Confessions of a Dying Thief Darrell J. Steffensmeier,2017-07-12 Recipient of the American Society of Criminology's 2006 Michael J Hindelang Award for a book published within the past three calendar years that is the most outstanding contribution to research in criminology Nominated for the 2007 Outstanding Book Award of the Academy of Criminal Justice Sciences Sam Goodman was a long time thief fence and quasi legitimate businessman He had a criminal career that spanned fifty years beginning in his mid teens and ending with his death when he was in his mid sixties Confessions of a Dying Thief is an in depth ethnographic study of Sam and his world based on continuous contact with him for many years on multiple interviews with his network of associates in crime and business and on a series of interviews with him shortly before he died The book updates and greatly expands the case study of Sam Goodman's fencing activity found in Steffensmeier's award winning 1986 book The Fence In the Shadow of Two Worlds It combines Sam's colorful narrative accounts with substantive commentary by the authors to provide a more nuanced portrayal of criminal careers illegal enterprise and the broad landscape comprising the entity called crime To more fully understand pathways into and out of crime as well as the social organization of illegal enterprise the authors propose an integrative learning opportunity commitment framework that combines differential association social learning theory and an extended conceptualization of criminal opportunity with a three fold theory of commitment to crime This framework offers an integrated and more complete way of understanding mechanisms that underlie criminal offending and criminal careers It also recognizes the complexity and scope of the criminal landscape and its embeddedness in the fabric of the larger society including its criminal justice system Sam's illness and death are a sobering backdrop to Confessions of A Dying Thief Sam Goodman Darrell J.
