Historical Encyclopedia covers all the key personalities and movements throughout the history of fascism and brings to light some of the ideology's lesser known aspects from Hindu extremists in India to the influential role of certain women in fascist movements. How did an ideology which was openly boastful of its belief in violence come to seduce the elites of some of the most civilized nations on earth? What can explain fascism's enduring appeal?

Motherhood, Social Policies and Women's Activism in Latin America Alejandra Ramm, Jasmine Gideon, 2019-07-10 This book is a critical resource for understanding the relationship between gender social policy and women's activism in Latin America with specific reference to Chile. Latin America's mother-centered kinship system makes it an ideal field in which to study motherhood and maternalism, the ways in which motherhood becomes a public policy issue. As maternalism embraces and enhances gender differences, it has been criticized for deepening gender inequalities. Yet invoking motherhood continues to offer an effective strategy for advancing women's living conditions and rights and for women themselves to be present in the public sphere. In analyzing these important relationships, the contributors to this volume discuss maternal health, sexual and reproductive rights, labor programs, paid employment, women miners, unionization, housing policies, environmental suffering, and LGBTQ intimate partner violence.

Chile, the CIA and the Cold War James Lockhart, 2019-05-03 James Lockhart blends Chilean, inter-American, and transatlantic national, regional, and world historical trends into a century-long Cold War narrative. He argues that Chileans made their own history as highly engaged internationalists while reassessing American and other foreign directed intelligence surveillance and secret warfare operations in Chile and southern South America. The book transcends a well-known US-centred historiography while offering a more equitable and global interpretation of Chile's Cold War experience than previously possible. This advances research that has progressively expanded the framework of Chile's Cold War experience since the arrest of General Augusto Pinochet in the UK for human rights violations more than 20 years ago.

Twenty-First-Century Feminismos Simone Bohn, Charmain Levy, 2022-01-31 The women's movement is a central, complex, and evolving socio-political actor in any national context. Vital to advancing gender equity and gendered relations in every contemporary society, the organization and mobilization of women into social movements challenges patriarchal values, behaviours, laws, and policies through collective action and contention, radically altering the direction of society over time. Twenty-First-Century Feminismos examines ten case studies from eight different countries in Latin America and the Caribbean to better understand the ways in which women's and feminist movements react to, are shaped by, and advance social change. A closer look at women's movements in Argentina, Brazil, Chile, Colombia, El Salvador, Haiti, Mexico, and Uruguay uncovers broader recurrent patterns at the regional level, such as the persistence of certain grievances historically harboured by regional movements, the rise in prominence of varying claims, and the emergence of novel organizational structures, repertoires, and mobilization strategies. Dissimilarities among the cases are also brought to light, including the composition of these movements, their success in effecting policy change in specific areas, and the particular conditions that surround their mobilization and struggles Twenty First Century Feminism provides a compelling account of the important victories attained by Latin American and Caribbean organized women over the course of the last forty years as well as the challenges they face in their quest for gender justice

Cracking the Highest Glass Ceiling Rainbow Murray, 2010-07-01 This examination of the role of gender stereotyping in media coverage of executive elections uses nine case studies from around the world to provide a unique comparative perspective In recent years more and more high profile women candidates have been running for executive office in democracies all around the world Cracking the Highest Glass Ceiling A Global Comparison of Women's Campaigns for Executive Office is the first study to undertake an international comparison of women's campaigns for highest office and to identify the commonalities among them For example women candidates often begin as front runners as the idea of a woman president captures the public imagination followed by a decline in popularity as stereotypes and gendered media coverage kick in to erode the woman's perceived credibility as a national leader On the basis of nine international case studies of recent campaigns written by thirteen country specialists the volume develops an overarching framework which explores how gender stereotypes shape the course and outcome of women's campaigns in the male dominated worlds of executive elections in North America South America Europe Africa and Australasia This comparative approach allows the authors to discriminate between the contingent effects of a particular candidate or national culture and the universal operation of gender stereotyping Case studies include the campaigns for executive office of Hillary Rodham Clinton United States 2008 Sarah Palin United States 2008 Angela Merkel Germany 2005 and 2009 Ségol Royal France 2007 Helen Clark New Zealand 1996 2008 Cristina Fernández de Kirchner Argentina 2007 Michelle Bachelet Chile 2006 Ellen Johnson Sirleaf Liberia 2005 and Irene Sáez Venezuela 1998
