Race Colour And Identity In Australia And New Zealand:

Race, Colour and Identity in Australia and New Zealand John Docker, Gerhard Fischer, 2000 Fourteen academics and writers from the land down under present papers on aboriginal identity Asians in Australia Australians in Asia bi and multiculturalism in New Zealand and whiteness most of which were presented at the 1998 Sydney conference Adventures of Identity Constructing the Multic

The Spirit of Colin McCahon Zoe Alderton, 2015-02-27 The Spirit of Colin McCahon provides a vivid historical contextualisation of New Zealand's premier modern artist clearly explaining his esoteric religious themes and symbols Via a framework of visual rhetoric this book explores the social factors that formed McCahon's religious and environmental beliefs and justifications as to why his audience often missed the intended point of spiritual his discourse or chose to ignore it The Spirit of Colin McCahon tracks the intricate process by which the artist's body of work turned from optimism to misery and explains the many communicative techniques he employed in order to arrest suspicion towards his Christian prophecy More broadly The Spirit of Colin McCahon outlines a model of analysis for the intersection of art and religion and the place of images as rhetorical devices within Antipodean culture The emerging field of religion and visual culture is important not only to students of New Zealand art history but also to a growing field of appreciation for the communicative power of images This book provides a helpful model for examining art and literature as social and religious tools and advances the importance of visual rhetoric within studies of art and social expression

Gender and Global Politics in the Asia-Pacific B. D'Costa, K. Lee-Koo, 2008-12-22 This book demonstrates the integral nature of gendered issues and feminist frameworks for a comprehensive understanding of contemporary IR bringing together the work of feminist scholars teachers and activists into a coherent and accessible collection

The Pain of Unbelonging, 2007-01-01 Beyond the obvious and enduring socio economic ravages it unleashed on indigenous cultures white settler colonization in Australasia also inflicted profound damage on the collective psyche of both of the communities that inhabited the contested space of the colonial world The acute sense of alienation that colonization initially provoked in the colonized and colonizing populations of Australia and New Zealand has recent studies indicate developed into an endemic existential pathology Evidence of the psychological fallout from the trauma of geographical deracination cultural disorientation and ontological destabilization can be found not only in the state of anomie and self destructive patterns of behaviour that now characterize the lives of indigenous Australian and Maori peoples but also in the perpetually faltering identity discourse and cultural rootlessness of the present descendants of the countries Anglo Celtic settlers It is with the literary expression of this persistent condition of alienation that the essays gathered in the present volume are concerned Covering a heterogeneous selection of contemporary Australasian literature what these critical studies convincingly demonstrate is that more than two hundred years after the process of colonisation was set in motion the experience that Germaine Greer has dubbed the pain of unbelonging continues unabated constituting a dominant thematic concern in the writing produced today by Australian and

New Zealand authors Australian Sociology David Holmes, Kate Hughes, Roberta Julian, 2014-09-01 Australian Sociology 4e provides a concise and current introduction to the field of Sociology through an analysis of Australian society In doing so it draws on a diverse range of perspectives as well as a myriad of topics that go to issues at the core of Australian social life Our ever changing society presents continuing challenges to sociological analysis This new edition of Australian Sociology sets out to document these many changes while retaining an organised analysis required of an introductory overview of Australian society One of Us? David Dutton, 2002 When Paul Keating announced his plans for an Australian Republic in 1995 he emphatically appealed for Australia's head of state to be one of us But what does it mean to be one of us Who can be an Australian citizen Who was entitled to citizenship in the past By what paths can newcomers become one of us And how have these paths changed since 1901 One of Us A Century of Australian Citizenship traces the meanings of citizenship and belonging that are evident in the Australian Government's civil policies The book shows that since Federation Australian citizenship has had much less to do with questions of civil and political rights democracy and sovereignty than with a determination to create a cohesive and loyal citizenry The government's policies have addressed the problems it has faced in incorporating migrants and in controlling the movement of people in and out of the country At a time when questions of who can be one of us are as alive as ever and when citizenship race and multiculturalism are vital issues in contemporary politics this comprehensive examination of our past is vital to our understanding of the issue of citizenship today Indigenous Peoples, Racism and the United Nations Martin N. Nakata, 2001 This book is published as both a record of conference proceedings the workshops and the papers given and a series of recommendations to be taken forward as agenda items for the United Nations at the World Conference in Durban South Africa September 2001 East and Southeast Asia 2012 Steven A. Leibo, 2012-08-09 Updated annually East Southeast Asia provides just enough historical background on the evolution of Modern East Southeast Asia to help readers understand contemporary developments in this vital region Broad introductory regional and comparative chapters are followed by distinct sections on each country in the region and for some sub chapters are areas such as Tibet More specifically the text focuses on contemporary political economic and environmental developments and has been especially designed to offer a concise introduction to contemporary developments for students and travelers alike East and Southeast Asia 2022-2023 James E. Hoare, 2022-09-15 The World Today Series East Southeast Asia provides historical background on the evolution of Modern East Southeast Asia to help readers gain a thorough understanding of contemporary developments in this vital region Broad introductory regional chapters are followed by sections on each country in the region The combination of factual accuracy and up to date detail make this an outstanding resource for researchers practitioners in international development media professionals government officials potential investors and students to understand the immediate background of contemporary developments East and Southeast Asia 2023-2024 James E. Research Handbook presents a comprehensive assessment of multiculturalism in political theory and practice from an international perspective Geoffrey Brahm Levey brings together 30 leading experts from around the world to assess the current state of the field charting lines of inquiry for further research Cinematic Settlers Janne Lahti,Rebecca Weaver-Hightower,2020-07-26 This anthology adds to the burgeoning field of settler colonial studies by examining settler colonial narratives in the under analyzed medium of film Cinematic Settlers discusses different cinematic genres national traditions and specific movies in order to expose related threads shared circulations of knowledge and paralleled representations Organized into thematic groupings conquest settlers natives and space the contributors explore the question of how film compares to written genres and other visual media in representing and effecting settler colonialism on a global scale Striving for inclusiveness the volume covers different eras and settler colonial situations in Australia New Zealand Taiwan Hawaii the American West Canada Latin America Russia France Algeria German Africa South Africa and even the next frontier outer space By showing how films offer layered contested and dynamic settler colonial narratives that advance and challenge settler hegemonic readings the essays enable students to better analyze and understand the complex history of diversity and colonialism in film This book is important reading for undergraduate classes on the history of empire colonialism and film Locating Asian Australian Cultures Tseen Khoo,2013-10-18 Locating Asian Australian Cultures is a timely and challenging interdisciplinary compilation that sets a contemporary benchmark for Asian Australian studies and its future directions In the dynamic field of diasporic Asian studies Asian Australian Studies is an emerging and contentious area While cognisant of issues and critical developments in North America Europe and Asia Asian Australian studies forges its own specific engagements with questions of identity racialization and nationalisms in a world of globalized cultures and movements This book deliberately engages with international perspectives on Asian Australian studies that offer contingent connections and address crucial questions for fields that are rapidly de nationalizing The volume focuses on Asian Australian cultural production and identity presenting work that interrogates notions of belonging and citizenship representational politics and disciplinarity in the academy The broad ranging essays examine the politics of Asian Australian art and literature as well as the area s significant interventions in disciplinary formations nationally and internationally Other essays discuss the Vietnamese War memorial in Cabramatta notions of the sacrificial Asian in contemporary films and Chinatown sites in Australia This book will be essential reading not only for researchers in Asian Australian studies but also for those with an interest in Asian diaspora and Australian studies

