Real Bullets:

Those are Real Bullets Peter Pringle, Philip Jacobson, 2002-02 One of the pivotal events in Modern British history occurred in Derry in 1972 when a civil rights march was led into an ambush Interspersed within the unfolding disaster is the story of the Troubles in Northern Ireland Bullet Proof Matt Croucher GC, 2009-10-13 AFGHANISTAN FEBRUARY 2008 in an out of control dangerous country torn apart by war littered with Taliban guerrilla forces and thousands of miles from home Lance Corporal Matt Croucher a Royal Marine with 40 Commando accidentally activates a grenade whilst on a covert patrol behind enemy lines With only a split second to react Croucher's instincts kick in and he throws himself beside the grenade reasoning that saving the lives of his three comrades was worth the likelihood of losing his own Miraculously and against all the odds Croucher survived and mere hours later was taking part in a gun battle against local insurgent fighters demonstrating a raw unique courage and devotion to military duty that would later see him awarded the George Cross a distinction bestowed only on those who perform acts of the greatest heroism or of the most conspicuous courage in circumstances of extreme danger Croucher's George Cross would make him famous around the world But his story is much more than just one heroic act in isolation His is a life of bullets blood and loyalty and of lives saved and lives taken From a young marine aged 19 when he was one of the first 200 Allied soldiers to invade Iraq back in 2003 as part of an elite force of British Marines and US Special Forces through to his second tour of duty in 2004 when he suffered a fractured skull following a roadside bomb attack only to return to action just a week later and then being thrust into hellish Afghanistan Croucher has seen vicious fighting intense gun battles roadside ambushes and witnessed the death and injury of close colleagues on an almost daily basis This is his incredible story a searing vivid non stop account of one man's heroism and courage under fire in the most gruelling combat environment since the Second World War NIST Random Profile Roughness Specimens and Standard Bullets, 2000

Tales for Sale Matthew O'Malley, 2007-08 From the moral dilemmas of an ordinary soldier to a man's infatuation with a past love Tales for Sale a collection of fifteen thought provoking short stories will touch your deepest emotions No Honor Killing tells of a conflicted soldier who thinks hard about what he hears from his colonel that there is honor in the executions that his men carry out as long as they dress in full uniform But when the men are asked to kill their own drummer they must decide whether to follow orders In Stations a man still enthralled by the scent of a past lover must decide whether to take her back when he hears from her for the first time in seven years Possibly Cursed Mirror tells the story of a new homeowner who is desperate to give away a mirror that someone left at his home The previous owner put it in a corner where no one could ever possibly stand directly in front of it But the mirror has been moved Matthew O'Malley delivers a compelling collection that runs the gamut of emotions from funny and sad to scary and light hearted Get ready for the unusual Two Bullets in Sarajevo D. Lawrence-Young, 2016-03-23 In the summer of 1914 Europe was a large bonfire just waiting to be lit Princip a poverty stricken student becomes involved with an extreme Serbian nationalist organisation known as the Black Hand which dreams of achieving independence from Austria Opposing them the Austrian Emperor Franz Josef is determined not to give in to Serbia's demands and sends his nephew the Archduke Franz Ferdinand to show the flag in Sarajevo This is a golden opportunity for Princip et al to act They assassinate the archduke and his wife but have to pay the price for this act of murder Two Bullets in Sarajevo is a different style novel about the First World War Instead of dealing with the national and international politics of the time it concentrates on actual people involved the conspirators and the victims who were behind this assassination in one of the most crucial murders in world history It is also a love story the story of how the outwardly gruff and forbidding Archduke Franz Ferdinand fought against the rigid protocols of the Austrian court in order to marry his beautiful wife to be Sophie Chotek It takes him over five years to overcome the court's opposition but in the end he succeeds and marries his beloved Sophie This well researched novel delves into the personalities involved on both sides of this historical situation the unbending Austrian aristocrats and military leaders as well as the poverty stricken idealistic Serbian nationalists who can dream only of independence for their beloved Serbia It will appeal to those looking for an inspired yet accurate retelling of First World War history

The Bounds of Defense Bradley Jay Strawser, 2023 Liberal conceptions of the moral justification for war have become dominant since the publication of Michael Walzer's Just Unjust Wars in 1977 This dominance is seen across all contemporary manifestations of just war theory from international relations and diplomatic discourse from the minds and proclamations of military commanders and governmental leaders to the everyday political assertions and philosophical rationalization of most individuals Similarly rights based accounts of the moral justification of individual defensive killing have been dominant since at least Judith J Thomson's work on the issue in the early Seventies Over the past two decades however these already rich fields of research just war theory and the ethics of defensive harm have each experienced significant and sustained resurgence

Metaphor in Communication, Science and Education Francesca Ervas, Elisabetta Gola, Maria Grazia Rossi, 2017-08-07 This collection of papers presents some recent trends in metaphor studies that propose new directions of research on the embodied cognition perspective The overall volume in particular shows how the embodied cognition still remains a relevant approach in a multidisciplinary research on the communicative side of metaphors by focusing on both comprehension processes in science as well as learning processes in education

I Will Bear True Faith and Allegiance Eric Axelbank, 2006-07 Chronicles the thrilling adventures of a young American patriot written in the candid and down to earth perspectives of one of our nation's Ten Outstanding Young Americans for the year 2004
