The Warrior and the Pacifist Lester R. Kurtz, 2018-05-23 This book looks at two contradictory ethical motifs the warrior and the pacifist across four major faith traditions Buddhism Judaism Christianity and Islam and their role in shaping our understanding of violence and the morality of its use The Warrior and the Pacifist explores how these faith traditions which now mutually inhabit our life spaces bring with them across the millennia the moral teachings that have traveled from prehistoric humanity embedded in the beliefs rituals and institutions socially constructed by humans to deal with ultimate concerns core aspects of daily personal and social life and life transitions

The Israeli Peace Movement

Tamar S. Hermann, 2009-09-14 This book discusses the predicament of the Israeli peace movement which paradoxically following the launching of the Oslo peace process between Israel and the Palestinians in 1993 experienced a prolonged fatal decline in membership activity political significance and media visibility After presenting the regional and national background to the launching of the peace process and a short history of Israeli peace activism the book focuses on external and internal processes and interactions experienced by the peace movement after some basic postulates of its agenda were actually although never explicitly embraced by the Rabin government The book concludes that despite its organizational decline and the zero credit given to it by the policy makers in retrospect it appears that the movement contributed significantly to the integration of new ideas for possible solutions to the Middle East conflict in the Israeli mainstream political discourse The Geneva Preliminary Meeting of the Universal Religious Peace Conference, September, 1928, 1928

Zionist Israel and Apartheid South Africa Amneh Badran, 2009-09-10 This book is a comparison of two ethnic national apartheid states South Africa and Israel which have been in conflict and how internal dissent has developed In particular it examines the evolution of effective white protest in South Africa and explores the reasons why comparably powerful movements have not emerged in Israel The book reveals patterns of behaviour shared by groups in both cases It argues that although the role played by protest groups in peace building may be limited a tipping point or magic point can become as significant as other major factors It highlights the role played by intermediate variables that affect the pathways of protest groups such as changes in the international system the visions and strategies of resistance movements and their degree of success the economic relationship between the dominant and dominated side and the legitimacy of the ideology in power apartheid or Zionism Although the politics and roles of protest groups in both cases share some similarities differences remain Whilst white protest groups moved towards an inclusive peace agenda that adopts the ANC vision of a united non racial democratic South Africa the Jewish Israeli protest groups are still by majority entrenched in their support for an exclusive Jewish state And as such they support separation between the two peoples and a limited division of mandatory Palestine Eretz Israel This timely book sheds light on a controversial and explosive political issue Israel being compared to apartheid South Africa Handbook of Conflict Analysis and Resolution Dennis J.D. Sandole, Sean Byrne, Ingrid Sandole-Staroste, Jessica Senehi, 2008-07-31 This major Handbook is a collection of work from leading scholars in the Conflict Analysis and Resolution CAR field The central theme is the value of interdisciplinary approaches to the analysis and resolution of conflicts Theological Anthropology in the Anthropocene Jan-Olav Henriksen, 2022-12-14 The Anthropocene presents theology and especially theological anthropology with unprecedented challenges There are no immediately available resources in the theological tradition that reflect directly on such experiences Accordingly the situation calls for contextually based theological reflection of what it means to be human under such circumstances This book discusses the main elements in theological anthropology in light of the fundamental points a that theological anthropology needs to be articulated with reference to and informed by the concrete historical circumstances in which humanity presently finds itself and b that the notion of the Anthropocene can be used as a heuristic tool to describe important traits and conditions that call for a response by humanity and which entail the need for a renewal of what a Christian self understanding means Jan Olav Henriksen explores what such a response entails from the point of view of contemporary theological anthropology and discusses selected topics that can contribute to a contextually based position Library Media Connection ,1992 The Trinity, Creation and Pastoral Ministry Graham Buxton, 2007-01-01 In this book the author proposes a three way conversation between theology science and pastoral ministry His approach draws on a Trinitarian understanding of God as a relational being of love whose life spills over into all created reality human and nonhuman By locating human meaning and purpose within God s creation community this book offers the possibility of a transforming engagement between those in pastoral ministry and the scientific community New SCM Dictionary of Christian Spirituality Philip Sheldrake, 2013-05-20 This dictionary attempts to give direct access to the development of Christian Spirituality It is a series of pieces written by experts to provide instant accurate and thought provoking information of high scholarship Just Peace Fernando Enns, Annette Mosher, 2013-09-17 Christian theology and ethics have wrestled with the challenge to apply Jesus s central message of nonviolence to the injustices of this world Is it not right to defend the persecuted by using violence Is it unjust if the oppressed defend themselves if necessary by the use of violence in order to liberate themselves and to create a more just society Can we leave the doctrine of the just war behind and shift all our attention toward the way of a just peace In 2011 the World Council of Churches brought to a close the Decade to Overcome Violence to which the churches committed themselves at the beginning of the century Just peace has evolved as the new ecumenical paradigm for contemporary Christian ethics Just peace signals a realistic vision of holistic peace with justice which in the concept of shalom is central in the Hebrew Bible as well as in the gospel message of the New Testament This paradigm needs further elaboration VU University gathered peacebuilding practitioners and experts from different parts of the world Africa Latin America North America Asia and Europe and from different disciplines anthropology psychology social sciences law and theology voices from across generations and Christian traditions to promote discussion about the different dimensions of building peace with justice Forgiveness & Reconciliation Raymond G. Helmick, Rodney

