Places In Between:

Life, Death, & the Faces and Places Between Donald Alan Straub III, 2004-05-13 Life Death the Faces and Places Between is a collection of 57 poems created over six years between 1997 and 2003 expressed from the perspective of a man in his mid to late twenties The poems examine life and death through various poetic styles and viewpoints probing into territories both familiar and uncommon The book tackles a variety of subjects From hate crimes to love ballads from surviving cancer to surviving 9 11 from nature to the nature of man all set against the backdrop of what it is to live in these unpredictable times It s a reflection of the world and encourages the reader to look beyond the surface for greater meaning The poems were inspired by first hand experiences observations of others and thoughts that seemed to spill out upon the page It is a fascinating and vulnerable exploration told through poetry

The Places Between Words. Life is a Story - story.one

Lara Aimee Endres, 2023-08-29 The Places Between Words is a collection of poetry about the barriers of our own minds as well as those we face within society The poems illustrate how our insecurities and ruminations can make us feel completely adrift at times But they also show what we have to hold onto in those moments of self doubt whether that be the people around us daydreams about our surroundings or perhaps most of all words themselves This collection is meant to be a safe space and to validate the quiet voices the ones that rarely raise above a whisper Because a whisper is still a voice and it deserves to be heard

CyberParks - The Interface Between People, Places and Technology Carlos Smaniotto Costa, Ina Šuklje Erjavec, Therese Kenna, Michiel de Lange, Konstantinos Ioannidis, Gabriela Maksymiuk, Martijn de Waal, 2019-03-01 This open access book is about public open spaces about people and about the relationship between them and the role of technology in this relationship It is about different approaches methods empirical studies and concerns about a phenomenon that is increasingly being in the centre of sciences and strategies the penetration of digital technologies in the urban space As the main outcome of the CyberParks Project this book aims at fostering the understanding about the current and future interactions of the nexus people public spaces and technology It addresses a wide range of challenges and multidisciplinary perspectives on emerging phenomena related to the penetration of technology in people s lifestyles affecting therefore the whole society and with this the production and use of public spaces Cyberparks coined the term cyberpark to describe the mediated public space that emerging type of urban spaces where nature and cybertechnologies blend together to generate hybrid experiences and enhance quality of life

A Hand-book to All Places of Public Worship in London , 1848

The Origin and History of Irish Names of Places Patrick Weston Joyce, 1901

Places and Politics in an Age of Globalization Roxann Prazniak, Arif Dirlik, 2001-02-07 This ambitious work provides a unique statement on the question of place based activism and its relationship to powerful forces of international capital Arguing that specific places around the world are sites for the defense and enhancement of daily life in the context of rapidly expanding global technologies and investment options the contributors reach for a vision of social development that supports sustainable humane cultures

Bringing together the local and the global this work provides the first sustained linkage of ethnic groups in diaspora to macrocosmic processes of world capital that inevitably reach down to mediate even the most local experiences The essays ranging in their discussion of place from Los Angeles and New York to New Zealand and Indonesia offer both reasoned argument and authoritative information on how local experience interacts with larger processes of global capital and the diasporic phenomenon The book will be an invaluable resource and launching point for scholars and students in ethnic and identity studies and will interest all readers exploring the production of place and identification

Between Philosophy and Non-Philosophy Donald A. Landes, Leonard Lawlor, Peter Gratton, 2016-11-01 Hugh J Silverman was an inspiring scholar and teacher known for his work engaging and shaping phenomenology hermeneutics psychoanalysis structuralism poststructuralism and deconstruction As Professor of Philosophy and Comparative Literary and Cultural Studies at Stony Brook University State University of New York Silverman's work was marked by the between a concept he developed to think the postmodern in the space between philosophy and non philosophy In this volume leading scholars explore and extend Silverman's philosophical contributions from reflections on the notions of care time and responsibility to presentations of the practices and possibilities of deconstruction itself They provide an assessment of Silverman's life and work at the intersection of philosophy ethics and politics

The Oxford Handbook of Chinese Cinemas Carlos Rojas, Eileen Chow, 2013-03-13 What does it mean for a cinematic work to be Chinese Does it refer specifically to a work's subject or does it also reflect considerations of language ethnicity nationality ideology or political orientation Such questions make any single approach to a vast field like Chinese cinema difficult at best Accordingly The Oxford Handbook of Chinese Cinemas situates the term more broadly among various different phases genres and distinct national configurations while taking care to address the consequences of grouping together so many disparate histories under a single banner Offering both a platform for cross disciplinary dialogue and a mapping of Chinese cinema as an expanded field this Handbook presents thirty three essays by leading researchers and scholars intent on yielding new insights and new analyses using three different methodologies Chapters in Part I investigate the historical periodizations of the field through changing notions of national and political identity all the way from the industry's beginnings in the 1920s up to its current forms in contemporary Hong Kong Taiwan and the global diaspora Chapters in Part II feature studies centered on the field's taxonomical formalities including such topics as the role of the Chinese opera in technological innovation the political logic of the Maoist film and the psychoanalytic formula of the kung fu action film Finally in Part III focus is given to the structural elements that comprise a work's production distribution and reception to reveal the broader cinematic apparatuses within which these works are positioned Taken together the multipronged approach supports a wider platform beyond the geopolitical and linguistic limitations in existing scholarship Expertly edited to illustrate a representative set of up to date topics and approaches The Oxford Handbook of Chinese

