Robert Musil's The Man Without Qualities A Critical Study:

The Critical Response to Musil's *The Man Without Qualities Timothy J. Mehigan, 2003 Table of contents      Robert Musil's 'The Man Without Qualities' Philip Payne, 1988-08-26 This is the first comprehensive study of The Man Without Qualities guides the reader towards Musil's central concerns      The World as Metaphor in Robert Musil's The Man Without Qualities Genese Grill, 2012 The first study to utilize the Klagenfurt Edition of Musil's Nachlass offers a close reading of textual variations emphasizing Musil's commitment to the artist's role in re-creating the world Robert Musil known to be a scientific and philosophical thinker was committed to aesthetics as a process of experimental creation of an ever-shifting reality Musil wanted above all to be a creative writer and obsessively engaged in almost endless deferral via variations and metaphoric possibilities in his novel project The Man without Qualities This lifelong process of writing is embodied in the unfinished novel by a recurring metaphor of self-generating de-centered circle worlds The present study analyzes this structure with reference to Musil's concepts of the utopia of the Other Condition Living and Dead Words Specific and Non-Specific Emotions Word Magic and the Still Life In contrast to most recent studies of Musil it concludes that the extratemporal metaphoric experience of the Other Condition does not fail but rather constitutes the formal and ethical core of Musil's novel The first study to utilize the newly published Klagenfurt Edition of Musil's literary remains a searchable annotated text The World as Metaphor offers a close reading of variations and text genesis shedding light not only on Musil's novel but also on larger questions about the modernist artist's role and responsibility in consciously re-creating the world Genese Grill holds a PhD in Germanic Literatures and Languages from the Graduate School and University Center of the City University of New York      A Companion to the Works of Robert Musil Philip Payne, Graham Bartram, Galin Tihanov, 2007 The analyses in this title are embedded in an appreciation of the intellectual contexts of Musil's writing yielding fresh insights into his artistic accomplishment and his place in the Austrian and German traditions of the 20th century      The Palgrave Encyclopedia of Urban Literary Studies Jeremy Tambling, 2022-10-29 This encyclopaedia will be an indispensable resource and recourse for all who are thinking about cities and the urban and the relation of cities to literature and to ways of writing about cities Covering a vast terrain this work will include entries on theorists individual writers individual cities countries cities in relation to the arts film and music urban space pre-early and modern cities concepts and movements and definitions amongst others Written by an international team of contributors this will be the first resource of its kind to pull together such a comprehensive overview of the field      Understanding Robert Musil Allen Thiher, 2009 Deft analysis of the fiction theater and essays of the author of The Man without Qualities In this critical introduction to the major works of Austrian modernist writer Robert Musil 1880-1942 Allen Thiher offers deft analysis of Musil's short fiction theater and essays and his major novel The Man without Qualities Thiher maps Musil's development as a writer illustrating how his work evolved in response to catastrophic historical events such as World War I the collapse of the Austro-Hungarian Empire and Hitler's seizure of power From this historical context Thiher traces how Musil began his career by writing a prescient first novel about ideological developments in German culture and at the same time a doctoral thesis on scientific epistemology Following his service in World War I Musil began to view writing as his vocation and during this early period in his literary career he produced short fiction plays and some of the most interesting essays on politics ethics and literature to be published during the Weimar era In exploring these writings as well as The Man without Qualities a work left unfinished upon Musil's death in exile during World War II Thiher's study plumbs the depths of Musil's ambition and accomplishments and presents a concise interpretation of the lasting significance of the writer's interrogations of the foundations of modern European culture

The Confusions of Young Törless Robert Musil, 2014 Set in a boarding school in a remote area of the Habsburg Empire at the turn of the last century The Confusions of Young Torless is an intense study of an adolescent's psychological development as he struggles to come to terms with his conflicting emotions Through his relationship with two other boys Torless is led into sadistic and sexual encounters with a third pupil which both repel and fascinate him Estranged from everyday life Torless gradually learns to accept his experiences and describe them with analytical precision German Romantic Literary Theory Ernst Behler, 1993-04-22 Professor Behler provides a view of the literary work and the artistic process developed in the German Romantic period Friedrich Schiller Lesley Sharpe, 1991-06-13 Lesley Sharpe assesses Schiller's development as a dramatist poet and thinker against the background of his life Stefan Heym Peter Hutchinson, 1992-07-09 Stefan Heym's uncompromising stance made him unpopular with a succession of political regimes The Nazis the CIA and the East German secret police all held files on him He was Hitler's youngest literary exile McCarthyism was to drive him from the USA and even in what appeared his natural home the first socialist state on German soil he was to become the country's leading dissident By continuing to compose in both English and German however he maintained an international reputation and has been translated into over twenty languages This study traces Heym's career principally by reference to his novels journalism and political essays from his earliest works All his novels are analysed the major ones in depth and English translations of all German quotations are provided Peter Hutchinson focuses particularly on Heym's battles against Stalinism and censorship and the way in which his courageous defiance of a repressive regime inspired others and paved the way for the new eastern literature of the eighties Encyclopedia of the Novel Paul Schellinger, 2014-04-08 The Encyclopedia of the Novel is the first reference book that focuses on the development of the novel throughout the world Entries on individual writers assess the place of that writer within the development of the novel form explaining why and in exactly what ways that writer is important Similarly an entry on an individual novel discusses the importance of that novel not only from analyzing the particular innovations that novel has introduced and the ways in which it has influenced the subsequent course of the genre A wide range of topic entries explore the history criticism theory production dissemination and reception of the novel A very important component of the Encyclopedia of the Novel is its long surveys of development of the novel in various regions of the world      Accident Ross Hamilton, 2010-10 An accidental glance at a newspaper notice causes Rousseau to collapse under the force of a vision A car accidentally hits Giacometti and he experiences an epiphany Darwin introduces accident to the basic process of life and Freud looks to accident as the expression of unconscious desire Accident Ross Hamilton claims is the force that mak      Essayism Thomas J. Harrison, 1992

