Oxford Encyclopedia of Women in World History Bonnie G. Smith, 2008 The Encyclopedia of Women in World History captures the experiences of women throughout world history in a comprehensive 4 volume work Although there has been extensive research on women in history by region no text or reference work has comprehensively covered the role women have played throughout world history The past thirty years have seen an explosion of research and effort to present the experiences and contributions of women not only in the Western world but across the globe Historians have investigated womens daily lives in virtually every region and have researched the leadership roles women have filled across time and region They have found and demonstrated that there is virtually no historical social or demographic change in which women have not been involved and by which their lives have not been affected The Oxford Encyclopedia of Women in World History benefits greatly from these efforts and experiences and illuminates how women worldwide have influenced and been influenced by these historical social and demographic changes The Encyclopedia contains over 1 250 signed articles arranged in an A Z format for ease of use The entries cover six main areas biographies geography and history comparative culture and society including adoption abortion performing arts organizations and movements such as the Egyptian Uprising and the Paris Commune womens and gender studies and topics in world history that include slave trade globalization and disease With its rich and insightful entries by leading scholars and experts this reference work is sure to be a valued go to resource for scholars college and high school students and general readers alike

Beyond Elder Law Israel Doron, Ann M. Soden, 2012-03-28 All over the world there is a growing interest in the relationship between law and aging How does the law influence the lives of older people Can rights advocacy and representation advance the social position of the aged and combat ageism What are the new and cutting edge frontiers in the field of elder law Should there be a new international human rights convention in this field These are only a few of the many questions that arise This book attempts to answer some of these questions and to set the agenda for the future development of elder law across the globe Taking into account existing research and knowledge leading scholars from different continents North America Europe Asia and Australia present in this book original and novel ideas regarding the future development of elder law These ideas touch upon key topics such as elder guardianship citizenship mental capacity elder abuse human rights and international law family relationships age discrimination and the right to die This book can thus serve as an important reference work for all those interested in understanding where law and aging are headed and for those concerned about the future legal rights of older persons

Putting Women Up: Gender Equality and Politics in Myanmar Netina Tan, Meredith L Weiss, 2024-02-02 For the duration of Myanmar s experiment with electoral democracy why did some women run for political office and not others What role did gatekeepers such as party leaders play in those decisions and using what criteria in selecting candidates How did experience of domestic violence or harassment affect women s likelihood to participate in politics especially beyond the local level And what implications might these earlier patterns have for a post coup Myanmar should meaningful elections be restored The contributors to Putting Women Up Gender Equality and Politics in Myanmar answer these questions by examining the internal politics of nine political parties in Myanmar and both men s and women s attitudes towards and experiences of political leadership Drawing on extensive interview survey and focus group discussion data collected from across Myanmar in 2017 and 2020 this book offers a mixed methods approach to explain how factors from party rules to formative personal trauma to patriarchal biases to ethno religious context shape women s and men s likelihood to join local and national politics The findings expand on culturalist insights on gender inequality to provide context sensitive evidence backed policy recommendations to promote women s political leadership despite militarization and violence in post coup