Cinemas provides a vital addition to a burgeoning field still in its formative stages Food Words Peter Jackson,2013-06-27 Food Words is a series of provocative essays on some of the most important keywords in the emergent field of food studies focusing on current controversies and on going debates Words like choice and convenience are often used as explanatory terms in understanding consumer behavior but are clearly ideological in the way they reflect particular positions and serve specific interests while words like taste and value are no less complex and contested Inspired by Raymond Williams Food Words traces the multiple meanings of each of our keywords tracking nuances in different academic commercial and policy contexts Mapping the dynamic meanings of each term the book moves forward from critical assessment to active intervention an attitude that is reflected in the lively sometimes combative style of the essays Each essay is research based and fully referenced but accessible to the general reader With a foreword by eminent food scholar Warren Belasco Professor of American Studies at the University of Maryland Baltimore County and written by an inter disciplinary team associated with the CONANX research project Consumer culture in an age of anxiety Food Words will be essential reading for food scholars across the arts humanities and social sciences The Justice of the Peace, and Parish Officer Richard Burn,1830 The Places of Van Morrison's Songwriting Geoff Munns,2022-12-21 What can we learn about Van Morrison s life and work as a songwriter through his songs This book looks closely at the lyrics and music from a selection of his songs Some are very well known Brown Eyed Girl Cleaning Windows and The Healing Game Others are less familiar Through these songs the book offers insights into some of the most important ideas that the songwriter has explored across his five decade plus career starting from the Them period and extending through his solo albums These readings show how thinking about Morrison s use of place provides a specific lens that contributes to a greater understanding of his art The songs are organized into chapters that reflect many of the important places in Morrison s work as he ventured professionally and imaginatively away from the places of his upbringing towards a wider musical world These places are in city streetscapes and country landscapes in home places of streets and ditches in the enclosed spaces of rooms in the expansive reaches of the natural world in indeterminate and specific foreign lands A picture emerges of the journey that Van Morrison details through his songs one that sees him first wandering as a boy through his East Belfast haunts and then venturing out to a wider world away from this local place Report on the Exploration of the Country Between Lake Superior and the Red River Settlement. With Maps Canada,1858 A New Geographical, Historical, and Commercial Grammar ... William Guthrie,John Knox,1815 Philoponus: On Aristotle Physics 4.1-5 Keimpe Algra,Johannes van Ophuijsen,2014-04-22 Aristotle s account of place in which he defined a thing s place as the inner surface of its nearest immobile container was supported by the Latin Middle Ages even 1600 years after his death though it had not convinced many ancient Greek philosophers The sixth century commentator Philoponus took a more common sense view For him place was an immobile three dimensional extension whose essence did not preclude its being empty even if for other reasons it had always to be filled with body However Philoponus reserved his own definition for an excursus already translated in this series The Corollary on Place In the text translated here he wanted instead to explain Aristotle s view to elementary students The recent conjecture that he wished to attract young fellow Christians away from the official pagan professor of philosophy in Alexandria has the merit of explaining why he expounds Aristotle here rather than attacking him But he still puts the students through their paces for example when discussing Aristotle s claim that place cannot be a body or two bodies would coincide This volume contains an English translation of Philoponus commentary as well as a detailed introduction extensive explanatory notes and a bibliography

A Compleat System of General Geography Varenus,1736 The Laws of the Customs James D. Hume,1826 Taking-Place: Non-Representational Theories and Geography Ben Anderson,2016-04-01

Emerging over the past ten years from a set of post structuralist theoretical lineages non representational theories are having a major impact within Human Geography Non representational theorisation and research has opened up new sets of problematics around the body practice and performativity and inspired new ways of doing and writing human geography that aim to engage with the taking place of everyday life Drawing together a range of innovative contributions from leading writers this is the first book to provide an extensive and in depth overview of non representational theories and human geography The work addresses the core themes of this still developing field demonstrates the implications of non representational theories for many aspects of human geographic thought and practice and highlights areas of emergent critical debate The collection is structured around four thematic sections Life Representation Ethics and Politics which explore the varied relations between non representational theories and contemporary human geography
