Jr., 2022-03-01 The macabre as a process and product has been haunting the theatre and more broadly performance for thousands of years In its embodied meditations on death and dying its thematic and aesthetic grotesquerie and its sensory rich environments macabre theatre invites artists and audiences to trace the stranger darker contours of human existence In this volume numerous scholars explore the morbid and gruesome onstage from freak shows to the French Grand Guignol from Hell Houses to German Trauerspiel from immersive theatre to dark tourism stopping along the way to look at phantoms severed heads dark rides haunted mothers and haunting children dances of death and dismembered bodies From Japan to Australia to England to the United States the global macabre is framed and juxtaposed to understand how the theatre brings us face to face with the deathly and the horrific Avian Aesthetics in Literature and Culture Danette DiMarco, Timothy Ruppert, 2022-03-14 Avian Aesthetics in Literature and Culture Birds and Humans in the Popular Imagination closes the gap between ornithological and humanities knowledge This book contains fifteen innovative essays that bridge various environment focused perspectives and methodologies in order to include birds in current conversations within the field of animal studies This collection challenges species centrism advances a biodiverse ontology and embraces bird centered topics as diverse as gaming comic strips window collisions conservation literature youth birding mourning theory and the Birds Aren't Real movement Howard Barker's art of theatre David I Rabey, Sarah Goldingay, 2016-05-16 Director dramatist Howard Barker is a restlessly prolific compulsively controversial and provocative multi media artist Beyond his internationally performed and acclaimed theatrical productions and his award winning theatre company The Wrestling School he is also a poet a painter whose work has been exhibited internationally and a philosophical essayist cognisant of the unique power of art to provoke moral speculation and of the distinctive theatricality of the human being in times of crisis This collection of essays provides international perspectives on the full range of Barker's achievements theatrical and otherwise and argues for their unique importance and urgency at the forefront of several genres of provocative modern art It includes an interview with the artist and an essay by Barker himself Capitalism Jonathon Porritt, 2005 As our great economic machine grinds relentlessly forward into a future of declining fossil fuel supplies climate change and ecosystem failure governments are at long last beginning to question the very structure of the global economy In this fresh politically charged analysis Jonathon Porritt wades in on the most pressing question of the 21st century can capitalism as the only real economic game in town be retooled to deliver a sustainable future Porritt argues that indeed it can and it must as he lays out the framework for a new sustainable capitalism that cuts across the political divide and promises a prosperous future of wealth equity and ecosystem integrity Ethics and the Arts Paul Macneill, 2014-05-12 This book proposes that the highest expression of ethics is an aesthetic It suggests that the quintessential performance of any field of practice is an art that captures an ethic beyond any literal statement of values This is to advocate for a shift in emphasis away from current juridical approaches to ethics ethical codes or regulation toward ethics as an aesthetic practice away from ethics as a minimal requirement toward ethics as an aspiration The book explores the relationship between art and ethics a subject that has fascinated philosophers from ancient Greece to the present It explores this relationship in all the arts literature the visual arts film the performing arts and music It also examines current issues raised by hybrid artists who are working at the ambiguous intersections between art bio art and bioethics and challenging ethical limits in working with living materials In considering these issues the book investigates the potential for art and ethics to be mutually challenged and changed in this meeting The book is aimed at artists and students of the arts who may be interested in approaching ethics and the arts in a new way It is also aimed at students and teachers of ethics and philosophy as well as those working in bioethics and the health professions It will have appeal to the general educated reader as being current of considerable interest and offering a perspective on ethics that goes beyond a professional context to include questions about how one approaches ethics in one's own life and practices Transforming Travel Jeremy Smith, 2017-12-11 Transforming Travel combines stories from leading companies interviews with pioneers and thinkers along with thorough analysis of the industry's potential to make lasting positive change Written in a highly engaging style Transforming Travel presents an urgent argument for transforming tourism so it might reach its potential to promote tolerance restore communities and regenerate habitats while providing a vital guide for anyone looking to develop the successful sustainable tourism enterprises and destinations needed to do so Sex, Sects and Society Russell Davies, 2018-03-28 This book will provide an educational and entertaining read It will explain the contradictions and complexities of the Welsh national identity This book will reveal the hardships and horrors of some people's lives It will reveal how religion and superstition ebbed and flowed together

