Seeking Understanding John M. Shackleford, 2007 Faith Seeking Understanding promotes the idea that one can approach an understanding of God through the study of science Religious faith and scientific inquiry should not be seen as competitors diametrically opposed to each other but as complementary ways to assist the human quest for knowledge and deeper meaning of existence Science is viewed primarily as a gift from God The author with his background in both science and theology provides the reader with an understanding of human participation in God s creation John Shackleford explores the scientific evidence for a personal loving God in a positive dialogue between Christian faith and science that will be thought provoking for college and university students along with those interested in how science and religious faith intersect BOOK JACKET

inspired by a replica 18th century sailing ship on Sydney Harbour and a question from Steve's brother Tony: What if that was a real convict ship? TimeStorm explores that question in a fast-paced story as a group of desperate men from the 1700s clash in modern-day Sydney. TimeStorm was Highly Commended in the 2013 Jim Hamilton Award fantasy/science fiction category of the Fellowship of Australian Writers (FAW) National Literary Awards. Walsingham Mary Robinson, 2003-01-16

Walsingham is both a lively story and a commentary by Mary Robinson on her society's constraints upon women. The novel follows the lives of two main characters: Walsingham Ainsforth and his cousin Sir Sidney Aubrey, a girl who is passed off as a son by her mother so that she will become the family heir. Sidney, educated in France, returns to England as an adult and persistently sabotages Walsingham's love interests, having secretly fallen in love with him herself. Eventually, Sidney reveals her identity, and she and Walsingham declare their mutual love, wed, and share the family's estate. This Broadview edition includes a rich selection of primary source material, including contemporary reviews, historical and literary accounts of eighteenth-century female cross-dressers, and selections from contemporary works that focus on the figure of the fallen woman.
