Sharing The Eucharist A Theological Evaluation Of The Post Conciliar Legislation:

Sharing the Eucharist Myriam Wijlens, 2000-01-19 Ecclesiastical changes resulting from the Second Vatican Council inspired a revised approach to the issue of sharing the Eucharist with those who are not in full communion with the Catholic Church In Sharing the Eucharist Myriam Wijlens offers a detailed analysis of the Council's schemata interventions and texts in an effort to determine the theological values that inspired subsequent policies on the issue of communion Wijlens bases her work on the notion that there ought to be an organic relationship between theological insights and the norms that govern the life of the Catholic community Her rigorous approach allows her to identify areas where there is already organic unity between the insights of Vatican II and Church legislation In the process she also reveals several matters where additional work is needed and offers suggestions for the continued implementation of the Council's vision and intent An unprecedented work that makes a genuine contribution to the ecumenical movement Sharing the Eucharist has great significance for religious scholars and clergy who are concerned with the unity of Christian churches Text also includes a foreword by Johannes Cardinal Willebrands the former President of the Secretariat for Christian Unity of the Vatican T&T Clark Handbook of Sacraments and Sacramentality Martha Moore-Keish, James Farwell, 2022-12-29 Introducing readers to the contemporary field of sacramental theology this volume covers the biblical and historical foundations a survey of the state of the discipline and a collection of constructive essays representing major themes practices and approaches to sacraments and sacramentality in the contemporary world The volume starts with a set of foundational essays that offer broad introduction to the field of sacramental theology from contemporary scholars analysing a number of historical figures in order to illumine and inform contemporary sacramental theology The second part of the volume is dedicated to a series of essays on sacramentality and includes attention to elements of space time ritual action music and word all as aspects of what Christians have termed sacramental reality The third set of essays includes attention to each of the seven practices that have most commonly been termed sacraments in Christian traditions baptism eucharist Lord's Supper confirmation confession forgiveness and reconciliation marriage ordination and anointing The final part of this volume features scholars who are working on sacraments in conversation with contemporary academic disciplines critical race theory queer theory comparative theology and disability studies Church Laws and Ecumenism Norman Doe, 2020-09-27 Written by experts from within their communities this book compares the legal regimes of Christian churches as systems of religious law The ecumenical movement with its historical theological focus has failed to date to address the role of church law in shaping relations between churches and fostering greater mutual understanding between them In turn theologians and jurists from the different traditions have not hitherto worked together on a fully ecumenical appreciation of the potential value of church laws to help and sometimes to hinder the achievement of greater Christian unity This book seeks to correct this ecumenical church law deficit It takes account of the recent formulation by an ecumenical panel of a Statement of Principles of Christian

Law which has been welcomed by Pope Francis and the Ecumenical Patriarch of Constantinople leader of the Orthodox Church worldwide as recognizing the importance of canon law for ecumenical dialogue This book therefore not only provides the fruits of an understanding of church laws within ten Christian traditions but also critically evaluates the Statement against the laws of these individual ecclesial communities The book will be an essential resource for scholars of law and religion theology and sociology It will also be of interest to those working in religious institutions and policy makers

Eucharist and Receptive Ecumenism Kimberly Hope Belcher, 2020-10-15 All doctrinal development and debate occurs against the background of Christian practice and worship By attending to what Christians have done in the eucharist Kimberly Belcher provides a new perspective on the history of eucharistic doctrine and Christian divisions today Stepping back from the metaphysical approaches that divide the churches she focuses on a phenomenological approach to the eucharist and a retrieval of forgotten elements in Ambrose's and Augustine's work The core of the eucharist is the act of giving thanks to the Father for the covenant and for the world This unitive core allows for significant diversity on questions about presence sacrifice ecclesiology and ministry Belcher shows that the key is humility about what we know and what we do not which gives us a willingness to receive differences in Christian teachings as gifts that will allow us to move forward in a new way