Beacons Gregory Norminton, 2013-03-01 An incredible collection of stories for our shared planet from the likes of Joanne Harris Toby Litt and Liz Jensen A riveting and provocative collection of short fiction Beacons throws down the gauntlet to award winning writers challenging them to devise original responses to the climate crisis From Joanne Harris cautionary tale of a world where outside has become a thing of the past to Nick Hayes graphic depiction of the primeval bond between man and nature each story thrills the senses as it attempts to make sense of a world warping into something unfamiliar Original eclectic and inventive Beacons warns and inspires by offering stories that are as various as our possible futures All author royalties will go to the Stop Climate Chaos Coalition largely as a construct of the Western imagination Making Interdisciplinary Performance Gianna Bouchard, Adam J. Ledger, 2025-05-15 This collection offers an examination of and guide to interdisciplinary collaboration through the working practices of performance makers exploring its pleasures problems and pitfalls The book explores contemporary working practices at the interfaces between performance and other disciplines Focusing on collaborations between theatre makers and these others it investigates the processes and conditions involved in the interdisciplinary Chapters cover areas such as psychology the environment physical cultures the military healthcare festivals and communities architecture pedagogy and fine dining At a time when interdisciplinary practice is actively encouraged in the academy this book asks what it means in practical terms to engage with artists and scholars outside of our home territories Where does the interdisciplinary exist and what does it rely on How do theatre makers approach and sustain these projects What is the nature of the journey Offering examples of unusual collaborations and arranged through 3 key areas of performance making this book acknowledges the difficulties of such work and that the aims of interdisciplinarity can fail while examining how new methods and understandings can shift notions of knowledge Economics and Climate Emergency Barry Gills, Jamie Morgan, 2022-08-22 This book explores a series of connected themes focused on the role economics and other influential forms of theory and thinking have played in creating the current predicament and the scope for alternatives and how they might be framed Thirty years have passed since the inception of the United Nations Framework Convention on Climate Change UNFCCC and the beginning of policy on climate change Thirty wasted years To most politicians long term collective interest has been denominated in meaningless units of time a never and forever that has continually delayed action From complacency has come potential disaster and we are now living in a time of climate emergency and ecological breakdown The next decade is a pivotal period requiring fundamental change But numerous impediments remain Continual material energy and economic growth on a planetary scale are manifestly impossible and yet economic theory takes these as a given and political leadership and policy seem unwilling to accept brute reality Instead they offer a series of implausible commitments and pledges rooted in technofixes without addressing the fundamental drivers of the problems the world faces The edited volume explores the issues and offers a variety of ways to think through the problems at hand from postgrowth degrowth and social ecological economics to policy assemblage and transversalism The chapters in this book were originally published in the journal Globalizations Nation and Identity in the New German Cinema Inga Scharf, 2008-06-30 In this original study Scharf investigates issues of national identity in films of the New German Cinema Using a cultural studies analysis Scharf argues that the conflict between this generation of critical filmmakers and their German ness translate into feature films that construct and are pervaded by a sense of homelessness at home As the first cultural studies investigation of this cinematic movement the book challenges existing film studies accounts by analyzing the New German Cinema within its social temporal and spatial contexts Furthermore with its broad concerns for the West German production context the New

German Cinema's reception both nationally and internationally as well as issues of representation, narration and Othering Nation and Identity in the New German Cinema offers an interdisciplinary contribution to the ongoing debate on national cinema

Autoethnographies from the Neoliberal Academy Jess Moriarty, 2019-11-06 The shift to a neoliberal agenda has for many academics intensified the pressure and undermined the pleasure that their work can and does bring This book contains stories from a range of autoethnographers seeking to challenge traditional academic discourse by providing personal and evocative writings that detail moments of profound transformation and change The book focuses on the experiences of one academic and the stories that her dialogues with other autoethnographers generated in response to the neoliberal shift in higher education Chapters use a variety of genres to provide an innovative text that identifies strategies to challenge neoliberal governance Autoethnography is as a methodology that can be used as form of resistance to this cultural shift by exploring effects on individual academic and personal lives The stories are necessarily emotional, personal, important It is hoped that they will promote other ways of navigating higher education that do not align with neoliberalism and instead offer more holistic and human ways of being an academic This book highlights the impact of neoliberalism on academics' freedom to teach and think freely With 40% of academics in the UK considering other forms of employment, this book will be of interest to existing and future academics who want to survive the new environment and maintain their motivation and passion for academic life

The Kabbalah of Light Catherine Shainberg, 2022-06-28 Shares 159 short exercises and practices to tap instantly into your subconscious mind and receive answers to your most important questions Explains how to dialogue with and understand the imagery and metaphors that arise during these practices Offers powerful practices to discover your areas of stuckness and quickly clear them, thus releasing past traumas and ancestral patterns and freeing the flow of the imagination for enhanced creativity and joy in life In this step-by-step guide to kabbalistic practices to connect with your natural inner genius and liberate the light within you Catherine Shainberg reveals how to tap instantly into the subconscious and receive answers to urgent questions This method, called the Kabbalah of Light, originated with Rabbi Isaac the Blind of Posquieres 1160-1235 and has been passed down by an ancient kabbalistic family, the Sheshet of Gerona, in an unbroken transmission spanning more than 800 years The modern lineage holder of the Kabbalah of Light, Shainberg, shares 159 short experiential exercises and practices to help you begin dialoguing with your subconscious through images The images that pop up during these practices are unexpected and revelatory and she discusses how to open them to greater understanding At first they may show you aspects of yourself you don't like But seeing them serves as both a diagnosis and a direct path to transformation Fast and simple, the practices can help you discover your areas of stuckness, release past traumas and ancestral patterns, free the imagination and open the way to the bliss promised us in the Garden of Eden Beginning this fertile dialogue with your inner world leads you to uncover your soul's purpose and manifest your dreams in this world Once your inner dream world and outer reality have merged, you will be able to see your superconscious, your soul s blueprint and experience the ecstatic illumination of a heart centered life An Introduction to Population Geographies Holly R. Barcus, Keith Halfacree, 2017-09-01 An Introduction to Population Geographies provides a foundation to the incredibly diverse topical and interesting field of twenty first century population geography It establishes the substantive concerns of the subdiscipline acknowledges the sheer diversity of its approaches key concepts and theories and engages with the resulting major areas of academic debate that stem from this richness Written in an accessible style and assuming little prior knowledge of topics covered yet drawing on a wide range of diverse academic literature the book s particular originality comes from its extended definition of population geography that locates it firmly within the multiple geographies of the life course Consequently issues such as childhood and adulthood family dynamics ageing everyday mobilities morbidity and differential ability assume a prominent place alongside the classic population geography triumvirate of births migrations and deaths This broader framing of the field allows the book to address more holistically aspects of lives across space often provided little attention in current textbooks Particular note is given to how these lives are shaped though hybrid social biological and individual arenas of differential life course experience By engaging with traditional quantitative perspectives and newer qualitative insights the authors engage students from the quantitative macro scale of population to the micro individual scale Aimed at higher level undergraduate and graduate students this introductory text provides a well developed pedagogy including case studies that illustrate theory concepts and issues
