The Armenian Woman, Minoritarian Agency, and the Making of Iranian Modernity, 1860-1979 Talinn Grigor, Houri Berberian, 2025-03-04

With this book Houri Berberian and Talinn Grigor offer the first history of Armenian women in modern Iran Foregrounding the work of Armenian women s organizations the authors trace minoritarian politics and the shifting relationships among doubly minoritized Armenian female subjects Iran s central nodes of power and the Irano Armenian patriarchal institutions of church and political parties

Engaging broader considerations around modernization nationalism and feminism this book makes a conceptually rich contribution to how we think about the history of women and minoritized peoples Berberian and Grigor read archival textual visual and oral history sources together and against one another to challenge conventional notions of the archive and transform silences and absences into audible and visual presences

Understanding minoritarian politics as formulated by women through their various forms of public and intellectual activisms this book provides a groundbreaking intervention in Iran s history of modernization Armenian diasporic history and Iranian and Armenian feminist historiography