Communion with Non-Catholic Christians Jeffrey Thomas VanderWilt, 2003 How should a Catholic pastor respond to non Catholics who wish to have Communion without conveying harshness scrupulosity legalism or rudeness Intended to help Christians recognize the present provisional norms and to seek new possibilities in eucharistic sharing Communion with Non Catholic Christians examines the risks challenges and opportunities involved in the admission of Communion to non Catholic Christians

Practical Theology and the Interpretation of Crossing Boundaries Bert Roebben, 2003 In October 2002 the Tilburg Professor of Practical Theology Tjeu van Knippenberg retired In order to honour him as a bright scholar in the field of fundamental practical theology and pastoral care 23 of his colleagues at Tilburg University and elsewhere Nijmegen and Leuven contributed to this festschrift Their attention is focused on the concept of boundaries in practical theology between context and Christian tradition church and society personal identity and Christian narrative individual and community Different research projects out of the Tilburg tradition of practical theology are presented from an empirical hermeneutical perspective

Sharing the Eucharist Myriam Wijlens, 2000-01-19 Ecclesiastical changes resulting from the Second Vatican Council inspired a revised approach to the issue of sharing the Eucharist with those who are not in full communion with the Catholic Church In Sharing the Eucharist Myriam Wijlen offers a detailed analysis of the Council's schemata interventions and texts in an effort to determine the theological values that inspired subsequent policies on the issue of communion Wijlen bases her work on the notion that there ought to be an organic relationship between theological insights and the norms that govern the life of the Catholic community Her rigorous approach allows her to identify areas where there is already organic unity between the insights of Vatican II and Church legislation In the process she also reveals several matters where additional work is needed and offers suggestions for the continued implementation of the Council's vision and intent An unprecedented work that makes a genuine contribution to the ecumenical movement Sharing the Eucharist has great significance for religious scholars and clergy who are concerned with the unity of Christian churches Text also includes a foreword by Johannes Cardinal Willebrands the former President of the Secretariat for Christian Unity of the Vatican

Mapping the Differentiated Consensus of the Joint Declaration Jakob Karl Rinderknecht, 2016-10-12 This book uses the insights of cognitive linguistics to argue for the possibility of differentiated consensus between separated churches The Joint Declaration on the Doctrine of Justification signed by the Lutheran World Federation and the Roman Catholic Church in 1999 represents the high water mark of the twentieth century ecumenical movement It declares that the sixteenth century condemnations related to justification do not condemn the teachings of the partner church Some critics reject the agreement arguing that a consensus that is differentiated is not actually a consensus In this book Jakob Karl Rinderknecht shows that mapping the cognitive blends that structure meaning can reveal underlying agreement within apparent theological contradictions He traces Lutheran and Catholic positions on sin in the baptized especially the Lutheran simul iustus et peccator and the Catholic insistence that concupiscence in the baptized is not sin He demonstrates that the JDDJ reconciles these positions and therefore that a truly differentiated consensus is possible

Towards a New Catholic Church in Advanced Modernity Staf Hellemans, Jozef Wissink, 2012 A new Catholic Church is emerging in the West one that is very different from the Church before 1960 This book describes the new Church in the making its new position in society its new structuring and workings and its new frame of mind The book also looks in a prospective way at some basic issues the Church has to deal with such as imagining the Church in advanced modernity attracting both youth and adults rebuilding local communities refashioning liturgy and rethinking pastoral guidance The book is the result of an interdisciplinary endeavor by philosophers sociologists and theologians Series Tilburg Theological Studies Tilburger Theologische Studien Vol 5

Systematic Theology Thomas P. Rausch, 2016-03-24 Systematic theology seeks to understand and render more intelligible the central doctrines of faith and to show how they are related to each other It tries to demonstrate how these doctrines are rooted in Scripture and develop in the history of the church most important it strives to more adequately express and sometimes reinterpret the church's doctrinal tradition always in the interest of better communicating the mystery of salvation and bringing it into a dialogue with culture The present text is intended to be concise and accessible an introduction that explores basic themes in Catholic systematic theology from a biblical historical and contemporary perspective always aware of today's theological pluralism

