Milk Chocolate Naked Moon:

Milk Chocolate Naked Moon Joe Okonkwo, 2002-10 Joe Okonkwo has produced a volume of poetry that is actually a mosaic of African American and Gay issues This riveting collection covers everything from Jazz and sex to politics and dating from racism within the Gay community to black on black racism There are poems about the journey from depression to wholeness and poems about exuberant gay men flouncing about the streets wearing only silk boxer shorts and argyle socks This volume has a little of everything including poignant tributes to Jazz greats Ethel Waters and Billie Holiday Joe Okonkwo fearlessly tackles taboo subjects such as what some African Americans really think about the ghetto who really bears the blame for slavery and how expectations the Gay media sets forth affect those who don't or can't comply Milk Chocolate Naked Moon is exactly what we've been waiting for an unpredictable page turning collection of poetry The Earth Spirit

The Mystical Pleasures of Chocolate Pharaoh, 2000-12 Since I have been a lover and student of chocolate since birth I have looked at the seductive high gloss covers for books dedicated to the use of chocolate for desserts What has drawn me to those books has been the eye arresting graphic designs lettering and rich provocative dark and milk chocolate jackets Since my book explores the metaphoric and symbolic quality of chocolate women then the analogy works perfectly on multiple levels of meaning For example according to chocolate connoisseurs chocolate was the food of the mythic gods of the Mayans and Aztecs Moreover the sun played a dynamic role in the germination of this plant that eventually became the rage of Europe and then America Like chocolate chocolate women come in a spectrum of flavors colors textures sounds and scents Moreover gentlemen who have made it their life s work to know the spectrum of chocolate tend to become chocolate connoisseurs Hence my meditations celebrate the spectrum of chocolate women who are works of art
