Sheathing The Sword:

To Sheathe the Sword John P. Lovell, David E. Albright, 1997-01-28 This important new volume sponsored by the Indiana Center on Global Change and World Peace brings together academicians and practitioners in comparative politics and international relations to examine the impact of civil military relations on the process of democratization Contributors take an unprecedented look at current and emerging patterns of linkages between civil military relations and democratization especially in areas which have embarked on the path of democratization since the 1980s They also challenge or refine many of the concepts and models that have figured prominently in discussions of civil military relations and democratization These include the notion that democratization requires adoption of the traditional Western model of civil military relations

The Art of Anthonie Palamedes (1602-1673) Jochai Rosen, 2024-05-08 This book is the first complete study of the life and work of the 17th century Dutch painter Anthonie Palamedes 1602 1673 Palamedes was active in Delft one of the most important cities during the Dutch Golden Age alongside Vermeer Unlike his famous compatriot Vermeer Anthonie Palamedes was a successful painter He was socially acceptable was recognized and appreciated by his colleagues painted hundreds of pictures and achieved financial success that allowed him to live comfortably Palamedes is therefore the embodiment of the successful painter in the Dutch Golden Age The book includes a biography of the painter as well as a systematic and comparative iconographical and stylistic study of his work with an attached critical oeuvre catalogue
