Robinson, 2012-12-05 Lesser Civil Wars Civilians Defining War and the Memory of War is an edited volume that surveys three hundred years of the Memory of war and the Will to war in the greater Ohio River Valley and Great Lakes region Military theorists from von Clausewitz to Dingiswayo and Chandragupta calculated the Will of their own soldiers and of the enemy's soldiers. Sometimes the Will is assigned an erroneously low strength as Abraham Lincoln learned quickly at the onset of the United States Civil War. In this volume we examine the civilian production of the national Will to fight future wars through the least civil war each individual's war to remember or to forget and no armistice or accord brings this internal battle to an end. This is not a book about the atrocities committed during war. This is a book about the very nature of the Will Memory Will cycle where the Memory of war continues for generations until a new war requires the resurrection of the Will. As these essays show, sometimes it only takes a few individuals to prosecute these Memory wars with rules of engagement that do not necessarily include civil behavior. By focusing on microhistories from a specific region and by bracketing the US Civil War with an essay about a century prior to it and essays about the century following it, we are able to demonstrate the power and energy of the incubating stage of Memory in the Will Memory Will cycle. In the greater Ohio River Valley and Great Lakes region, ordinary civilians controlled and incubated the memories of the Iroquois Wars, the French and Indian Seven Years War 1756-1763, the American Revolution 1776-1783, and the War of 1812, and they converted Memory into the Will to fight the US Civil War and the Vietnam War. In these chapters we present micro wars between civilians over control of the Will of a nation. They are indeed lesser civil wars. Monographic Series Library of Congress, Classified Catalog of the Carnegie Library of Pittsburgh. 1895-1902. In Three Volumes, 1908 Classified Catalogue of the Carnegie Library of Pittsburgh, 1895-1902 Carnegie Library of Pittsburgh, 1907 Emma Goldman Emma Goldman, 2008-07-16 Emma Goldman. A Documentary History of the American Years reconstructs the life of Emma Goldman through significant texts and documents. These volumes collect personal letters, lecture notes, newspaper articles, court transcripts, government surveillance reports, and numerous other documents, many of which appear here in English for the first time. Supplemented with thorough annotations, multiple appendixes, and detailed chronologies, the texts bring to life the memory of this singular pivotal figure in American and European radical history. Volume 1 Made for America 1890-1901 introduces readers to the young Emma Goldman as she begins her association with the international anarchist movement and especially with the German Jewish and Italian immigrant radicals in New York City. From early on, Goldman's movement through political and intellectual circles is marked by violence, from the attempted murder of industrialist Henry Clay Frick by Goldman's lover Alexander Berkman to the assassination of President William McKinley in which Goldman was falsely implicated. The documents surrounding these events illuminate Goldman's struggle to balance anarchism's positive gains and its destructive costs. This volume introduces many of the themes that would pervade much of Goldman's later writings and speeches: the untold possibilities of anarchism, the transformative power of literature, the interplay of human relationships, and the importance of free speech, education, labor, women's freedom, and radical social reform. Emma Goldman: A Documentary History of the American Years, Volume One Emma Goldman, Candace Falk, 2003-04-17. A documentary history of Emma Goldman's life and work in the United States. This is the first of a three-volume set of the most important letters, newspaper articles, speeches, government documents, and photographs covering Goldman's life from her arrival in the US through 1905 when she founded the anarchist magazine Mother Earth      Documentary History of the General Council of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in North America S.