Multiple Identities Paul Spickard,2013-04-12 In recent years Europeans have engaged in sharp debates about migrants and minority groups as social problems The discussions usually neglect who these people are how they live their lives and how they identify themselves Multiple Identities describes how migrants and minorities of all age groups experience their lives and manage complex often multiple identities which alter with time and changing circumstances The contributors consider minorities who have received a lot of attention such as Turkish Germans and some who have received little such as Kashubians and Tartars in Poland and Chinese in Switzerland They also examine international adoption and cross cultural relationships and discuss some models for multicultural success

Cultural Wounding, Healing, and Emerging Ethnicities A. Kearney,2014-11-26 Today there is new appeal in the analysis of ethnicity not merely as innate and fixed identities or fragmented and lost identities but rather as wounded and then creatively reclaimed Kearney discusses international examples of cultural wounding and healing and presents two close readings of emerging ethnicities in Australia and Brazil

East and Southeast Asia 2013 Steven A. Leibo,2013-08-28 Updated annually East Southeast Asia provides just enough historical background on the evolution of Modern East Southeast Asia to help readers understand contemporary developments in this vital region

Governance and Multiculturalism Catherine Koerner,Soma Pillay,2019-08-14 A key intervention in the growing critical literature on race this volume examines the social construction of race in contemporary Australia through the lenses of Indigenous sovereignty nationhood and whiteness Informed by insights from white Australians in rural contexts Koerner and Pillay attempt to answer how race shapes those who identify as white Australian how those who self identify thusly relate to the nation multiculturalism and Indigenous Sovereignities and how white Australians understand and experience their own racialized position and its privilege This insider perspective on the continuing construction of whiteness in Australia is analyzed and challenged through Indigenous Sovereign theoretical standpoints and voices Ultimately this investigation of the social construction of race not only extends conceptualizations of multiculturalism but also informs governance policy in the light of changing national identity

Unsettling Narratives Clare Bradford,2007-04-26 Children s books seek to assist children to understand themselves and their world Unsettling Narratives Postcolonial Readings of Children s Literature demonstrates how settler society texts position child readers as citizens of postcolonial nations how they represent the colonial past to modern readers what they propose about race relations and how they conceptualize systems of power and government Clare Bradford focuses on texts produced since 1980 in Canada the United States Australia and New Zealand and includes picture books novels and films by Indigenous and non Indigenous publishers and producers From extensive readings the author focuses on key works to produce a thorough analysis rather than a survey Unsettling Narratives opens up an area of scholarship and discussion the use of postcolonial theories relatively new to the field of children s literature and demonstrates that many texts recycle the colonial discourses naturalized within mainstream cultures Approaching Transnationalisms Brenda Yeoh, Michael W. Charney, Tong Chee Kiong, 2003-06-30 The term transnationalism has gained considerable academic and popular currency despite a lack of clear definitions in part because its overall form changes as its influence incorporates additional spheres of daily life on a variety of scales and contexts The purpose of this volume is to bring together different perspectives on this phenomenon using case studies that represent some of the most current thinking on transnationalism in a wide range of disciplines Central themes which this book explores include legal and economic reactions to transnational migration the re negotiation of identities in the context of changing national social and cultural identities and the emergence of new imaginings of home and social space in transnational communities Approaching Transnationalisms Studies on Transnational Societies Multicultural Contacts and Imaginings of Home foregrounds powerful transnational forces crossing the boundaries of nation states and at the same time gives attention to the continued significance of the nation state and the diversity of localized reactions to transnational challenges