The Cambridge Companion to the Modern German Novel Graham Bartram, 2004-04-05 The Cambridge Companion to the Modern German Novel first published in 2004 provides a broad ranging introduction to the major trends in the development of the German novel from the 1890s to the present Written by an international team of experts it encompasses both modernist and realist traditions and also includes a look back to the roots of the modern novel in the Bildungsroman of the late eighteenth and nineteenth centuries The structure is broadly chronological but thematically focused chapters examine topics such as gender anxiety images of the city war and women's writing within each chapter key works are selected for close attention Unique in its combination of breadth of coverage and detailed analysis of individual works and featuring a chronology and guides to further reading this Companion will be indispensable to students and teachers

Twilight of the Habsburgs Alan Palmer, 1997-02-12 Presents a biography of the emperor of Austria as well as a history of Europe during his reign      How to Do Things with Affects , 2019-04-09 How to Do Things with Affects develops affect as a highly productive concept for both cultural analysis and the reading of aesthetic forms Shifting the focus from individual experiences and the human interiority of personal emotions and feelings toward the agency of cultural objects social arrangements and aesthetic matter the book examines how affects operate and are triggered by aesthetic forms media events and cultural practices Transgressing disciplinary boundaries and emphasizing close reading the collected essays explore manifold affective transmissions and resonances enacted by modernist literary works contemporary visual arts horror and documentary films museum displays and animated pornography with a special focus on how they impact on political events media strategies and social situations Contributors Ernst van Alphen Mieke Bal Maria Boletsis Eugenie Brinkema Pietro Conte Anne Fleig Bernd Herzogenrath Tom Jirsa Matthias L thjohann Susanna Paasonen Christina Riley Jan Slaby Eliza Steinbock Christiane Voss      Psyche and Text Henry Sussman, 1993-01-01 Sussman here explores the relevance and value of object relations theory to literature and literary studies His study of character treats literature as a medium in which important relationships to conceptualized others artifacts mentors activities and schools of thought are being worked through Although rooted in the psychoanalytical model this book is ultimately a study of character and of the conditions of subjectivity and intellectual work in the contemporary world No background in literature or psychoanalysis is necessary for its understanding and productive use Beginning his study of character with Sophocles The Antigone and Shakespeare's Othello Sussman then goes on to locate the underpinnings of twentieth century notions of the grandiose and of subjective emptiness in the Romantic exploration of the sublime Discussions of characterization in Kafka Joyce and Beckett lead to an extended reading of Musil's A Man Without Qualities To show the increasing awareness of narcissistic psychopathology in contemporary popular culture Sussman also includes readings of Citizen Kane and The Silence of the Lambs In the Shadow of Empire Malcolm Spencer, 2008 Spencer then considers Roth's more negative reaction showing the post imperial novel Radetzky March to be a nostalgic response to the collapse of Habsburg Austria and the rise of fascism The final chapter looks again at the end of empire not in the work of writers who lived through it but through that of one who experienced it as a historical and cultural legacy Ingeborg Bachmann BOOK JACKET Reference Guide to World Literature Lesley Henderson, Sarah M. Hall, 1995 Overviews of writers and works from the ancient Greeks through the 20th century written by subject experts Each author entry provides a detailed overview of the writer's life and works Work entries cover a particular piece of world literature in detail Monstrous Liminality Robert G. Beghetto, 2022-01-24 This book examines the transformation of the figure of the stranger in the literature of the modern age in terms of liminality As a spectral monster that has a paradoxical and liminal relationship to both the sacred and the secular the figure of the modern stranger has played a role in both adapting and shaping a culturally determined understanding of the self and the other With the advent of modernity the stranger the monster and the spectre became interconnected Haunting the edges of reason while also being absorbed into normal society all three together with the cyborg manifest the vulnerability of an age that is fearful of the return of the repressed Yet these figures can also become reappropriated as positive symbols able to navigate between the dangerous and chaotic elements that threaten society while serving as precarious and ironic symbols of hope or sustainability The book shows the explanatory potential of focusing on the resacralizing in a paradoxical and liminal manner of traditionally sacred concepts such as messianic time and the utopian and the conflicts that emerged as a result of secularized modernity's denial of its own hybridization This approach to modern literature shows how the modern stranger a figure that is both paradoxically immersed and removed from society deals with the dangers of failing to be re-assimilated into mainstream society and is caught in a fixed or permanent state of liminality a state that can ultimately lead to boredom alienation nihilism and failure These monstrous aspects of liminality can also be rewarding in that traversing difficult and paradoxical avenues they confront both traditional and contemporary viewpoints enabling new and fresh perspectives suspended between imagination and reality past and future nature and artificial In many ways the modern stranger as a figure of literature and the cultural imagination has become more complicated and challenging in the post modern contemporary age both clashing with and encompassing people who go beyond simply the psychological or even spiritual inability to blend in and out of society However while the stranger may be altering once again the defining or essentializing the figure could result in the creation of other sets of binaries and thereby dissolve the purpose and productiveness of both strangeness and liminality The intention of Monstrous Liminality is to trace the liminal sphere located between the secular and sacred that has characterized modernity itself This space has consequently altered the makeup of the stranger from something external into a figure far more liminal which is forced to traverse this uncanny space in an attempt to find new meanings for an age that is struggling to maintain any
