WHEELER,1912 Pitching in a Pinch Christy Mathewson,2013-07 I have often been asked to which batters I have found it hardest to pitch It is the general impression among baseball fans that Joseph Faversham Tinker the short stop of the Chicago Cubs is the worst man that I have to face in the National League Few realize that during his first two years in the big show Joe Tinker looked like a cripple at the plate when I was pitching His groove was a slow curve over the outside corner and I fed him slow curves over that very outside corner with great regularity Then suddenly overnight he became from my point of view the most dangerous batter in the League Tinker is a clever ball player and one day I struck him out three times in succession with low curves over the outside corner Instead of getting disgusted with himself he began to think and reason He knew that I was feeding him that low curve over the outside corner and he started to look for an antidote He had always taken a short choppy swing at the ball When he went to the clubhouse after the game in which he struck out three times he was very quiet so I have been told He was just putting on his last sock when he clapped his hand to his leg and exclaimed