The Vision of Vatican II Ormond Rush, 2019-06-27 2020 Catholic Press Association first place award theology theological and philosophical studies This book is unique in the literature about Vatican II From the manifold issues debated at the council and formulated in its sixteen documents Ormond Rush proposes that the salient features of the vision of Vatican II can be captured in twenty four principles He concludes by proposing that these principles can function as criteria for assessing the reception of the conciliar vision over the last five decades and into the future There is no other book that attempts such a comprehensive synthesis of the council s vision for renewal and reform of the Catholic Church      Penal Law in Action Msgr. Daly, Brendan,2023 This book on penal law explains the main topics of penal law with cases and examples of its implementation using the changed text of Book 6 of the Code of Canon Law that will come into effect on December 8 2021 Pope Francis has revised Book 6 of the Code of Canon Law Penal Sanctions in the Church canons 1311 1399 Of these 89 canons 63 have been changed and others have been renumbered Changes include a new canon 1376 concerning the crimes of stealing and misappropriation of church property canon 1398 2 making the sexual abuse of minors by religious brothers and sisters a crime c 1398 1 no 2 making grooming a crime Other changes in canon law since 1983 have been incorporated into the new book 6 These include raising the age for sexual abuse from under age 14 to under age 18 a 1988 law imposing penalties for recording confessions penalties for the attempted ordination of a woman penalties for bishops failing to report or take sufficient measures against perpetrators of sexual abuse and for clerics using pornography of those under age 18      Ecclesiology and Exclusion Dennis Michael Doyle,Timothy J. Furry,Pascal D. Bazzell,2012 Ecclesiologists and other experts from around the world address various forms of exclusion in the Catholic Church These essays address the many forms of exclusion in churches around the world with a major focus on the Roman Catholic Church but also addressing exclusion in other churches Topics included are exclusion of marginal people exclusion and racial justice exclusion and gender exclusion and sacramental practices and exclusion and ecumenical reality Contributors include Paul Lakeland Gerard Mannion A E Orobator Bryan Massingale Phyllis Zagano Neil Ormerod Bradford Hinze Mary McClintock Fulkerson and Susan K Wood among others      Being One at Home Thomas Knieps-Port le Roi,Ray Temmerman,2015 Taking seriously Pope John Paul II s statement t he Christian family constitutes a specific revelation and realization of ecclesial communion and for this reason too it can and should be called the domestic Church this book explores the lived reality of the Domestic Church from the perspective of that subset known as interchurch families Approaching the issue both experientially and theologically the book delves into what these families reveal and realize of communion extrapolating the findings to show what they have to say to the Church In the process it offers evidence that interchurch families far from being a problem form a gift to their churches for the unity of the Church Series Theology Research and Science Theologie Forschung und Wissenschaft Vol 48 Subject Religious Studies Christianity

Khrist Bhakta Movement: A Model for an Indian Church? Ciril J. Kuttiyanikkal,2014 In this PhD research the author has inquired the contribution of the Khrist Bhakta movement to inculturation in the field of community building in India He focuses on Matridham asram at Varanasi where rural Hinduism and the charismatic form of Catholic Christianity meet one another The author addresses the issues involved in this encounter from a social cultural legal pastoral and theological perspective which is relevant for all those interested in interreligious and intercultural encounter Book Jacket      In Order to Serve Leo J. Koffeman, 2014 Ecclesiology is in the centre of current ecumenical dialogue However this hardly seems to influence theological reflection on church polity This book explores new avenues in this respect in an attempt to enhance a truly ecumenical and inter cultural approach of the theological discipline of church polity without neglecting its juridical character     The Ecumenical Constitution of Churches José Oscar Beozzo, 2001 Contributions translated by John Bowden and Paul Burns Includes bibliographical references     Gregorianum ,2000     The Jurist ,2000     American Book Publishing Record ,2000
