Madrid Escapes:

Escape to Justice and Love Larry Lee Jorgenson, 2022-01-25 A Lakota grandmother's vision received from the Great Spirit leads to the seeking of retribution for the federal government taking Lakota bottom lands along the Missouri River in order to dam the river. Her grandson takes up the cause but is met with the evil forces of lies, racism and judicial injustice. Compassionate lawyering and the caring of a white girl seek to right the wrong that put Charlie Red Tail in prison four years for a crime he did not commit and to defend him on a bogus charge of murder. Johanna Johnson fell in love with him along the way but Charlie wasn't sure he was entitled as an Indian to such feelings although his heart wanted it to be so. As their caring for each other grew to mutual love, court rulings and a surprise confession of guilt freed up the couple to plan marriage and the serving of the people on the Horse Creek Reservation. Then tragedy struck. The lawyer who obtained a reversal of the sham rape conviction against the innocent Charlie and helped fight the murder charge when hanging around Charlie Red Tail's neck was himself a victim of the prejudice and hate of some in Indian Mound County who again took their sense of justice into their own hands. The young couple vowed to be as strong as their love and pursue dreams of better life than the past had been for each of them and those who stood by their sides during the hardships suffered.

Time Out Madrid Editors of Time Out, 2011-09-16 Madrid has gone from shanty town to imperial capital in the last seven centuries. The local writers of Time Out Madrid assist travelers in seeing the city as a native, suggesting where to stay, eat, shop and experience its cultural offerings. Famed for its wild nights and lazy days, Madrid provides a whole lot more from spectacular opera productions, chirpy folkloric zarzuela and cutting edge cuisine to ancient tiled tabernas, designer shoe shopping and numerous flea markets. Written by resident journalists, Time Out Madrid also covers the artistic jewels housed in the Prado, Thyssen and Reina Sofia as well as the etiquette of watching a bullfight or joining in with a flamenco performance as well as where to stay and how to escape the city heat. Also included are the intriguing stories behind some of the city's best known paintings where to find gourmet tapas, the yoga centers, spas and Turkish baths. Climbing, skiing and hang gliding are all within reach of the city and suggested trips out of town are also recommended.

Andalusian in Jerusalem MOIS BENARROCH, 2018-01-15 Mois Benarroch is an intriguing and unique writer. A writer must follow his books, his readers, his words. Otherwise he is unforgivable. That's why I wandered about the streets of Jerusalem as if my book were leading me somewhere as if I had no choice but to follow my words. I followed my words and my words chased me. The words I spoke in class when I was eight, lacking much sense without clearly understanding why, in the school in Lucena at the end of the world, I'm a Jew just as I said it to my best friend in secret, a secret which lasted half a morning before the whole class knew it and one day longer before it was on everybody's lips from students to headmaster. My intimate friend, I think his name was Raul, said to me, I knew it. Which I couldn't understand how could he know it if I had invented it. But everybody knew it the very same day that is everybody told me they knew I was an odd guy.
