Plaintext Deciphering A Womans Life:

Feminists Who Changed America, 1963-1975 Barbara J. Love, 2006-09-22 Documenting key feminists who ignited the second wave women's movement Barbara J Love's Feminists Who Changed America 1963 1975 will be the first comprehensive directory to document many of the founders and leaders including both well known and grassroots organizers of the second wave women's movement It tells the stories of more than two thousand individual women and a few notable men who together reignited the women's movement and made permanent changes to entrenched customs and laws The biographical entries on these pioneering feminists represent their many factions all parts of the country all races and ethnic groups and all political ideologies Nancy Cott's foreword discusses the movement in relation to the earlier first wave and presents a brief overview of the second wave in the context of other contemporaneous social movements The Family Silver Susan Krieger, 1996-10-21 A magnificent read a profoundly personal narrative The Family Silver is on the cutting edge of feminist scholarship Verta Taylor coeditor of Feminist Frontiers Just as Krieger's The Mirror Dance was the first to describe the lesbian community The Family Silver is the first book to blend the personal familial relational professional and political roles of lesbians in today's society I loved reading it Esther Rothblum editor of Journal of Lesbian Studies Maps of Women's Goings and Stayings Rela Mazali, 2001 This book tells the life and travel stories of fascinating women whether in fact or as possibility and examines women's physical mobility in a culture of gendered postcolonial space that restricts their movement Straddling the divide between fiction and scholarship it combines fictional narrative contemplation theoretical thinking scholarly discussions and interviews Chaos, Wonder the Spiritual Adventure of Parenting Sarah Conover, Tracy Springberry, 2011 Rev ed previously published under title At work in life's garden Jean Rhys and the Novel As Women's Text Nancy R. Harrison, 2017-10-10 Is a woman's writing different from a man's Many scholars and readers think so even though there has been little examination of the way women's novels enact the theories that women theorists have posited In Jean Rhys and the Novel as Women's Text Nancy Harrison makes an important contribution to the exchange of ideas on the writing practice of women and to the scholarship on Jean Rhys Harrison determines what the form of a well made women's novel discloses about the conditions of women's communication and the literary production that emerges from them Devoting the first part of her book to theory and general commentary on Rhys's approach to writing she then offers perceptive readings of Voyage in the Dark an early Rhys novel and Wide Sargasso Sea Rhys's masterpiece written twenty seven years later She shows how Rhys uses the terms of a man's discourse then introduces a woman's or several women's discourse as a compelling counterpoint that in time becomes prominent and gives each novel its thematic impact In presenting a continuing dialogue with the dominant language and at the same time making explicit the place of a woman's own language Rhys gives us a paradigm for a new and basically moral text Originally published in 1988 A UNC Press Enduring Edition UNC Press Enduring Editions use the latest in digital technology to make available again books from our distinguished backlist that were previously out of print These editions are published unaltered from the original and are presented in affordable paperback formats bringing readers both historical and cultural value

Decoding the Egalitarianism of the Qur'an Abula Hasan, 2019-10-28 This volume challenges a long history of normalizing patriarchal approaches to the Qur'an and calls for a questioning of the interpretive credibility of many inherited Qur'anic commentaries The author presents a fresh reading of the sacred text and Islamic teaching traditions as the rediscovery of a lost humanitarian and gender egalitarian textual richness that has been poorly and loosely handled for centuries The book stresses the importance of reviewing the interpretive linguistic choices that jurists and exegetes over the last fourteen centuries have adopted to semantically reshape the Qur'anic text The vigilant reading the author provides of carefully chosen texts and commentaries suggests that many interpretive approaches to the Qur'an are dominated by sociopolitical factors alien to the intrinsic values of the text itself More importantly inconsistencies across putatively sound books of tafsir indicate that the Qur'anic text often suffers from historical and systematic drainage of its humanitarianism gender egalitarianism and religious pluralism

Contemporary American Women Writers Catherine Rainwater, William J. Scheick, 2021-05-11 Ann Beattie Annie Dillard Maxine Hong Kingston Toni Morrison Cynthia Ozick Grace Paley Marge Piercy Anne Redmon Anne Tyler and Alice Walker all seem to be especially concerned with narrative management The ten essays in this book raise new and intriguing questions about the ways these leading women writers appropriate and transform generic norms and ultimately revise literary tradition to make it more inclusive of female experience vision and expression The contributors to this volume discover diverse narrative strategies Beattie Dillard Paley and Redmon in divergent ways rely heavily upon narrative gaps surfaces and silences often suggesting depths which are lamentably absent from modern experience or which mysteriously elude language For Kingston and Walker verbal assertiveness is the focus of narratives depicting the gradual empowerment of female protagonists who learn to speak themselves into existence Ozick and Tyler disrupt conventional reader expectations of the anti novel and the family novel respectively Finally Morrison's and Piercy's works reveal how traditional narrative forms such as the Bildungsroman and the soap opera are adaptable to feminist purposes In examining the writings of these ten important women authors this book illuminates a significant moment in literary history when women's voices are profoundly reshaping American literary tradition

Reading Trauma Narratives Laurie Vickroy, 2015-10-30 As part of the contemporary reassessment of trauma that goes beyond Freudian psychoanalysis Laurie Vickroy theorizes trauma in the context of psychological literary and cultural criticism Focusing on novels by Margaret Atwood William Faulkner Toni Morrison Jeanette Winterson and Chuck Palahniuk she shows how these writers try to enlarge our understanding of the relationship between individual traumas and the social forces of injustice oppression and objectification Further she argues their work provides striking examples of how the devastating effects of trauma whether sexual socioeconomic or racial on individual personality can be depicted in narrative Vickroy offers a unique blend of interpretive frameworks She draws on theories of trauma and narrative to analyze the ways in which her selected texts engage readers both cognitively and ethically immersing them in and yet providing perspective on the flawed thinking and behavior of the traumatized and revealing how the psychology of fear can be a driving force for individuals as well as for society Through this engagement these writers enable readers to understand their own roles in systems of power and how they internalize the ideologies of those systems
