Pity And Terror Ulrich Simon, 1989-11-10 Pity and Terror Ulrich E. Simon, 1989 The Third Person of the Trinity Zondervan, 2020-12-01 A Fresh Look at the Holy Spirit Recent decades have recognized pneumatology the theology of the Holy Spirit as a critical component in Christian thought worthy of increased attention While scholarly discussion about the Spirit is both creative and lively it does sometimes occur in outlying areas of doctrine and practice rather than within its context of the doctrine of God The Third Person of the Trinity represents the proceedings of the 2020 Los Angeles Theology Conference which examined pneumatology as a core component of the doctrine of the Trinity offering constructive proposals for understanding the doctrine of the Holy Spirit with theological and historical depth ecumenical scope and analytic clarity The twelve diverse essays in this collection include discussions on Understanding the Holy Spirit s presence in creation The mystery of the Trinity and the procession of the Spirit An exploration of a Black American pneumatology of freedom Exploring pneumatology alongside sorrow and suffering Each of the essays collected in this volume engage with Scripture as well as with others in the field theologians both past and present from different confessions in order to provide constructive resources for contemporary systematic theology and to forge a theology for the future The Tragic Paradox Leonard Moss, 2014-03-24 Paradox informs the narrative sequence images and rhetorical tactics contrived by skilled dramatists and novelists Their literary languages depict not only a war between rivals but also simultaneous affirmation and negation voiced by a tragic individual They reveal the treason flux and duplicity brought into play by an unrelenting drive for respect Their patterns of speech action and image project a convergence of polarities the convergence of integrity and radical change of constancy and infidelity A fanatical drive to fulfill a traditional code of masculine conduct produces the ironic consequence of de forming that code the tragic paradox Tragic literature exploits irony In Athenian and Shakespearean tragedy self righteous male or female aristocrats instigate their own disgrace shame and guilt an un expected diminishment They are victimized by a magnificent obsession a fantasy of un alloyed authority or virtue a dream of perfect self sufficiency or trust The authors of tragedy revised the concept of nobility to reflect the strange fact that grandeur elicits its own annulment Strengths by strengths do fail Shakespeare wrote in Coriolanus The playwrights made this paradoxical predicament concrete with a narrative format that equates self assertion with self detraction images that revolve between incredible reversals and provisional reinstatements and speech that sounds impressively weighty but masks deception disloyalty cynicism and insecurity Three heroic philosophers Plato Hegel and Nietzsche contributed invaluable but contrasting accounts of these literary languages Aristotle s Poetics will be discussed in connection with Plato s attitude toward poetry Their divergent descriptions can be reconciled to show that invalidations as well as affirmations the transmission of contraries are essential for tragic composition An equivocal rhetoric a mutable imagery and an ironic progression convey the tortuous pursuit of personal preeminence or in later tragic works by Kafka and Strindberg family solidarity and communal safety I am trying to integrate the disparate arguments offered by several notable theorists with technical procedures fashioned by the Athenian dramatists and recast by Shakespeare and other writers procedures that articulate the tragic paradox Evil and the Augustinian Tradition Charles T. Mathewes,2001-09-06 This explores the family biography of the Augustinian tradition by looking at Augustine s work and its development in the writings of Hannah Arendt and Reinhold Niebuhr Mathewes argues that the Augustinian tradition offers us a powerful though commonly misconstrued proposal for understanding and responding to evil s challenges The book casts light on Augustine Niebuhr and Arendt as well as on the problem of evil the nature of tradition and the role of theological and ethical discourse in contemporary thought Literature and Theology as a Grammar of Assent David Jasper,2017-05-15 Examining the roots of the relationship between literature and theology this book offers the first serious attempt to probe the deep theological purposes of the study of literature Through an exploration of themes of evil forgiveness sacrament and what it means to be human David Jasper draws from international research and discussions on literature and theology and employs an historical and profoundly personal journey through the later part of the last century up to the present time Combining fields such as bible and literature poetry and sacrament this book sheds new light on how Christian theology seeks to remain articulate in our global secular and multi faith culture The Tragic in Mark Jeff Jay,2014-08-26 Jeff Jay argues that the Gospel of Mark should be described as tragic because it elicits tragedy s recurring motifs and moods as well as a highly theatrical atmosphere He thus revises the typical story of tragic drama s history which portrays the Judeo Christian tradition as inhospitable to tragedy because it emphasizes divine grace and justice

T&T Clark Handbook of Theology and the Arts Stephen M. Garrett,Imogen Adkins,2025-04-24 This volume presents the theology arts conversation from a distinctly Christian perspective as a witness of the Gospel of Christ to the world A widespread interest in the historical socio cultural and political embeddedness of theology and the arts permeates it This theme of embeddedness tracks through several overarching and interlocking concerns the relationship between form and content in both art and theology the intensification of the metaphysical and the theological contra materialist and positivist reductionisms the expansion of the epistemological possibilities of the theology art conversation and a robust understanding of the world as the theatre of God s glory Several chapters have been co written by theologians and artists as part of demonstrating the kind of conversation that this book commends A thorough going commitment to Scripture is also woven into the many different habits of thought represented in this volume Part I surveys different approaches to the theology arts conversation Part II focuses on how particular art forms bring theological issues to the surface and how theological and denominational traditions shape the making and receiving of the arts Part III delves into key topics in the current theology arts scene and asks how artistic and theological performance can both speak to theological and artistic knowing and help to celebrate and interrogate embodied lived reality James Baldwin and the Short Story Benedict Ushedo,2018-03-21 This book examines the range of issues that echo in James Baldwin s short stories It articulates and defends the claim that the stories in the collection Going to Meet the Man are driven by the autobiographical memory of the author To support this line of thought and the related proposition that the stories feed into themes relevant to self knowledge vicarious suffering love and forgiveness their effectiveness as transformative and revelatory texts is highlighted By drawing on contemporary studies and challenging the view that short stories are no more than miniature pieces merely echoing major works of their authors this book demonstrates that the short story genre can be profoundly forceful and effective in the articulation of complex human issues This study shows also that the humanistic import of the Baldwin stories is amplified by their ability to accumulate moral tension as they elicit the participation of the reader in an imaginative quest for a better world

Female Mourning in Medieval and Renaissance English Drama Katharine Goodland, 2006 Looking at the plays of Shakespeare Kyd and Webster this book presents a new perspective on early modern drama grounded upon three original interrelated points The author explores how the motif of the mourning woman on the early modern stage embodies the cultural trauma of the Reformation in England brings to light the extent to which the figures of early modern drama recall those of the recent medieval past and addresses how these representations embody actual mourning practices that were after the Reformation increasingly viewed as disturbing
