Baltimore and Ohio Employees Magazine, 1912 Are You Ready for Bed? Jane Johnson, 2002 Mrs Rabbit has just put her children to bed and is ready to enjoy the peace and quiet when Little Bunny announces that he cannot sleep Rise of the Nightkings Levi Samuel, 2019-05-04 How long can peace last once a dark god has been banished to your world Inyalia s always dreamed of becoming a ranger Whether shooting apples off her sister's head tracking any number of beasts into their lair or exploring the forest of Trendensil one thing's for certain She's never lacked for finding trouble On her fourteenth cycle when elves are considered adults she sets out to achieve her dreams But things aren't as she expected Plagued by self doubt and the unorthodox methods of her mentor Inyalia must ask herself is this really the life for her Before she can answer her world is torn asunder Fire and brimstone rain from the sky The dead crawl from their graves And entire units of trained rangers disappear overnight Whether she's ready or not war is coming Can Inyalia overcome her fears and step into a battle never before known to her people Or will her lack of experience be her downfall Find out in this new coming of age epic fantasy from the author of the Eldarlands Saga Garden & Home Builder William Tyler Miller, 1916 Vick's Monthly Magazine ... , 1886

Karma isn't a bitch Adrian Gabriel Dumitru, I was a hotel owner A businessperson I managed a comfortable life owned a decent sized hotel and a small complex of houses just outside the city My world was tidy predictable built on balance sheets and bookings But everything changed in a matter of days Not just for me but for hundreds of others who arrived with nothing but fear in their eyes and the clothes on their backs When the war started in Ukraine I didn't plan to get involved I watched the news like everyone else shocked and angry I saw the images families separated cities bombed people running with no clear destination And then the buses started arriving The first week was chaos Hundreds of people came through most of them women many with children a few with parents in tow I still remember the exhaustion on their faces the silence of the children the way they clutched plastic bags like lifelines They didn't want much Just somewhere safe to breathe Somewhere warm I opened the doors to my hotel and the houses Everything was free No one asked me to do it No one promised anything in return I just knew I had to It was as if some unseen force had taken hold of me whispered Go Help I didn't ask questions I just moved It wasn't easy In fact it was one of the hardest things I've ever done We ran out of food space patience sleep I had to expand rooms make temporary bedding organize volunteers and mediate endless conflicts Because truth be told when you put hundreds of strangers in the same space traumatized frightened with no idea what tomorrow brings it's not peaceful It's pressure Constant pressure And those women They drove me crazy a million times over Some demanded too much others clashed with each other some cried constantly and a few didn't even say thank you I got yelled at lied to leaned on But despite all that I couldn't stop I kept helping Even when I swore I'd had enough something inside me kept pushing me forward Looking back now three and a half years later I realize I was part of something far bigger than myself Something karmic That's the only word that fits I didn't help because I was a good person I helped because I was meant to Something or someone moved me I still don't know what it was A force A pull Maybe God Maybe fate But whatever it was it made sure I didn't walk away Now with the clarity of time I can say this we all showed our true faces during those years Every single one of us The refugees the volunteers even me Some people became bitter selfish cruel Others became softer kinder stronger We didn't all come out better but we all came out revealed I saw women who had lost everything step up to help others I saw volunteers cry from exhaustion and then keep working I saw teenagers become men overnight I saw sides of myself I didn't know existed both noble and shameful There were days I cursed the war the people and the entire mission But there were also days where the smallest thank you broke me open Today I still host some of them Not as many but enough Some have stayed in Romania Some went back Some moved on to Germany France even Canada I still help even when it's hard Even when I feel I have nothing more to give Why I wish I had a rational answer But I don't The truth is that force whatever it was is still inside me I'm still determined Not because I expect reward Not because I'm a saint But because when everything fell apart for them I had something to offer A room A bed A moment of peace And if I could do it again even knowing how hard it would be I would Because in that mission difficult chaotic maddening I found something I didn't even know I was searching for I found myself And I learned that sometimes the greatest act of love is simply to open your door
