often shocking images of the realities of war served to bring home the true horrors of combat while conveying the intense humanity of their creator. Capa hated war but he was drawn to it. From his earliest pictures of the Republican forces in the Spanish Civil War to the Japanese invasion of China from his work as a war correspondent for Life and Collier covering American conflicts in North Africa and Europe during the second World War to the emergence of the Israeli homeland, Capa portrayed the incredible heroism and suffering of the soldiers on the front lines and in the war-torn lives of civilians. Although his career was cut short when he was tragically killed by a land mine in Thai Binh, Indochina, Capa remains one of the most celebrated, imitated, and revered photographers of all time. The more than 100 photos presented in this volume span the entire spectrum of Capa's varied career, including his most legendary Hollywood photos and rare images of post-war Germany.

Photographs Robert Capa, 1985 Robert Capa Richard Whelan, 2001-10-10 This is the first book to reproduce the definitive set of 937 rarely seen and classic images by Robert Capa, 1913-54, one of the most influential documentary photographers of the twentieth century. Capa, a founding member of Magnum photographic agency, had the mind of a passionate and committed journalist and the eye of an artist. His lifework, consisting of more than 70,000 negatives, constitutes an unparalleled documentation of a crucial 22-year period, 1932-54, encompassing some of the most catastrophic and dramatic events of the last century. This book represents the most definitive selection of Capa's work ever published: 937 photographs meticulously selected by his brother Cornell Capa himself, a noted life photographer, and his biographer Richard Whelan. The photographs, arranged in chronological order as stories and accompanied by brief commentaries, reveal the dramatic shifts in location and subject matter that Capa experienced from day to day, from war-torn Israel to Pablo Picasso on a sunny beach in France and from Ernest Hemingway carousing in London to Capa's historic images of the Allied landing on Omaha Beach in Normandy in 1944.

Robert Capa Robert Capa, Richard Whelan, Anna Fárová, 2004 Robert Capa Livia Páldi, 2013-03-01 Robert Capa, born Endre Erno Friedmann, was a Hungarian photographer and photojournalist considered the greatest war photographer of all time. He covered five different wars, including the Spanish Civil War, the Second Sino-Japanese War, and World War II across Europe. The poignant pictures of the D-Day landing in Normandy were later to inspire film director Steven Spielberg. The 1948 Arab-Israeli War and the First Indochina War, providing prominent magazines and agencies such as Life with visual material. The presented volume is unique because not only does it offer a comprehensive overview of Capa's oeuvre, but it also enables the reader to have a visual experience of important events in the history of the 20th century through high-quality images. In addition to war documentation, his photos also show Capa as a portraitist through pictures of Gary Cooper, Ingrid Bergman, Alfred Hitchcock, John Steinbeck, Pablo Picasso, and others.
