The Plains of Passage (with Bonus Content) Jean M. Auel, 2010-10-06 Ayla the heroine first introduced in The Clan of the Cave Bear is known and loved by millions of readers Now in The Plains of Passage Ayla's story continues Ayla and Jondalar set out on horseback across the windswept grasslands of Ice Age Europe To the hunter gatherers of their world who have never seen tame animals Ayla and Jondalar appear enigmatic and frightening The mystery surrounding the woman who speaks with a strange accent and talks to animals with their own sounds is heightened by her uncanny control of a large powerful wolf The tall yellow haired man who rides by her side is also held in awe not only for the magnificent stallion he commands but also for his skill as a crafter of stone tools and for the new weapon he devises the spear thrower In the course of their cross continental odyssey Ayla and Jondalar encounter both savage enemies and brave friends Together they learn that the vast and unknown world can be difficult and treacherous but breathtakingly beautiful and enlightening as well All the pain and pleasure bring them closer to their ultimate destination for the orphaned Ayla and the wandering Jondalar must reach that place on earth they can call home As sweeping and spectacular as the land she creates Jean M Auel's The Plains of Passage is an astonishing novel of discovery danger and love a triumph for one of the world's most original and popular authors This eBook includes the full text of the novel plus the following additional content An Earth's Children series sampler including free chapters from the other books in Jean M Auel's bestselling series A Q A with the author about the Earth's Children series A treatise on Hannibal's passage of the Alps, in which his route is traced over the Little Mont Cenis Robert Ellis, 1853 African Thresholds: Borders and Places of Passage in Africa, c.1450 to Present, 2025-06-19 The Open Access publication of this book has been made possible by the Swiss National Science Foundation What is a border and why does it exist Reappraising a key idea from Arnold van Gennep's Les rites de passage this book argues that a border is a threshold a limen made to be crossed African Thresholds studies places of passage spanning from the riverine networks of Senegambia to border making in colonial Gold Coast and Côte d'Ivoire from the desert roads of central southern Africa to river heartlands in colonial Togo from flows of cowrie shells across the Volta River to insurgent borderities in the Lake Chad In a time when state borders are increasingly shut this book aims to show us that a border is made by those who cross it as much as by those who stand by it Contributors are Ettore Morelli Fernando Mouta Pierluigi Valsecchi Mar a Jos Pont Ch fer Giulia Casentini and Aim Raoul Sumo Tayo Cleveland Plain Dealer Index United States. 2001 The studies collected here present a number of new departures Special consideration is given to the way non linguistic visual and auditory signs such as gestures and bird sounds are represented in language and more specifically in signed language and how such signs influence semantic conceptualization Other studies examine more closely how visual signs and representations of time and space are incorporated or reflected in literary language in fiction as well as experimental poetry A further new approach concerns intermedial iconicity which emerges in art when its medium is changed or another medium is imitated A more abstract diagrammatic type of iconicity is again investigated with reference to both language and literature some essays focus on the device of reduplication isomorphic tendencies in word formation and on creative iconic patterns in syntax while others explore numerical design in Dante and geometrical patterning in Dylan Thomas A number of theoretically oriented papers pursue post Peircean approaches such as the application of reader response theory and of systems theory to iconicity
