Road To Nab End:

The Road To Nab End William Woodruff, 2012-09-20 William Woodruff had the sort of childhood satirised in the famous Monty Python Yorkshireman sketch The son of a weaver he was born on a pallet of straw at the back of the mill and two days later his mother was back at work Life was extremely tough for the family in 1920 s Blackburn a treat was sheep s head or cow heel soup and got worse when his father lost his job when the cotton industry started its terminal decline Woodruff had to find his childhood fun in the little free time he had available between his delivery job and school but he never writes self pityingly leaving the reader to shed the tears on his behalf At ten his mother takes him on his one and only holiday to Blackpool He never wonders where they get the money to do so only where she disappears to with strange men in the afternoons before taking him to the funfair pockets jingling an hour or two later NAB END is certainly not all grime and gloom however there s a cast of great minor characters from an unfrocked vicar to William s indomitable grandmother Bridget who lend some colour and humour and all against the strongly rendered social backdrop of the 1920s and 1930s

The Road to Nab End William Woodruff, 2002-03 The Road to Nab End William Woodruff, 2000 The Road to Nab End is a marvelously evocative account of growing up poor in a British mill town From William Woodruff s birth in 1916 until he ran away to London at the age of sixteen he lived in the heart of Blackburn s weaving community in the north of England where the crash of 1920 left his family in extreme poverty Billy Boy William Woodruff, 1993 Road to Nab End W. WOODRUFF, 2003 Beyond Nab End William Woodruff, 2008-09-04 The second volume of Woodruff s memoirs starts with his arrival in the East End of London in the early 1930s He finds lodgings with a Cockney family in Stratford where he shares a single bed head to toe with a stonebreaker He thinks himself lucky to get a job at an iron foundry until he faces the gruelling back breaking work But William is indomitable To find his old sweetheart he one day cycles to Berkhamstead She s not there and he returns in a snowstorm it takes him eight hours to reach friends in the west of London and then after three hours sleep another four to get to work on time Eventually he joins a night school to get some learnin his first white collar job starts for the water board in S Brettenham House His studies finally take him to the Catholic Workers College which is now Plater College Oxford How the foundry worker became a scholar how war interrupted his studies and William s concluding description of returning from war to meet the son he s never seen is a deeply moving story Nab End and Beyond William Woodruff, 2003 The Road to Nab End William Woodruff, 2002 Beyond Nab End William Woodruff, 2003-01 Nab End and Beyond William Woodruff, 2003 This omnibus edition comprises William Woodruff s two volumes of autobiography The Road to Nab End and Beyond Nab End Born on a pallet of straw at the back of the mill William faced a tough life in 1920s Blackburn At 16 he left the poverty of Blackburn for London where he found no streets paved with gold but instead filthy tenements and squalor He eventually makes it to Plater College in Oxford and witnesses the courage of ordinary people in the face of war a war in which he himself will soon be fighting Road to Nab End William Woodruff, 2003 From his birth in 1916 until he ran away to London William Woodruff lived in the heart of Blackburn's weaving community But after Lancashire's supremacy in cotton textiles ended with the crash of 1920 his father was thrown out of work From then on including the period of the Great Depression Woodruff and his family faced a life blighted by extreme poverty Reading this book today it is hard to comprehend that within living memory and in what was then the richest country in the world so many people couldn't afford to buy enough food For the ordinary families of Lancashire unemployment was an ever present fear If you worked you ate If there was not work you went hungry List of Mines in Great Britain and the Isle of Man ,1900

other parts of Britain and overseas Cecil Sharp Ralph Vaughan Williams Percy Grainger and a number of other enthusiasts gathered a huge harvest of songs and tunes which we can study and enjoy at our leisure But after over a century of collection and discussion publication and performance there are still many things we don't know about traditional song Where did the songs come from Who sang them where when and why What part did singing play in the lives of the communities in which the songs thrived More importantly have the pioneer collectors restricted definitions and narrow focus hindered or helped our understanding This is the first book for many years to investigate the wider social history of traditional song in England and draws on a wide range of sources to answer these questions and many more
