Plain Pleasures:

Plain Pleasures Jane Bowles, 2025-08-26 A restored collection of the short fiction of an overlooked genius whose visionary style and modernist experiments with form we're only just beginning to understand This stunning collection of Jane Bowles's short fiction shows us the work of a little understood visionary genius In these uncanny and insidious tales Bowles presents us with an incendiary and groundbreaking vision of the mad possibilities of literary modernism And for the first time ever we've included the excised sections of Two Serious Ladies which was originally Three Serious Ladies that add even more mystery intrigue and allure to this most compelling and most elusive figure of twentieth century letters From Everything Is Nice where an American woman is led to a house in a blue Moslem town by a veiled woman with porcupines in her basket to Camp Cataract a Colorado based tour de force of middle class claustrophobia and dread these stories are a bewildering headlong plunge into the jagged seething fever dream world of Jane Bowles Plain Pleasures Jane
