River For My Sidewalk:

River for My Sidewalk Gilean Douglas, 1953      Beyond the City Limits R.W. Sandwell, 1998-12-01 Historians have not usually identified British Columbia as a rural province B C historiography has been dominated by mining logging and fishing and theorized within the context of large scale laissez faire capitalism and economic individualism Silences in the historical record have exacerbated this situation and lent tacit support to the dominance of resource based capitalism as the shaping force in B C history The essays in Beyond the City Limits all published here for the first time decisively break this silence and challenge traditional readings of B C history In this wide ranging collection R W Sandwell draws together a distinguished group of contributors who bring expertise methodologies and theoretical perspectives taken from social and political history environmental studies cultural geography and anthropology They discuss such diverse topics as Aboriginal White settler relations on Vancouver Island pimping and violence in northern BC and the triumph of the coddling moth over Okanagan orchardists to show that a narrow emphasis on resource extraction capitalist labour relations and urban society is simply not broad enough to adequately describe those who populated the province s history By challenging the dominant urban based and overwhelmingly capitalist interpretation of the province s history the provocative essays in Beyond the City Limits expand our understanding of what rural was and what it meant in the history of British Columbia      Supreme Court, 1915      My River Home Marcus Eriksen, 2008-10-01 During the course of the war in Iraq many veterans have become increasingly disillusioned and increasingly vocal Many began seeing the war as damaging for the country and especially for the men and women fighting overseas In My River Home Marcus Eriksen a veteran of the Gulf War charts his personal shift from proud Marine to self destructive veteran to engaged activist protesting the injustices of the Iraq War with Veterans for Peace Eriksen made sense of this transition only after a fascinating adventure traveling through the heart of America down the entire length of the great Mississippi River on a homemade raft      Tales of the Klamath River Anne Wilson Schaef, 2018-11-08 It was 1939 when a family ventured from their safe nest in Oklahoma Indian Country to Indian Country in California to gold mine and live like their ancestors During this time of interlude between the First and Second World Wars many still lived in the old ways Few white people and Californians knew about the Indian Country In a rich story told through the eyes of a five year old her father and with perceptions from an eighty three year old living in today s world Anne Wilson Schaef travels back in time to share details from a compelling adventure as her family uprooted from all they knew and attempted gold mining on the Klamath River in California While offering a fascinating look into their journey and experiences beyond Schaef shines a light on the sojourn among the native people as well as a broad conglomeration of others who played an important part not only in their own experiences but also in history itself Through it all Schaef illustrates that it is possible to live well in harmony and balance and within a daily flow of sharing Tales of the Klamath River shares the true tale of one family s adventure to California Gold Mining country during the late 1930s      *St. Clair River, Mich.
