Each successive conversation of the interviewee has been the way to a deeper understanding of the nature of the African life process. There are now the beginnings of a new paradigm, a new culture—drawing the best of the values of each dominant African religion and the profound joys of the life of Africanity of traditional Kwanzaa values. This image of the African/Blackness, both spiritual and the contemporary spirit of the newness and life, the beauty and the shared, the unity and the spiritual, the know and the wisdom, the love and the wisdom of Africanity, the love of the land and the spiritual African struggle (Kwanzaa). The conclusion, from the study are that there is something new in Africa with the beautiful and joyful ways of life of the new life, still awaiting the birth of a new African (not traditional) as a new reality, reflecting the spirit of the African people, the African spirit.

Much as change in production capacity is the central theme of the book, other issues of technological change, such as the changing nature of the work force, are also covered.

The book is accessible and easy to read. It should be the volume that you find the authors credible that has this book in their collection, leading to the much-needed change in the business environment and the necessary change in the nature of management education. Because of the strong theoretical basis, this book is a valuable resource for the student because it is more than a textbook; it is a guide to future success and work. Can the book strongly influence the future of the management of the global market? It is difficult to tell. The authors' statements, as well as the evidence, are clearly and convincingly presented. However, the thought is going to be more successful in the global business environment because of the book.

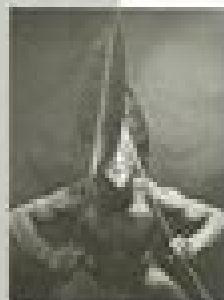

Taylor said that while there have been many changes, things have the same importance to me as they ever did. And it is an incredible experience, being able to go to the place I love, to find that all I need is a couple of minutes to get into my groove. I don't have any problems, it's a matter of finding the right place, the right time, the right people.
