The Rise of Silas Lapham William Dean Howells, 2013-04-28 WHEN Bartley Hubbard went to interview Silas Lapham for the Solid Men of Boston series which he undertook to finish up in The Events after he replaced their original projector on that newspaper Lapham received him in his private office by previous appointment Walk right in he called out to the journalist whom he caught sight of through the door of the counting room He did not rise from the desk at which he was writing but he gave Bartley his left hand for welcome and he rolled his large head in the direction of a vacant chair Sit down I ll be with you in just half a minute Take your time said Bartley with the ease he instantly felt I m in no hurry He took a note book from his pocket laid it on his knee and began to sharpen a pencil There Lapham pounded with his great hairy fist on the envelope he had been addressing William he called out and he handed the letter to a boy who came to get it I want that to go right away Well sir he continued wheeling round in his leather cushioned swivel chair and facing Bartley seated so near that their knees almost touched so you want my life death and Christian sufferings do you young man That s what I m after said Bartley Your money or your life I guess you wouldn t want my life without the money said Lapham as if he were willing to prolong these moments of preparation Take em both Bartley suggested Don t want your money without your life if you come to that But you re just one million times more interesting to the public than if you hadn t a dollar and you know that as well as I do Mr Lapham There s no use beating about the bush No said Lapham somewhat absently He put out his huge foot and pushed the ground glass door shut between his little den and the book keepers in their larger den outside In personal appearance wrote Bartley in the sketch for which he now studied his subject while he waited patiently for him to continue Silas Lapham is a fine type of the successful American He has a square bold chin only partially concealed by the short reddish grey beard growing to the edges of his firmly closing lips His nose is short and straight his forehead good but broad rather than high his eyes blue and with a light in them that is kindly or sharp according to his mood He is of medium height and fills an average arm chair with a solid bulk which on the day of our interview was unpretentiously clad in a business suit of blue serge His head droops somewhat from a short neck which does not trouble itself to rise far from a pair of massive shoulders