Petersen, 2018-01-24 This book brings together a unique combination of experts in conflict resolution and focuses on the role forgiveness can play in the process It deals with theology public policy psychological and social theory and social policy implementation of forgiveness This book is essential for libraries scholars conflict negotiators and all people who hope to understand the role of forgiveness in the peace process The book's first section explores how ideas like forgiveness and reconciliation are moving out from the seminary and academy into the world of public policy and how these terms have been used and defined in the past The second section looks at forgiveness and public policy One of the chapters by Donald W Shriver Jr addresses forgiveness in a secular political forum The third section of the book draws us to a more thorough analysis of the relationship between forgiveness and reconciliation from voices in the academic and theological community and the final section highlights the work of practitioners currently working with religion public policy and conflict transformation particularly in areas such as Ireland and Africa Contributors include Desmond M Tutu Rodney L Petersen Miroslav Volf Stanley S Harakas Raymond G Helmick SJ Joseph V Montville Douglas M Johnston Donna Hicks Donald W Shriver Jr Everett L Worthington Jr John Paul Lederach Ervin Staub Laurie Anne Pearlman John Dawson Audrey R Chapman Olga Botcharova Anthony da Silva SJ Geraldine Smythe OP Andrea Bartoli Ofelia Ortega and George F R Ellis A Cognitive Semantic Study of Biblical Hebrew Andrew Chin Hei Leong, 2021-09-13 Semantic studies of the Biblical Hebrew verb have been influenced by those of its most invoked nominal form In this volume Andrew Chin Hei Leong shows that the concepts of balance alliance and completeness form the basic semantic structure of Previous studies on employed either historical or textual methodology which has been dominant in biblical lexical studies In addition to these methods in Leong develops a systematic semantic methodology from Cognitive Semantics and Frame Semantics to demonstrate that it is balance rather than completeness that is the most central concept in holding the semantic network together Print Martha T.

Religion in Peace and Conflict Studies provides a critical analysis of faith and religious institutions in peacebuilding practice and pedagogy. The work captures the synergistic relationships among faith traditions and how multiple approaches to conflict transformation and peacebuilding result in a creative process that has the potential to achieve a more detailed view of peace on earth containing breadth as well as depth. Library and bookstore shelves are filled with critiques of the negative impacts of religion in conflict scenarios. Peace on Earth: The Role of Religion in Peace and Conflict Studies offers an alternate view that suggests religious organizations play a more complex role in conflict than a simply negative one. Faith based organizations and their workers are often found on the frontlines of conflict throughout the world conducting conflict management and resolution activities as well as advancing peacebuilding initiatives.

Historical Dictionary of Ecumenical Christianity Ans Joachim van der Bent, 1994-12-01. This historical dictionary covers the major trends in the 20th century ecumenical movement until today. It deals with developments in the realms of church unity, mission and evangelism, laity, women in church and society and many other ecumenical subjects. It also covers many programs and activities of the World Council of Churches since its inception in 1948. The longer articles survey important theological themes while short articles provide quick reference on a precise question. The bibliography is not exhaustive; some 50 000 titles have been published since the beginning of this century but very helpful for major bibliographical information. The dictionary is particularly strong in American subjects and includes a great number of ecumenical personalities which cannot be found in other reference works. This publication is not only an indispensable tool of research for university and seminary libraries but also for individual persons belonging to whatever Christian church who are interested in knowing more about reflections, relations and activities in the several regions of the ecumenical world. A helpful description of the most important ecumenical assemblies and conferences is provided. To take stock of the past to interpret the present and to look forward into the third millennium of Christian existence are exciting and challenging enterprises.

Pathways for Theology in Peacebuilding Sara Gehlin, 2020-06-02. The ambivalent role of religions in contemporary conflicts has generated an increasing call for faith based peacebuilding endeavours. In Pathways for Theology in Peacebuilding: Ecumenical Approaches to Just Peace Sara Gehlin discusses the ways theology can provide essential resources for such peacebuilding pursuits. The pathways for theology in peacebuilding are investigated with regard to a recent faith based peace endeavour namely the creation of an international ecumenical declaration on just peace. In the book Gehlin explores the meaning of a just peace from the perspectives of theological ethics, biblical interpretation, spirituality and ecumenical vision. On the basis of this exploration the book maps out theological resources for peace in our time.

Peace Formation and Political Order in Conflict Affected Societies Oliver P. Richmond, 2016-02-23. International actors including key states like the US and organizations such as the UN, EU, African Union and World Bank and a range of NGOs have long been confronted with the question of how to achieve an emancipatory form of peace. This book argues that locally negotiated peace agreements offer important navigation points for policymakers and also provide the crucial and so far often missing legitimacy for wider peacebuilding and statebuilding
